Failure Of The United Nations Development Programs For Africa:

The Failure of the United Nations Development Programs for Africa Adrien M. Ratsimbaharison, 2003 This study attempts to explain why the two major United Nations U N development programs for Africa in the 1980s and 1990s UNPAAERD and UNNADAF failed to promote economic and social development Additionally this study systematically analyzes the two development programs and identifies the internal and external causes of their failure by focusing on the processes of their formulation adoption implementation and evaluation within the U N General Assembly and discussing their formation and implementation within the context of the late 20th century world economic order Africa in the United Nations System, 1945-2005 Issaka K. Souare, 2006-05-31 Though there have been numerous studies on the United Nations only a few have dealt comprehensively with Africa s relations with the world body This book attempts to fill this lacuna by providing a systematic assessment of Africa s relationship with the World body from its foundation in 1945 to its sixtieth anniversary in 2005 The premise of the book s argument is that to properly understand Africa s current relationship with the UN it is necessary to first understand the history and theoretical underpinnings behind the formation of the world body including the expectations and motives of the different stakeholders The book shows that there have been some real successes in Africa s relationship with the world body such as the joint efforts against the Apartheid regime in South Africa as well as real failures such as in the genocide in Rwanda Based on this it concludes that Africa s relationship with the United Nations has worked for the most part and will work even better if Africa sees its partnership with the UN as complementary to its own efforts projects and initiatives rather than something to depend on African Industrial Development and European Union Co-operation Francis A.S.T. Matambalya, 2014-08-27 Of the 54 African states only South Africa is categorised by the United Nations Industrial Development Organization UNIDO amongst industrialised countries The economic activities in Africa are still dominated by the production and trade of agricultural and mineral commodities This situation is in spite of the longstanding Africa European Union EU co operation which intends among other things to support Africa s industrialisation endeavours Imperatively a long road to substantive levels of industrialisation still lies ahead of most African countries This raises the question as to what role the international community could and should play in the twenty first century to provide the support needed to expedite Africa s industrial transformation This book argues that to supplement the initiatives of each African country international partnerships of both a North South and South South nature will serve better purposes if they are leveraged to develop productive capacities in African economies In order to enable the African countries to leverage their traditional partnership with the EU for industrialisation a paradigm shift is obligatory A feasible model should emulate the Japanese led flying geese model and the Chinese led bamboo capitalism model The Political Crisis of March 2009 in Madagascar Adrien M. Ratsimbaharison, 2017-07-25 Since Independence in 1960 Madagascar has faced several periods of instability and crisis as well as the threat of civil war These periods were cyclical each time the country made some significant economic and social progress an unexpected crisis would occur to bring it to a halt The book focuses on the crisis of March 2009 showing how a brewing conflict between the government of Marc Ravalomanana and the opposition led by Andry Rajoelina escalated and using it as a case for the study of further crises in Madagascar or other African countries The book adopts a conflict approach to the study of crisis Instead of focusing on external symptoms street protests violence looting massacre of protesters military mutiny etc or condemning it as a coup d'état it analyzes the crisis of March 2009 as part of an ongoing conflict between the government and the opposition It uncovers the causal mechanisms of the crisis as well as the process of crisis management and de escalation examining such factors as the context of the crisis the major actors the triggers and the management of the crisis by national and international mediators In addition the book explains how a civil war was averted and who benefited as a result of this political crisis

Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East Terry M. Mays, 2015-06-18 The Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East focuses on international organizations in Africa And the Middle East This makes sense for political cultural and geographical reasons North African countries and many located in the Sahel region are members of not only African but also Middle Eastern international organizations due to their cultural and religious heritage as well as geographic location between Sub Saharan Africa and the Middle East A limited number of global organizations are also included in this book when they have major programs focusing on Africa and or the Middle East This volume emphasizes intergovernmental organizations but many non governmental organizations are also included This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities thematic topics and major international issues affecting the region This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this subject

