Failing Our Kids:

Failing Our Kids Charles Ungerleider, 2004-03-16 Our public schools are in danger of collapse and if they do we will all pay the price Healthy public schools are essential for a healthy economy and creating informed citizens But we are neglecting our schools in a perversely malicious way making impossible demands on them strangling them financially creating trivial changes for the sake of ideology avoiding necessary changes and just plain ignoring them In this forcefully argued and convincing book education expert Charles Ungerleider makes our situation plain Canadians have never placed a higher value on education but if we do not do something about public schools now we may lose the benefits that they provide and miss the opportunity to fix them Drawing on the latest research and using examples from across the country Ungerleider describes what's right and what's wrong about our public schools system and provides solutions for making them a lot better He looks at the conflict between traditional and progressive approaches to education He argues that the public school curriculum has become bloated fragmented and mired in trivia He examines the effects of the changing family and the influence on children of television the Internet video games and their peers He discusses the work of teachers and teachers unions the changes in public school finance and governance and the issue of accountability And he takes on the issue of school choice and competition where more than anywhere else rhetoric prevails over reason Failing Our Kids Charles S. Ungerleider, 2007

Dumbing Down Our Kids Charles J. Sykes, 1995 Sykes concludes with a checklist for parents students and teachers who want to evaluate their schools and a series of recommendations to restore quality learning to America Failing Our Future Joshua R. Eyler, 2024-08-27 An indictment of the grading system in American schools and colleges and a blueprint for how we can change it One of the most urgent and long standing issues in the US education system is its obsession with grades In Failing Our Future Joshua R Eyler shines a spotlight on how grades inhibit learning cause problems between parents and children amplify inequities and contribute to the youth mental health crisis Eyler who runs the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning at the University of Mississippi illustrates how grades interfere with students intrinsic motivation and perpetuate the idea that school is a place for competition rather than discovery Grades force students to focus on rewards and distract them from exploring ideas or pursuing interests beyond what they'll be tested on In fact grades significantly impede the learning process They are also significantly affecting children's physical emotional and psychological well being Rates of anxiety depression and suicidal ideation have spiked and academic stress tied to grades is a leading cause of this escalation Eyler shares success stories of grading reform efforts that are already under way as an antidote to the harms caused by the practices currently used in educational institutions Equal parts scathing and hopeful Failing Our Future aims to improve the lives of students by encouraging them to define success on their own terms Parents educators policymakers and students will find in these pages a rallying cry for change and a blueprint for how to implement reforms in our homes and classrooms blame Is it the schools our churches parents the times we live in In Adult Report Card author Don Dilmore bluntly tells it like it is and how we can fix it This is a book every parent grandparent educator and church staff member needs to read Don Dilmore addresses wrong role models for kids churches that entertain rather than educate schools teaching political correctness rather than reading and history A discussion of how liberal courts vanishing patriotism a lack of manners the sexualization of our children by the media and parents forgetting they are parents all contribute to alarming trends among our greatest resource our children can all be found in Adult Report Card We Are Failing Our Children Dropout Leslie Gavel, 2017-08 One family's story of coping after their teenage daughter drops out of school and an examination of the public school system itself In the fall of 2000 while in Grade 7 Leslie Gavel's daughter Avery began what would be a four year disengagement from school Avery didn't fit the stereotype of the dropout Why would a privileged middle class adolescent choose this path when dropping out was a social stigma and would complicate her personal life and career choices Leslie began to analyze the school system itself but all of her research led not to answers but to further questions Did school its history structure practice play any role in underachievement Was the problem of marginal or failing grades chronic student dissatisfaction and disruptive classroom behaviour always the fault of the student and by extension her parents or could it be the fault of the school system itself And did dropping out an ultimate taboo for teenagers along with pregnancy and drug abuse really have to mean the end of the world for child and parent Told from the deeply personal perspective of a concerned parent Dropout is a memoir about one family's experience in the public school system It also considers the latest research in alternative approaches to school and offers suggestions for students who may not fit the educational mould or society's definition of success Leslie Gavel a former social worker is a Calgary freelance writer Her work has appeared in Reader's Digest Canadian Living More Today's Parent Avenue and several Canadian and American newspapers and has been produced for CBC national radio Born and raised in Regina she has lived in Calgary for decades Advance praise for Dropout In a courageous act of often painful self disclosure Leslie Gavel exposes the secret massive and most crippling bullying that haunts Western educational systems our abandonment and degradation of students who do not fit our perception of school success Like callous physicians who coldly dismiss patients who have illnesses they don't understand our schools treat non achievers as pariahs as lepers confronting us with things we'd rather not see This bullying is even more damaging than peer abuse for struggling kids like Gavel's daughter since the devastating rejection comes not from teenaged jerks but from admired and respected adult authorities This brave book should be required reading for anyone who claims the title of educator and will help parents to bind the wounds of these suffering children and nurture them back to life success and happiness Dr Michael J Bradley author of Yes Your Teen Is Crazy Loving Your Kid Without Losing Your Mind Dropout is not only a ruthlessly honest saga of one family's conflict over school it is also a polemic that rails against a system that cries out for fundamental reform Through research and storytelling Leslie Gavel shows the reader what's wrong with school as it is conducted today which is not unlike how it was conducted one hundred years ago when the goal was to produce workers for factories who'd do as they were told Gavel warns something must change or our children will continue to be victims of an oppressive authoritarian institution I wish I'd read Dropout before my own kids faced off against our one size fits all educational system Robert W Fuller Ph D former president of Oberlin College Failing Our Veterans Mark Boulton, 2014-08 Returning Vietnam veterans had every reason to expect that the government would take care of their readjustment needs in the same way it had done for veterans of both World War II and Korea But the Vietnam generation soon discovered that their G I Bills fell well short of what many of them believed they had earned Mark Boulton's groundbreaking study provides the first analysis of the legislative debates surrounding the education benefits offered under the Vietnam era G I Bills Specifically the book explores why legislators from both ends of the political spectrum failed to provide Vietnam veterans the same generous compensation offered to veterans of previous wars Failing Our Veterans should be essential reading to scholars of the Vietnam War political history or of social policy Contemporary lawmakers should heed its historical lessons on how we ought to treat our returning veterans Indeed veterans wishing to fully understand their own homecoming experience will find great interest in the book's conclusions Cheating Our Kids Joe Williams, 2014-12-09 Journalist Joe Williams shows how parents can use consumer power to put children first shining light on the special interests controlling our schools where politics and pork infuse everything and our children's education is compromised He argues that increased accountability and choice are necessary and shows how the people can take back the education system enhancing responsibility inherent in democracy The solution is a new brand of hardball politics that demands competence from school leaders and shifts the power away from bureaucrats and union leaders to the people who have the greatest reason to put kids first concerned parents With practical steps and uplifting examples of success Cheating Our Kids How Politics and Greed Ruin Education is a manifesto to action Your Kids Are Your Own Fault Larry Winget, 2009-12-24 Read Larry Winget's posts on the Penguin Blog Straight talking bestselling Pitbull of Parenting Larry Winget says This is not a fix your kid book It's a fix the way you parent book You owe it to your kids to parent with a plan Being a parent is the toughest job in the world especially with the increasing number of negative influences and pitfalls facing our kids today from childhood obesity and out of control celebrity culture to the dangers of the internet and credit card debt Larry Winget has never been one to shy away from tough truths and what he says here may well be difficult for some parents to swallow we are in the midst of a crisis with our kids Kids today are over indulged over entertained under achieving and under disciplined with a sense of entitlement that is crippling society And the real problem is that parents aren't paying attention to what's going on If they were they would realize that most kids today barely read and write except with their thumbs on their cell phones Well behaved respectful kids are the exception not the rule and for the most part parents are to blame Responsible parenting is about beginning with the end in mind and parenting with a plan But most parents have never stopped to consider what kind of adult they want to raise They have all this fun creating a baby but they don't have a plan for the end product Larry's message to parents Teach your kids to become the best adults they can be But don't expect your kids to improve until you improve Your Kids Are Your Own Fault covers familiar lessons and principles that have led Larry's readers to greater success with money career and goal setting this time at a level where they can be taught to children This book shows parents how to design the adult they want their kid to become and work backwards to make sure it happens Kids don't come with an instruction manual but finally being a parent does Watch a Video
