Lanctot,2015-10-15 Beyond Civilization and Barbarism examines how various cultural forms promoted competing political projects in Argentina during the decades following independence from Spain This turbulent period has long been characterized as a struggle between two irreconcilable forces the dictatorship of Juan Manuel de Rosas 1829 1852 versus a dissident intellectual elite Most famously Domingo Faustino Sarmiento described the conflict in his canonical Facundo 1845 as a clash between civilization and barbarism which has become a catchphrase for the experience of modernity throughout Latin America Against the grain of this durable script Beyond Civilization and Barbarism examines an extensive corpus to demonstrate how adversaries of the period used similar rhetorical strategies appealed to the same basic political ideals of republican government and were preoccupied with defining and interpellating the pueblo or people In other words their collective struggle was fundamentally modern and waged on a mutually intelligible discursive terrain Recollections of a Provincial Past Domingo Faustino Sarmiento,2005-03-24 Domingo Faustino Sarmiento 1811 1888 was Argentina s leading writer educator and politician of the nineteenth century and served as President from 1868 to 1874 Of his several autobiographies the best known Recollections of a Provincial Past is one of the indisputable classics of Spanish American literature as well as one of the earliest autobiographies written in the Americas in Spanish Written in exile in 1850 the memoirs describe his childhood and adolescence in an Andean province whose customs were still those of a colony Sarmiento presents his life as the triumph of civilization over barbarism looking back on his youth he measures his wealth and strength by the accumulation of enriching personal and political experiences He compares himself to the newly independent Argentina claiming to be a historically representative individual whose trajectory serves to illuminate contemporary South America

Barbarism The Life of Juan Facundo Quiroga generally referred to as El Facundo The contributors to this volume call attention to other facets of Sarmiento's life and to the results of the programs he encouraged The Dictator Novel Magalí Armillas-Tiseyra, 2019-07-15 Where there are dictators there are novels about dictators But dictator novels do not simply respond to the reality of dictatorship As this genre has developed and cohered it has acquired a self-generating force distinct from its historical referents The dictator novel has become a space in which writers consider the difficulties of national consolidation explore the role of external and global forces in sustaining dictatorship and even interrogate the political functions of writing itself Literary representations of the dictator therefore provide ground for a self-conscious and self-critical theorization of the relationship between writing and politics itself The Dictator Novel positions novels about dictators as a vital genre in the literatures of the Global South Primarily identified with Latin America the dictator novel also has underacknowledged importance in the postcolonial literatures of francophone and anglophone Africa Although scholars have noted similarities this book is the first extensive comparative analysis of these traditions it includes discussions of authors including Gabriel García Márquez Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Alejo Carpentier Augusto Roa Bastos Domingo Faustino Sarmiento José Martí Esteban Echeverría Ousmane Sembène Chinua Achebe Aminata Sow Fall Henri Lopès Sony Labou Tansi and Ahmadou Kourouma This juxtaposition illuminates the internal dynamics of the dictator novel as a literary genre In so doing Armillas-Tiseyra puts forward a comparative model relevant to scholars working across the Global South Caliban and Other Essays Roberto Fernández Retamar, 1989 Translated from Spanish become a kind of manifesto for Latin American and Caribbean writers the remaining four essays deal with Spanish and Latin American literature including the work of Nicaraguan poet Ernesto Cardenal Cloth edition unseen 35 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

De Castro, 2011-09 Examines the life and writings of Mario Vargas Llosa an outspoken author from Peru known for his political writings as well as his literary works who at one time was scheduled to debate Hugo Chávez of Venezuela himself over matters of socialism versus free market neoliberalism Chávez called the debate off however yielding a slough of questions about the late president's convictions about his political views and praise for the strength of Vargas Llosa's Theorizing Race in the Americas Juliet Hooker, 2017 Four prominent nineteenth and twentieth century U S African American and Latin American intellectuals Frederick Douglass and Domingo F Sarmiento and W E B Du Bois and Jos Vasconcelos have never been read alongside each other Although these thinkers addressed key political and philosophical issues in the Americas political theorists have yet to compare their ideas about race By juxtaposing these thinkers Theorizing Race in the Americas takes up the opportunity to bring African American and Latin American political thought into conversation and in turn maps a genealogy of racial theory throughout the hemisphere

The Limits of Identity Charles Hatfield, 2015-11-15 The Limits of Identity is a polemical critique of the repudiation of universalism and the theoretical commitment to identity and difference embedded in Latin American literary and cultural studies Through original readings of foundational Latin American thinkers such as Jos Mart and Jos Enrique Rod and contemporary theorists such as John Beverley and Doris Sommer Charles Hatfield reveals and challenges the anti universalism that informs seemingly disparate theoretical projects The Limits of Identity offers a critical reexamination of widely held conceptions of culture ideology interpretation and history The repudiation of universalism Hatfield argues creates a set of problems that are both theoretical and political Even though the recognition of identity and difference is normally thought to be a form of resistance The Limits of Identity claims that in fact the opposite is true France and the Americas Bill Marshall, 2005-05-24 A unique multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the impacts that French and American politics foreign policy and culture have had on shaping each country's identity From 17th century fur traders in Canada to 21st century peacekeepers in Haiti from France's decisive role in the Revolutionary War leading to the creation of the United States to recent disagreements over Iraq France and the Americas charts the history of the inextricable links between France and the nations of the Americas This comprehensive survey features an incisive introduction and a chronology of key events spanning 400 years of France's transatlantic relations Students of many disciplines as well as the lay reader will appreciate this comprehensive survey which traces the common themes of both French policy language and influence throughout the Americas and the wide ranging transatlantic influences on contemporary France The Migration and Politics of

Monsters in Latin American Cinema Gabriel Eljaiek-Rodríguez, 2018-09-26 The Migration and Politics of Monsters in Latin America proposes a cinematic cartography of contemporary Latin American horror films that take up the idea of the American continent as a space of radical otherness or monstrosity and use it for political purposes The book explores how Latin American film directors migrate foreign horror tropes to create cinematographic horror hybrids that reclaim and transform monstrosity as a form of historical rewriting By emphasizing the specificities of the Latin American experience this book contributes to broad scholarship on horror cinema at the same time connecting the horror tradition with contemporary discussions on violence migration fear of immigrants and the rewriting of colonial discourses Between Argentines And Arabs Christina Civantos, 2006-01-01 Examines the presence of Arabs and the Arab world in nineteenth and twentieth century Argentine literature by juxtaposing works by Argentines of European descent and those written by Arab immigrants in Argentina