The Politics of Reform in Ghana, 1982-1991 Jeffrey Herbst, 2023-04-28 Economic reform was the most pressing question for African and other Third World countries during the 1980s In this first full length examination of the political economy of adjustment in Ghana Jeffrey Herbst describes the causes of Ghana's dramatic economic decline and reviews the politics of reform that began in 1983 Since Ghana was one of the first African countries to adopt a comprehensive reform program and the one that has sustained adjustment longest the Ghanaian experience has profound ramifications for debates regarding stabilization and structural change across the continent Herbst devotes special attention to the interaction between the type of government and the politics of adjustment the reaction of interest groups such as urban labor and the peasantry and the relationship between economic and political change His extended field research and sophisticated knowledge of the issues involved both from the economic and political science literature make this study of importance not only to Africanists political scientists economists and sociologists but also to government and financial leaders wrestling with economic reform in developing countries This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1993 The Postcolonial State in Africa Crawford Young,2012-11-20 A highly readable sweeping and yet detailed analysis of the African state in all its failures and moments of hope Crawford Young manages to touch upon all the important issues in the discipline and crucial developments in the recent history of the African continent This book will be a classic Pierre Englebert author of Africa Unity Sovereignty and Sorrow Aid from International NGOs Dirk-Jan Koch,2009-02-03 International NGOs are increasingly important players within the new aid architecture but their geographic choices remain uncharted territory This book focuses on patterns of development assistance mapping while analysing and assessing the country choices of the largest international NGOs Koch's approach is interdisciplinary and uses qualitative quantitative and experimental methods to provide a clear insight in the determinants of country choices of international NGOs The book aims to discover the country choices of international NGOs how they are determined and how they could be improved This work which uses a dataset created specifically for the research comes to the conclusion that international NGOs do not target the poorest and most difficult countries They are shown to be focussing mostly on those countries where their back donors are active Additionally it was discovered that they tend to cluster their activities for example international NGOs also have their donor darlings and their donor orphans Their clustering is explained by adapting theories that explain concentration in for profit actors to the non profit context The book is the first on the geographic choices of international NGOs and is therefore of considerable academic interest especially for those focusing on development aid and third sector research Furthermore the book provides specific policy suggestions for more thought out geographic decisions of international NGOs and their back donors

Genocide and Crisis in Central Africa Christian P. Scherrer,2001-11-30 Scherrer examines the ethnicized conflicts periodic war and genocide in Rwanda and Burundi The 1994 genocide in Rwanda may have resulted in the murder of a million Tutsi and moderate Hutu while the mass killings in Burundi especially in 1993 when some 200 000 Hutu and Tutsi were killed and the current ongoing war in the Congo appear to have the potential to escalate into another round of genocide in the region Scherrer explores the background to the conflicts in the Great Lakes Region as well as what the international community might do to break this tragic cycle of violence and despair Following a chapter on the history of the region before independence in 1960-61 he examines the 1994 genocide in Rwanda and the subsequent attempts to promote justice reconstruction human rights work and genocide prevention Scherrer pays particular attention to the role of the Western powers the UN and the aid system and he is critical of all of these institutions He also analyzes what is happening in neighboring Burundi and the Congo An important research for scholars and policymakers involved with Central African affairs and ethnicized conflict International Migration Douglas S. Massey,J. Edward Taylor,2004-03-25 International Migration Prospects and Policies offers a comprehensive up to date survey of global patterns of international migration and the policies employed to manage the flows It shows that international migration is not rooted in poverty or rapid population growth but in the expansion and consolidation of global markets As nations are structurally transformed by their incorporation into global markets people are displaced from traditional livelihoods and become international migrants In seeking to work abroad they do not necessarily move to the closest or richest destination but to places already connected to their countries of origin socially economically and politically When they move migrants rely heavily on social networks created by earlier waves of immigrants and in recent years professional migration brokers have become increasingly common Developing countries generally benefit from international migration because migrant savings and remittances provide foreign earnings to finance balance of payments deficits and make productive investments Some developing nations have gone so far as to establish programs or ministries dedicated to the export of workers Developed nations in contrast focus more on the social and economic costs of immigrants and seek to reduce their numbers regulate their characteristics and limit their access to social services Over time receiving nations have gravitated toward a similar set of restrictive policies yielding undocumented migration as a worldwide phenomenon Globalization also creates infrastructures of transportation communication and social networks to put developed societies within reach In the latter ageing populations and segmenting markets create a persistent demand for immigrant workers All these trends are likely to intensify in the coming years to make immigration policy a key political issue in the twenty first century

Political Liberalization and Democratization in Africa Julius O. Ihonvbere, John Mukum Mbaku Esq., 2003-12-30 Since the late 1980s Africans have been engaged in efforts to transform their societies and provide themselves with more effective governance and economic structures Unfortunately most of these efforts have not progressed beyond simple elections The contributors to this volume provide strategies that Africans can use to deepen democracy improve resource allocation and enhance their ability to coexist peacefully Mbaku Ihonvbere and their contributors while adopting a critical approach to the study of African political economy take a stand against Afro pessimism They articulate an holistic agenda for addressing Africa s multifarious problems reject received knowledge and through a dialectical methodology draw attention to the centrality of social categories classes the state civil society the environment communities and patterns of change in the continent Relying on fieldwork hard data and critical reviews of the extant literature the volume highlights the importance of democracy and democratization to the urgent restructuring that Africa needs in the new globalization Paying attention to the continent s historical experiences and its specificities the contributors draw attention to the importance of grassroots action leadership and the need to constitutionally entrench civil liberties

Regional Development in Africa Norbert Edomah, 2020-08-19 Regional development is a broad term but can be seen as a general effort to reduce regional disparities by supporting employment and wealth generating economic activities in regions In the past regional development policy tended to try to achieve these objectives by means of large scale infrastructure development and by attracting inward investment OECD 2014 A territorial and regional approach to development is crucial in addressing regional challenges regional economic competitiveness and reducing socio economic discrepancies This book provides a forum to articulate and discuss Africa s regional development issues in view of the rising opportunities within the African region This volume contains 14 chapters and is organized in four sections Introduction Industry Trade and Investment in Africa Agricultural Services and the Water energy food Nexus in Africa and Environmental and Cultural Dimensions to Africa s Regional Development Securing Africa Malinda S. Smith, 2016-04-01 This meticulously researched forcibly argued and accessibly written collection explores the many and complex ways in which Africa has been implicated in the discourses and politics of September 11 2001 Written by key scholars based in leading institutions in Canada the United States the Middle East and Africa the volume interrogates the impact of post 9 11 politics on Africa from many disciplinary perspectives including political science sociology history anthropology religious studies and cultural studies The essays analyze the impact of 9 11 and the war on terror on political dissent and academic freedom the contentious vocabulary of crusades clash of civilizations barbarism and Islamofascism alternative genealogies of local and global terrorism extraordinary renditions to black sites and torture human rights and insecurities collapsed states and the development security merger and anti terrorism policies from George W Bush to Barack Obama This is a much needed meditation on historical and contemporary discourses on terrorism Divided Sovereignty Carmen E. Pavel, 2015 An exploration of new institutional solutions to the old question of how to constrain states when they commit severe abuses against their own citizens The book argues that coercive international institutions can stop these abuses and act as an insurance scheme against the possibility of states failing to fulfill their most basic sovereign responsibilities AF Press Clips, 1981 Africa and the Formation of the New System of International Relations Alexey M. Vasiliev, Denis A. Degterev, Timothy M. Shaw, 2021-09-16 This book discusses the prospects for the development of the African continent as part of the emerging system of international relations in the twenty first century African countries are playing an increasingly important part in the current system of international relations Nevertheless even 60 years after gaining their independence most of them are confronted with regional and global issues that are directly related to their colonial past and its influence Due to Africa s wealth of natural and geopolitical resources the possibility of interference in the internal affairs of African countries on the part of new and traditional global actors remains very real Leading Africanists together with international scholars from both international relations and African studies examine the experience of decolonization the impact of the emergence of a unipolar world on the African continent and the growing influence of new international actors on the African continent in the twenty first century In addition the importance of African countries foreign policy concepts and ideological attitudes in the post bipolar period is revealed This volume strengthens the intellectual bridge between Russian African and

Western scholars of international relations Strongly recommended Vladimir G Shubin Institute for African Studies Russian Academy of Sciences This book presents a wide range of prominent global scholars who bring a wealth of knowledge on the subject of Africa and the world Gilbert Khadiagala Jan Smuts Professor of International Relations and Director of the African Centre for the Study of the USA ACSUS at the University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg South Africa As a genuine contribution to the field of international relations and Global South Agency this book should be in every institution of higher education s library Lembe Tiky Director of Academic Development International Studies Association Reconstructing the Authoritarian State in Africa George Kieh, Jr.,Pita Agbese,2013-10-01 This work seeks to examine the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa and to suggest ways in which the states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted In 1990 a wave of euphoria greeted the third wave of democratization that swept across the African Continent The repression wearied subalterns were hopeful that the third wave would have set into motion the process of democratically reconstituting the authoritarian state on the continent More than two decades thereafter although some progress has been made by and large the authoritarian state remains the dominant construct in the region Even in some of the countries in which democratic transitions have taken place the process of democratic consolidation remains an elusive quest as these states are sandwiched between authoritarianism and democracy Against this background the purpose of this book is to examine the travails of the authoritarian state in Africa including the Herculean task to democratically reconstruct it In order to do this six of Africa s perennial authoritarian states Cameroon the Democratic Republic of the Congo Egypt Liberia Rwanda and Uganda are used as the case studies The book has two major objectives First the various chapters probe the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa Second the chapters suggest ways in which the various authoritarian states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted Security, Governance, and State Fragility in South Africa Edward L. Mienie,2020-03-06 Do existing measures of state fragility measure fragility accurately Based on commonly used fragility measures South Africa SA is classified as a relatively stable state yet rising violent crime high unemployment endemic poverty eroding public trust identity group based preferential treatment policies and the rapid rise of the private security sector are all indications that SA may be suffering from latent state fragility Based on a comprehensive view of security this study examines the extent to which measures of political legitimacy and good governance effectiveness in the security system especially with respect to the police system and mounting economic challenges may be undermining the stability of SA in ways undetected by commonly used measures of state fragility Using a mixed methods approach based on quantitative secondary data analysis and semi structured interviews with government officials security practitioners and leading experts in the field this study finds that the combination of colonization apartheid liberation struggle transition from autocracy to democracy high levels of direct and structural violence stagnating social political and economic developments make South Africa a latently fragile state Conceptually the results of this research call into question the validity of commonly used measures of state fragility and suggest the need for a more comprehensive approach to assessing state fragility. Practically, this study offers a number of concrete policy recommendations for how South Africa may address mounting levels of latent state fragility. The Transition to Democratic Governance in Africa John Mukum Mbaku Esq., Julius O.

Ihonvbere, 2003-04-30 Africa is currently experiencing sociopolitical and economic changes of unprecedented proportions. New leaders, institutions, discourses, and methods of political organization and action are shaping a new future. Through a case study approach, this essay collection provides a comprehensive analysis of the history, trajectory, actors, institutions, contradictions, failures, and opportunities in contemporary efforts at democratization in Africa. While presenting the dynamics of democracy and democratization in several African countries, they also look at critical issues in Africa's transition projects, from political parties and elections through constitutions and constitutionalism to new structures of power and politics. A provocative analysis for scholars, students, researchers, and policy makers involved with African political and economic development.
