Fair And Just:

Natural Resources and Environmental Justice Sonia Graham, Anna Lukasiewicz, Stephen Dovers, Libby Robin, Jennifer McKay, Steven Schilizzi, 2017-03-01 Environmental management involves making decisions about the governance of natural resources such as water minerals or land which are inherently decisions about what is just or fair Yet there is little emphasis on justice in environmental management research or practical guidance on how to achieve fairness and equity in environmental governance and public policy This results in social dilemmas that are significant issues for government business and community agendas causing conflict between different community interests Natural Resources and Environmental Justice provides the first comprehensive interdisciplinary examination of justice research in Australian environmental management identifying best practice and current knowledge gaps With chapters written by experts in environmental and social sciences law and economics this book covers topical issues including coal seam gas desalination plants community relations in mining forestry negotiations sea level rise and animal rights It also proposes a social justice framework and an agenda for future justice research in environmental management These important environmental issues are covered from an Australian perspective and the book will be of broad use to policy makers researchers and managers in natural resource management and governance environmental law social impact and related fields both in Australia and abroad The Fast and the Furious Helen Wells, 2012 The Fast and The Furious Drivers Speed Cameras and Control in a Risk Society offers an explanation for the continued debate about one road safety intervention the speed camera by situating that debate within contemporary literature about the risk society Beck 1992 and more broadly understood experiences of risk faced on a daily basis by drivers Rather than a focus on risk as something that can be objectively assessed measured and managed separately from the social context in which it is encountered it suggests that risk is something that permeates this particular debate from every angle Race and Social Equity Susan T Gooden, 2015-01-28 In this compelling book the author contends that social equity specifically racial equity is a nervous area of government Over the course of history this nervousness has stifled many individuals and organizations thus leading to an inability to seriously advance the reduction of racial inequities in government The author asserts that until this nervousness is effectively managed public administration social equity efforts designed to reduce racial inequities cannot realize their full potential Chapters 2 and 8 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: Mar. 9, 1771-Feb. 7, 1785 Pennsylvania, John Bioren, Mathew Carey, 1803 Towards the True Law Felipe de Jesús Fierro Alvidrez, 2013-07 Does the Law exist and if so what is it Can we know it This book tries to answer these questions by approaching as a whole the problem of Law its justification and demonstration Because when facing multiple legal theories many of which are contradictory we have to ask ourselves what the true Law is if it exists indeed its origin meaning and perspective We are in pursuit of something more the Law and its truth This fundamental question must be scientifically solved and in such an in depth approach that only philosophy traditionally understood as knowledge by its first and principle causes obtained under the natural light of reason can give us the answer the current thesis takes up the problem of knowledge and its theories of being and truth to later contrast them with various juridical currents Two different paths processes and objects to reach the same conclusion the result wasn't easy but we believe we contributed with a juridical theory with seven rules of truthfulness that from our humble point of view solves the conflict over Law its essence and properties What is Right What is Law Does a juridical science exist Does a true theory of Law exist or does each one of us have their own truth These were the central questions we tried to answer in the current thesis to demonstrate through reason the considerations raised here and to somehow contribute in a positive way to the growing relativism of this subject

Field Surveys, 1967 Renaissance Fairs Kristen Rajczak Nelson, 2015-12-15 Role playing can be an informative and entertaining way to learn about historical periods such as the Renaissance far beyond traditional classroom learning alone This title introduces the history of Renaissance fairs looking back at the first festivals from the 1960s and exploring how they've changed and adapted over time The text also addresses research skills such as safely finding information online and using in school resources including teachers and librarians to investigate the Renaissance Also discussed is the career prep that may come from attending Renaissance fairs for such relevant careers as acting and A/V equipment management Fairness and Groups Margaret Ann Neale, Elizabeth A. Mannix, Elizabeth Mullen, 2010-06-10 Concerns about justice and fairness are ubiquitous within and between communities social groups organizations and states This title introduces justice theorizing and research at the intersection of justice and groups It is of interest to students and scholars in psychology sociology law and organizational behavior Justice in Young Adult Speculative Fiction Marek C. Oziewicz, 2015-04-17 This book is the first to offer a justice focused cognitive reading of modern YA speculative fiction in its narrative and filmic forms It links the expansion of YA speculative fiction in the 20th century with the emergence of human and civil rights movements with the communitarian revolution in conceptualizations of justice and with spectacular advances in cognitive sciences as applied to the examination of narrative fiction Oziewicz argues that complex ideas such as justice are processed by the human mind as cognitive scripts that scripts when narrated take the form of multiply indexable stories and that YA speculative fiction is currently the largest conceptual testing ground in the forging of justice consciousness for the 21st century world Drawing on recent research in the cognitive and evolutionary sciences Oziewicz explains how poetic retributive restorative environmental social and global types of justice have been represented in narrative fiction from 19th century folk and fairy tales through 21st century fantasy dystopia and science fiction Suggesting that the appeal of these and other nonmimetic genres is largely predicated on the dream of justice Oziewicz theorizes new justice scripts as conceptual tools essential to help humanity survive the qualitative leap toward an environmentally conscious culturally diversified global world This book is an important contribution to studies of children's and YA speculative fiction adding a new perspective to discussions about the educational as well as social potential of nonmimetic genres. It demonstrates that the justice imperative is very much alive in YA speculative fiction creating new visions of justice relevant to contemporary challenges.

Paths to College and Career Jossey Bass and PCG Education are proud to bring the Paths to College and Career English Language Arts ELA curriculum and professional development resources for grades 6-12 to educators across the country. Originally developed for EngageNY and written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences, the standards require Paths to College and Career includes daily lesson plans, guiding questions, recommended texts, scaffolding strategies, and other classroom resources. Paths to College and Career is a concrete and practical ELA instructional program that engages students with compelling and complex texts. At each grade level, Paths to College and Career delivers a yearlong curriculum that develops all students' ability to read closely and engage in text-based discussions, build evidence-based claims and arguments, conduct research, and write from sources, and expand their academic vocabulary. Paths to College and Career's instructional resources address the needs of all learners, including students with disabilities, English language learners, and gifted and talented students. This enhanced curriculum provides teachers with freshly designed Teacher Guides that make the curriculum more accessible and flexible, a Teacher Resource Book for each module that includes all of the materials educators need to manage instruction, and Student Journals that give students learning tools for each module and a single place to organize and document their learning. As the creators of the Paths ELA curriculum for grades 6-12, PCG Education provides a professional learning program that ensures the success of the curriculum. The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception, Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning, A train-the-trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches. Paths offers schools and districts a unique approach to ensuring college and career readiness for all students, providing state-of-the-art curriculum and state-of-the-art implementation.

Human Rights from a Comparative and International Law Perspective Joan Church, Christian Schulze, Hennie Strydom, 2007. In terms of the South African Constitution of 1996, there is a general need for an introduction to comparative law, and one that covers what is technically known as applied comparative law, more particularly applied comparative law that involves a study of the bills of rights in other countries.
