Ciment,2015-03-27 Thoroughly revised to include 25 conflicts not covered in the previous edition as well as expanded and updated information on previous coverage this illustrated reference presents descriptions and analyses of more than 170 significant post World War II conflicts around the globe Organized by region for ease of access Encyclopedia of Conflicts Since World War II Second Edition provides clear in depth explanations of events not covered in such detail in any other reference source Including more than 180 detailed maps and 150 photos the set highlights the conflicts that dominate today's headlines and the events that changed the course of late twentieth century history Political Grace Wes Rehberg,Wes Rehberg Ph D,2012-03-05 Philosophy and theology have increasingly turned to the problem of the rising numbers of people who live in severe conditions of oppression people who are surplus to global economic and political orders which the oppressed define as neoliberal and neocolonial This work Political Grace The Gift of Resistance is part of that turning through conversations with those who were and still are living under oppressive conditions especially in Central America and Mexico and through conversations with phenomenology feminist theology feminist jurisprudence ethics and liberation theology There is an assertion that grace and the organization of the lifeworld which phenomenologists discuss act in concert to seek to empower the flourishing of humans to understand and resist the abasing conditions they confront What frequently occurs when people living under oppressive conditions try to change their circumstances is a backlash by those who control their political social and economic conditions In response the spirit of grace as part of the human effort to flourish aids in the resistance against the denial of this flourishing Wes Rehberg

Latin American Liberation Theology David

Tombs,2021-11-08 David Tombs offers an accessible introduction to the theological challenges raised by Latin American Liberation and a new contribution to how these challenges might be understood as a chronological sequence Liberation theology emerged in the 1960s in Latin America and thrived until it reached a crisis in the 1990s This work traces the distinct developments in thought through the decades thus presenting a contextual theology The book is divided into five main sections the historical role of the church from Columbus's arrival in 1492 until the Cuban revolution of 1959 the reform and renewal decade of the 1960s the transitional decade of the 1970s the revision and redirection of liberation theology in the 1980s and a crisis of relevance in the 1990s This book offers insights into liberation theology's profound contributions for any socially engaged theology of the future and is crucial to understanding liberation theology and its legacies This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

Icons of Dissent Jeremy

Pretholdt,2019-07-01 The global icon is an omnipresent but poorly understood element of mass culture This book asks why audiences around the world have embraced particular iconic figures how perceptions of these figures have changed and what this tells us about transnational relations since the Cold War era Pretholdt addresses these questions by examining one type of icon the anti establishment figure As symbols that represent sentiments ideals or something else recognizable to a wide audience icons of dissent have been integrated into diverse political and consumer cultures and global audiences have reinterpreted them over time To illustrate these points the book examines four of the most evocative and controversial figures of the past fifty years Che Guevara Bob Marley Tupac Shakur and Osama bin Laden Each has embodied a convergence of dissent cultural politics and consumerism yet popular perceptions of each reveal the dissonance between shared global references and locally contingent interpretations By examining four very different figures Icons of Dissent offers new insights into global symbolic idioms the mutability of common references and the commodification of political sentiment in the contemporary world

Reason, Revelation, and Human Affairs James V. Schall, 2001-01-01 This book is intended to serve as an introduction to the thought of James V Schall arguably one of the best perhaps even the only authentically Thomistic political scientist writing today In contrast to main currents in contemporary Thomism Schall remains conversant with the great tradition of political philosophy and therefore appreciates the complex and relatively imprecise nature of political reflection In this book the distinguished theorist addresses a wide range of subjects including the question of overpopulation the thought of Charles McCoy and Leo Strauss the role of Christianity in political philosophy and the challenges that the democratic project pose to human beings perception of the truth As a meditation on practical and theoretical political questions self consciously proceeding from the perspectives of both nature and grace the book provides a unique picture of what a genuine Thomistic political science might look like

