Faded Portraits:

The Amateur Photographer & Photography, 1927 Collective Memory and the Dutch East Indies Paul Doolan, 2025-10-01 Collective Memory and the Dutch East Indies Unremembering Decolonization examines the afterlife of decolonization in the collective memory of the Netherlands It offers a new perspective on the cultural history of representing the decolonization of the Dutch East Indies and maps out how a contested collective memory was shaped Taking a transdisciplinary approach and applying several theoretical frames from literary studies sociology cultural anthropology and film theory the author reveals how mediated memories contributed to a process of what he calls unremembering He analyses in detail a broad variety of sources including novels films documentaries radio interviews memoirs and historical studies to reveal how five decades of representing and remembering decolonization fed into an unremembering by which some key notions were silenced or ignored The author concludes that historians or the historical guild bear much responsibility for the unremembering of decolonization in Dutch collective memory The Indian Portrait - 4 Anil Relia, 2014-10-14 The Mughal documentation is known as the best recorded history of the world The catalogue is an attempt to showcase the lineage of the Mughal emperors who ruled in India and their heritage in terms of their lives pursuits art conquests administration alongwith a peep into their shrewd politics All works are part of a Mughal Muraqqa compiled by Hakim Ahsanallah Khan who was the chief adviser of the last Mughal Emperor Bahadur Shah Zafar in the year 1270 A H 1854 A D They were exhibited in October 2014 Faded Portraits Robert Nieuwenhuys, 1982 A fictionalized memoir of family life in former colonial Dutch East Indies Faded Portraits is the story of the once powerful DePaulys and especially of Aunt Sophie the matriarch whose efforts to preserve the family heritage the purity of the Dutch bloodline and culture prove inevitably tragic The forms to which aunt Sophie clings and which she seeks to impose on her family represent an arrogant blindness to the personal needs of others and to the cruelties of the colonial system and underscore the struggles of displaced people who must accept the eclipse of their way of life The book is reminiscent of the literature of the American South of the novels of William Faulkner Flannery O Connor John Crowne Ransom Robert Penn Warren That too was colonial literature wistfully determined to record an era that was passing The Flickinger Family History, 1927 The Poetical Works of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1883 Outre-mer; a Pilgrimage Beyond the Sea.
