Failure Of Political Institutionalisation:

The Failure of Political Reform in Venezuela Julia Buxton, 2020-09-29 This title was first published in 2001 The victory of former lieutenant colonel Hugo Chavez in the Venezuelan presidential elections of 1998 was criticized as a blow against the country's deep seated democratic tradition It is claimed that this simplistic argument fails to recognize the extent of democratic deterioration in the country and the limitations imposed by discredited political actors on a meaningful democratic reform process The book aims to break new ground in providing unseen evidence of electoral fraud and offers a fresh perspective on the nature of democratic development

Failed States and Institutional Decay Natasha M. Ezrow, Erica Frantz, 2013-07-18 What do we mean by failed states and why is this concept important to study The failed states literature is important because it aims to understand how state institutions or lack thereof impact conflict crime coups terrorism and economic performance In spite of this objective the failed state literature has not focused enough on how institutions operate in the developing world This book unpacks the state by examining the administrative security judicial and political institutions separately By doing so the book offers a more comprehensive and clear picture of how the state functions or does not function in the developing world merging the failed state and institutionalist literatures Rather than merely describing states in crisis this book explains how and why different types of institutions deteriorate Moreover the book illustrates the impact that institutional decay has on political instability and poverty using examples not only from Africa but from all around the world

South Africa, Settler Colonialism and the Failures of Liberal Democracy Doctor Thiven Reddy, 2015-12-15 In South Africa two unmistakable features describe post Apartheid politics The first is the formal framework of liberal democracy including regular elections multiple political parties and a range of progressive social rights The second is the politics of the extraordinary which includes a political discourse that relies on threats and the use of violence the crude re racialization of numerous conflicts and protests over various popular grievances In this highly original work Thiven Reddy shows how conventional approaches to understanding democratization have failed to capture the complexities of South Africa's post Apartheid transition Rather as a product of imperial expansion the South African state capitalism and citizen identities have been uniquely shaped by a particular mode of domination namely settler colonialism

South Africa Settler Colonialism and the Failures of Liberal Democracy is an important work that sheds light on the nature of modernity democracy and the complex politics of contemporary South Africa

Institutionalisation of Political Parties Robert Harmel, Lars G Svåsand, 2019-01-30 This edited collection builds directly upon the recently published book by Harmel Sv sand and Mjelde

Institutionalisation and De Institutionalisation of Right Wing Protest Parties The Progress Parties in Denmark and Norway and applies their conceptual framework to a wide range of additional cases Employing a common conceptual framework throughout the chapters cover a broad range of cases and make important contributions toward building theories on why some parties succeed in institutionalising while others fail The book is primarily about the status some parties achieve as an institution the means by which parties may acquire that status and some of the obstacles that stand in their way     The Institutionalisation of Political Parties in Postauthoritarian Indonesia From the Grass-roots Up Ulla Fionna,     Why Neo-Liberalism Failed in France Kevin Brookes,2021-11-01 This book fills a gap in the literature on economic liberalism in France as it strives to resolve a paradox How do we reconcile the fact that while France has been among the most fertile of soils for the liberal intellectual tradition the theoretical ideas it has produced has little impact on its own public debate and public policies Using a wide range of data on public policies it demonstrates that neo liberal thought has had far less influence in France than in other European nations during the period from 1974 to 2012 The failure of neo liberalism to propagate in public policies France is shown to be mainly due to the strong resistance of public opinion towards it In addition the structure of French institutions has reinforced the effect of path dependence in the making of public policy by valuing state expertise above that of actors likely to question the post war consensus such as academics and think tanks Finally the book identifies other more incidental factors which contributed to neo liberalism marginality the fragmentation and radicalism of neo liberal advocates as well as the absence of charismatic political actors to effectively embody these ideas This book is a useful educational tool for students of economics sociology political science and of French political history This book is also of interest for journalists think tank researchers and professionals of politics and administration     The Institutionalisation of Political Parties in Post-authoritarian Indonesia Ulla Fionna,2025-10-01 The Institutionalisation of Political Parties in Post authoritarian Indonesia From the Grass roots Up provides detailed examination of how much the local party branches of Partai Golkar Partai Demokrasi Indonesia Perjuangan Partai Amanat Nasional and Partai Keadilan Sejahtera in Malang East Java have institutionalized since the end of New Order era 1966 1998 Based on extensive fieldwork and observation this book provides a new bottom up perspective on how activities administration and membership of each party has changed and why some parties have more developed organizational prowess and stronger institutional base than others     Politics and Society in the Developing World Mehran Kamrava,2012-10-12 This book is a welcome new edition which completely updates and revises the very popular first edition Politics and Society in the Third World Mehran Kamrava has brought the book in line with the major changes in global politics and the politics and social issues of the developing world The book examines key issues such as democratisation civil society organisations and NGOs political society state collapse democratic bargains and transition consolidation and problems of legitimacy elections multi party politics industrial development dependency theory and globalisation the roles of the IMF and the World Bank the GATT and other multinational institutions urbanisation social change the increasing influence of western values capital and institutions urbanisation social change the increasing influence of western values capital and institutions political culture its role and impact in newly democratic developing countries revolution and gives more examples from Africa East Asia and rural societies     State Politics and Public Policy in Eastern Africa Gedion Onyango,2023-03-22 This book analyses major themes in twenty first century east African politics Predominantly authored by researchers and academics from the region it examines recent political developments public policy and governance across east and southern African countries The book advocates for a regionally focused comparative approach across Africa arguing that it provides a greater level of analysis than a complete continental study Adopting a multidisciplinary approach it covers numerous topics relating to politics public policy state and nation building in Africa Filling an important void in current literature the book will appeal to academics practitioners politicians and students of politics public policy and governance Chapter 16 and 20 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