Convictions of the Soul Sharon Erickson Nepstad, 2004-07-22 Many U S Christians were profoundly moved by the liberation struggles in Central America in the 1980s Most learned about the situation from missionaries who had worked in the area and witnessed the repression firsthand These missionaries Sharon Erickson Nepstad shows employed the institutional and cultural resources of Christianity to seize the attention of American congregations and remind them of the moral obligations of their faith Drawing on archival data and in depth interviews with activists in ten separate solidarity organizations around the country Nepstad offers a rich analysis of the experiences of religious leaders and church members in the solidarity movement She explores the moral meaning of protest and the ways in which clergy used religious rituals martyr stories and biblical teachings to establish a link between faith and activism She looks at the factors that transformed missionaries into skilled leaders who were able to translate the Central American conflicts into Christian themes and a religious language familiar to U S congregations She also offers insights into the unique challenges of organizing on the transnational level and shows how the solidarity movement made U S policy towards Central America one of the most hotly contested issues in American politics during the 1980s Unpacking the implications of her study for the field of collective action Nepstad stresses the importance of the individual human agents who shape and are shaped by the structures and cultures in which they operate She argues that working in and through the church gave supporters of solidarity moral credibility as well as a rich source of symbolic human and material resources that enabled them to reach across national borders motivating others to act upon their deeply held moral convictions Shedding new light on the genesis and evolution of this important activist movement. Convictions of the Soul will be of interest to students and scholars of social movements, religion and politics. The Nicaraguan Church and the Revolution Joseph Mulligan, 1991. Liberation Theology and Its Critics Arthur F. McGovern, 2009-08-01. From its beginnings, liberation theology has provoked a wide and diverse range of responses from a multitude of critics. Theological, methodological, political, ecclesiastical. Liberation Theology and Its Critics is a comprehensive and systematic explication of these diverse criticisms as well as a reasoned and rigorous defense of liberation theology. McGovern states his aim thus: to understand better the world of Latin America and the culture and conditions which prompt a liberation theology while at the same time giving expression to some of the misgivings that many US Americans experience when reading about liberation theology. Liberation Theology and Its Critics begins by discussing the place of theology itself in liberation theology. The book offers an historical overview, shows us what liberation theologians see as most distinctive in their work, addresses the biblical interpretations and major areas of theology stressed by liberation theologians and discusses other theologians' critiques. Next, McGovern explicates the use of social and political analysis in liberation theology, which has been one of the areas of particular controversy. He focuses on such issues as dependency theory, Marxism, class struggle, socialism and the Nicaraguan revolution, addressing throughout the concerns raised by a range of critics from the Vatican to Michael Novak. Finally, McGovern explores the role of the church and how liberation theology is lived out in practice. He examines base communities, ecclesiology, current political trends in Latin America, the varying status of liberation theology as well as its most recent developments. McGovern demonstrates that liberation theology encompasses a wide spectrum of theologians with different styles and emphases. It requires careful study, non-polemical debate and an honest effort to present the views of both liberation theologians and their critics fairly. McGovern's book will be the benchmark against which subsequent work is measured. Domestic and Regional Uncertainties in the New Turkey Alessio Chiriatti, Ozgur Tufekci, 2017-06-20. Turkey has faced in the last two decades a number of critical events like wars, conflicts and frictions in the Balkans, the Caucasus and the Middle East that have represented a huge challenge for its foreign policy and civil and economic interventions. Turkish multi-directionality and multidimensionality have been tested by these occurrences, demonstrating that what some scholars and experts had defined as a model contained failures as well as success. This book examines these dynamics through case studies of the humanitarian, cultural, economic and political dimensions of Turkey's role in a diffuse neighbourhood in which the country has tried to exert its power in recent decades. Starting from the questions that the Cold War and the arrival of the AKP in government have opened for Ankara, the volume illustrates two of the most important sides of the Turkish strategic repositioning in the international system. The first part is focused on the main humanitarian and political struggles in contemporary Turkish society while the second explores the main fault lines in Turkey's regional policy and the development of the country's foreign policy. As such, the book represents a valuable resource for both graduate and undergraduate students, academics and researchers in the areas of Turkish studies foreign policy regional politics Middle Eastern studies security political economy and European studies as well as for the general public      A Common Journey George C. L. Cummings,2010-01-01 A Common Journey provides the first comprehensive critical comparison of two of theology s most influential movements Black theology in the United States BTUSA and Latin American liberation theology LALT The near simultaneous emergence and growth of these two movements is only the most obvious of the similarities between them More importantly both have fostered a new theology from the perspective of the disenfranchised the powerless and the oppressed      Spirituality beyond Borders Kathleen McCallie,2024-06-18 How do international encounters in Nicaragua connect spiritual formation and liberation theology to transform communities Seekers of justice from around the world found inspiration in the Nicaraguan revolution and struggle for freedom After recognizing the patronizing neocolonial structure of missionary models of aid pastor Leslie Penrose founded a nonprofit organization JustHope with core values of solidarity mutuality collaboration and sustainability in partnership Hundreds of participants have joined this quest to enact the compassionate and just ethics of the Hebrew prophets and the liberating power of Jesus Inspiring stories of Nicaraguan led creativity exploring a new future with volunteers from the U S are told by pastoral theologian and ethicist Kathleen McCallie Framed as an interdisciplinary case study of seminary students traveling for solidarity to explore social justice with JustHope the book offers glimpses of one group s journey Readers explore possibilities for an international partnership between U S volunteers and Nicaraguan community organizers The Nicaraguan base community model offers critiques of and alternatives to the church in the U S and neoliberal development McCallie contributes to academic and activist discourses about dismantling abusive theology racism sexism and U S hegemony      Nicaragua Helen C. Metz,Library of Congress. Federal Research Division,1994      Private Agriculture in Armenia Zvi Lerman,Astghik Mirzakhanian,2001-01-01 This book details and analyzes an extensive farm survey of Armenian land reform Zvi Lerman and Astghik Mirzakhanian two principal contributors to the design of the study present their invaluable insight into the rapid land reform strategy implemented in Armenia Unique among the former Soviet Republics the entire agricultural sector of this country shifted from collective large scale farm enterprises to individual production in 1992 The authors pay special attention to the commercialization of private farms and their access to supply and marketing channels outside the old state controlled system Family incomes from farming and off farm sources are discussed as well as problems of rural social services and social infrastructure The authors demonstrate how official statistical measures and record keeping practices in Armenia do not adequately account for this dramatic transition      Nicaragua Ralph Lee Woodward,1994 Annotation An annotated bibliography of publications dealing with all aspects of Nicaragua s past and present Sections on history politics foreign relations and the economy cover the country s progress from colonial domination to the present Includes a substantial number of publications on the country which appeared in the 1980s Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR
