Iagellonicae Cracoviensis vol. 6 (2011) , Faithful Fictions Thomas M. Woodman, 2022-02-25 Catholic writers have made a rich contribution to British fiction despite their minority status Evelyn Waugh Graham Greene and Muriel Spark are well known examples but there are many other significant novelists whose work has a Catholic aspect This is the first book to survey the whole range of this material and examine whether valid generalizations can be made about it In charting such fiction from its development in the Victorian period through to the work of contemporaries such as David Lodge the author analyses its complex relationships with changes in British society and the international Church There is more than one way of being a Catholic as Woodman shows but he also demonstrates that many of these writers share common themes and a distinctive perspective They often wish in particular to use their religion as a weapon against what they portray as a complacent Protestant or secular society Their consciousness of writing in the midst of such a society gives a special edge to their treatments of the perennial Catholic themes of suffering sin and sex It also has implications for literary form and relates to what has been seen as the extremist mode of Catholic fiction The final question that Woodman puts is whether the changes in the Church since the Second Vatican Council must inevitably lead to the loss of this distinctive Catholic contribution to the novel

erudite book Bryan Cheyette throws new light on a wide range of modern and contemporary writers some at the heart of the canon others more marginal to explore the power and limitations of the diasporic imagination after the Second World War Moving from early responses to the death camps and decolonization through internationally prominent literature after the Second World War the book culminates in fresh engagements with contemporary Jewish post ethnic and postcolonial writers

div DIVdivCheyette regards many of the twentieth and twenty first century luminaries he examines among them Hannah Arendt Anita Desai Frantz Fanon Albert Memmi Primo Levi Caryl Phillips Philip Roth Salman Rushdie Edward Said Zadie Smith and Muriel Spark as critical exemplars of the diasporic imagination Against the discrete disciplinary thinking of the academy he elaborates and argues for a new comparative approach across Jewish and postcolonial histories and literatures And in so doing Cheyette illuminates the ways in which histories and cultures can be imagined across national and communal boundaries DIV

Acts of Faith and Imagination wagers that fiction written by Catholic authors assists readers to reflect critically on the question what is faith To speak of a person's faith life is to speak of change and development As a narrative form literature can illustrate the dynamics of faith which remains in flux over the course of one's life Because human beings must possess faith in something whether religious or not it inevitably has a narrative structure faith ebbs and flows flourishes and decays develops and stagnates Through an exploration of more than a dozen Catholic authors novels and short stories Brent Little argues that Catholic fiction encourages the reader to reflect upon their faith holistically that is the way faith informs one's affections and how a person conceives and interacts with the world as embodied beings Amidst the diverse stories of modern and contemporary fiction a consistent pattern emerges Catholic fiction portrays faith at its most fundamental often unconscious level as an act of the imagination Faith is the way one imagines themselves others and creation A person's primary faith conditions how they live in the world regardless of the level of conscious reflection and regardless of whether this is a religious faith Acts of Faith and Imagination investigates the creative depth and vitality of the Catholic literary imagination by bringing late modern Catholic authors into dialogue with more contemporary ones Readers will then consider well known works such as those by Graham Greene Flannery O'Connor and Muriel Spark in the fresh light of contemporary stories by Toni Morrison Alice McDermott Uwem Akpan and several others

Modern British Women Writers Vicki K. Janik, Del Ivan Janik, 2002-11-30

The 20th century witnessed several major cultural movements including modernism anti modernism and postmodernism These and other means of understanding and perceiving the world shaped the literature of that era and with the rise of feminism resulted in a particularly rich body of literature by women writers This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 British women writers of the 20th century Some of these writers were born in England while others such as Katherine Mansfield and Doris Lessing came from countries of the former Empire or Commonwealth The volume also includes entries for women of color such as Kamala Markandaya and Buchi Emecheta Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes an overview of the writer's background, an analysis of her works, an assessment of her achievements, and lists of primary and secondary sources. The volume closes with a selected general bibliography. Catholic Women Writers Mary Reichardt, 2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times, yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now. The first reference of its kind, Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries. Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author, a critical discussion of her works, especially her Catholic and women's themes, an overview of her critical reception, and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources. Authors writing in all genres, including fiction, autobiography, poetry, children's literature, and essays, are represented. The entries give special attention to the authors' use of Catholic themes, structures, traditions, culture, and spirituality. The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in historical and cultural contexts to those who critique the tradition. An introductory essay places the writers within the historical and literary contexts of women's writing in the Catholic tradition, and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography. The British and Irish Novel Since 1960 James Acheson, 1991-09-03 The essays in this collection survey the work of some of the most important British and Irish novelists of today. They not only consider afresh the work of novelists who established their reputations before 1960, such as Doris Lessing and William Golding, they also discuss the work of more recent novelists among them Kazuo Ishiguro, Angela Carter, and Graham Swift. The contributors are drawn from various parts of the English-speaking world and provide a variety of original perspectives on the novelists concerned. Aiming at Heaven, Getting the Earth Marian E. Crowe, 2007-01-01 This book argues that there is still vitality in the English Catholic novel. It analyzes the fiction of four contemporary Catholic novelists: Alice Thomas Ellis, David Lodge, Sara Maitland, and Piers Paul Read, and situates their work both within the tradition of the Catholic novel as it developed in France and England and within the changing post-Vatican II Catholic Church.