A Political Economy of the African Crisis Bade Onimode, 1988

China in the 1990s Robert Benewick, Paul Wingrove, 1999 Now updated with a chapter length afterword by the editors on the end of the Deng era and its aftermath China in the 1990s provides a comprehensive survey of a nation in transition An understanding of this complex process requires a multidisciplinary and multidimensional approach which the editors have achieved by bringing together experts from Britain the United States Europe Australia and Hong Kong who examine China's economic political military cultural and social achievements and problems The difficulties China still faces are enormous some of them of its own making pollution urban sprawl the insecurity of food supplies the risks of political authoritarianism and the perils of liberalisation Its population is still growing dramatically and is likely to be 1.5 billion by 2015 three times what it was when the P.R.C. was established in 1949 But since embarking on a reform programme which at the time seemed experimental and hard to reconcile with official ideology it has gone from being the sick man of Asia to being one of the world's largest and fastest developing economies in what now looks to be a remarkably effective and well managed transition

Political and Institutional Transition in North Africa Silvia Colombo, 2018-06-13 The year 2011 will go down in history as a turning point for the Arab world The popular unrest that swept across the region and led to the toppling of the Ben Ali Mubarak and Qaddafi regimes in Tunisia Egypt and Libya has fundamentally altered the social economic and political outlooks of these countries and the region as a whole This book assesses the transition processes unleashed by the uprisings that took place in Egypt and Tunisia in 2011 The wave of unrest and popular mobilisation that swept through these countries is treated as the point of departure of long and complex processes of change manipulation restructuring and entrenchment of the institutional structures and logics that defined politics The book explores the constitutive elements of institutional development namely processes of constitution making electoral politics the changing status and power of the judiciary and the interplay between the civilian and the military apparatuses in Egypt and Tunisia It also considers the extent to which these two countries have become more democratic as a result of their institutions being more legitimate accountable and responsive at the beginning of 2014 and from a comparative perspective The impact of temporal factors in shaping transition paths is highlighted throughout the book The book provides a comprehensive assessment of political and institutional transition processes in two key countries in North Africa and its conclusions shed light on similar processes that have taken place throughout the region since 2011 It will be a valuable resource for anyone studying Middle Eastern and North African politics area studies comparative institutional development and democratisation

Institutional System Analysis in Political Economy Taner Akan,2016-03-09 The enduring debate on institutional pillars of contemporary political economies has gathered a noticeable momentum in terms of the change path dependence and varieties of capitalism By taking a methodological standpoint claiming that the current structure and the future of contemporary societies can only be understood by using an evolutionary and macro institutional approach that would explain the trajectories of social structures from a systemic perspective this book first aims at formulating a novel analytical framework thus Institutional System Analysis in Political Economy This framework comprises inter alia a model of path dependent changes and then attempts to apply it to the case of the Ottoman Turkish social system In sum the book develops an interaction theoretic and evolutionarily structured approach with an aim to better capture the path dependence and change of political economic and cultural action in terms of their intersectional dynamics The Failure of Political

Institutionalisation in Cambodia Michael Liefer, Justice, Crime, and Citizenship in Eurasia Erica Marat,Lauren A. McCarthy,2022-08-18 What role does law play in post communist societies This book examines the law as a social institution in Eurasia exploring how it is shaped in everyday interactions between state and society organisations and individuals and between law enforcement and other government entities It bridges the gap between theoretically rich work on law in action and the empirical reality of Eurasia The contributions in this volume include research on policing the legal profession public attitudes towards law regime support and oppositional mobilisation crime policy and property rights among others The studies shift away from the common perception that in Eurasia the law exists only as a tool for the state to enforce order and suppress dissent Instead they show through empirical analyses that citizens evade use reinterpret and shape the law even in authoritarian contexts sometimes containing state violence and challenging the regime and other times reinforcing state capture from below The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Europe Asia Studies
