The Marketer's Handbook Laurie Young, 2011-04-22 This book written by a senior marketer with over thirty years experience of using marketing techniques and concepts sets out to describe contextualize and rate them Its prime emphasis is on understanding their status so that they can be used to direct the use of shareholder funds effectively Its conclusion is that seasoned professionals must use their judgement about when and how to use them but they also need to understand them in depth if they are going to make well rounded effective investment decisions Above all it asks how useful and relevant is this concept Will it improve decision making Does the damn thing have any credibility and does it work This book combines a rigorous review of a wide range of marketing concepts with many practical examples and case studies It can be read or dipped into both by seasoned professionals and by those just embarking on their marketing career

Sir Paul Judge President Chartered Institute of Marketing Laurie Young casts an experienced and skeptical eye on many cherished marketing concepts and techniques He provides an antidote to the tendency to adopt them without understanding their limitations and possibilities Professor George Day The Wharton School Chairman of the American Marketing Association Laurie Young has produced nothing less than the A Z of marketing He has journeyed far and wide mapping out hundreds of business marketing and communications models to produce an extremely useful industry atlas Certainly it will find a well thumbed home on my bookshelf

Hamish Pringle Director General Institute of Practitioners in Advertising This book is much needed by marketing Its value is in challenging concepts some of which have been the accepted norm for a long time But as this book shows some of these may no longer be relevant and appropriate for marketers in today's consumer environment

Mike Johnston CEO Dairy Council of Northern Ireland and former Chairman of the Chartered Institute of Marketing Senior marketers like those who make up the membership of the Marketing Society hone the methods and techniques they favour as their career develops Laurie Young clearly did that and an experienced voice shines through this critique It is heartening to find that so many concepts have a long history of producing real value for businesses but alarming to find so many of the theorists favourites to be so groundless

Hugh Burkitt CEO The Marketing Society

The Human in Command Carol McCann, Ross Pigeau, 2012-12-06 MAJOR GENERAL M K JEFFERY Command and indeed the human in command has always been key to military operations The complexity and tempo of modern operations make this statement even more true today than in the past However both the military and the research communities have tended to treat command and control C from a limited perspective For too long command and control have been considered as if they were a single concept with control often dominating our study Indeed in many cases we have divorced operational C from the military institution itself resulting in disconnects and inefficiencies Then in an attempt to overcome these self-inflicted deficiencies we have pursued the Holy Grail of technology hoping that it would solve our C problems Only now as we start to realize technology's costs and limitations are we looking critically at C This book attempts to take such a look The contributions that make up this book are the product of a June 1998 NATO North Atlantic Treaty Organization workshop called The Human in Command Far from being purely an academic exercise this gathering brought together military leaders and civilian scientists to discuss C's central pragmatic and conceptual issues its assumptions its practices and its organization Indeed in recent years there has been mounting evidence that both our society and its military institutions are

Constructive Engagement Nicholas Beale,2017-11-28 The relationships between investors directors and companies have never been so vital or so confusing Gone are the days when being a non executive director NED meant an agreeable lunch and when CEOs wanted them to meet investors over my dead body Even the most admired companies can be engulfed in scandal and the NEDs find themselves having to drive through fundamental changes The corporate environment is full of pitfalls for unwary boards And there are plenty of headline stories of directors who have failed to measure up Equally a high quality board which has the confidence of the investors is a major strategic asset making better decisions attracting better people and allowing bolder strategies to succeed with investor backing Nicholas Beale uses research gathered from leading FTSE 100 chairmen directors non executive directors and investors to explore their changing roles What emerges is a fascinating and instructive picture of constructive engagement an approach that sees these companies and the people behind them each in their own way address the challenges that are at the heart of global capitalism and that have lead to the Higgs Review Sarbanes Oxley and other regulatory attempts to address corporate mismanagement From discussions with over 100 leading practitioners detailed studies of three leading companies three leading investors and an extended case study on investor engagement at Royal Dutch Shell the author
