Christian Faith Hendrikus Berkhof, 1991 In today's secular world the Christian faith is viewed as only one aspect of what could be called religious life Acknowledging this Hendrikus Berkhof begins this thought provoking study with a sketch of religion and faith in general before narrowing it down to a discussion of the specific place of Christian faith in all of reality

Where the Rivers Flow Scott Walker, 1986 The Faith, the Cross, the Gospel, and the Worship of God Arvil Jones, 2008-06 This book is different from most other books of the same genre It simply takes another approach at expounding upon these great Biblical themes The author has taken the letters of each theme and has built a chapter or chapters upon each letter The author simply believes that there is something else to be said than what has been said so far about The Christian Faith the faith which was once delivered unto the saints May God bless each reader who reads these few pages Dr Jones was born in the small Southeastern Kentucky community of Girdler He is the youngest of fourteen children seven boys and seven girls He and his wife Carolyn now reside in Hamilton OH Dr Jones has earned a Masters degree in Theology and a Doctorate in Religion having held five pastorates in over thirty years of ministry This present work is his fourth book The Faith of Christendom Brian Albert Gerrish, 1963 This book makes available to all who are interested in Christian thought and history the principal creeds and confessions of the Church with introductory historical and theological comment to aid in understanding them Fact, Faith, and Experience Watchman Nee, 2002-06 Throughout his life of ministry in service to the Lord Watchman Nee demonstrated a proper balance between knowing the objective truths in the Bible and experiencing the subjective realities contained in the divine relation This book begins with the article Fact faith and experience Subsequent sections contain messages that relate to the topics of fact faith and experience Faith at the Crossroads Dov Schwartz, 2002-05-01 Religious Zionism emerged as an organized political movement in 1902 rebelling against the ethos of passivity endorsed by a mostly anti Zionist Eastern European Orthodoxy The book presents religious Zionists as a new religious type driven by distinct theological conceptions that reexamine fundamental notions including God faith and historical process Schwartz's detailed analysis exposes the roots of a political movement that has proven crucially influential in Israeli politics both before and after the establishment of the state The Faith that Does Justice John C. Haughey, 1977 The Existence Of God And The Faith... Howard P. Kainz, 2010-10 On Divine Revelation: The Teaching of the Catholic Faith Vol. One Fr. Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange, 2022-05-27 In On Divine Revelation one of Garrigou Lagrange's most significant works here available in English for the very first time he offers a classic treatment of this foundational topic It is an organized and thorough defense of both the rationality and supernaturality of divine revelation He presents a careful yet stimulating account of the scientific character of theology the nature of revelation itself mystery dogma the grace of faith the powers of human reason false interpretations thereof rationalism naturalism agnosticism and pantheism the motives of credibility and much more Though written a century ago On Divine Revelation will restore confidence in theology as a distinct and unified science and return focus to the fundamental questions of the doctrine of revelation It also serves as a salutary corrective to contemporary theology's anthropocentrism and concern with what is relative in revelation and religious experience by reorienting our theological attention to what is most certain central and sure in our knowledge of divine revelation the Triune God who has revealed his inner life and salvific will Readers will see the great splendor of the gift of divine revelation radiant with credibility before the gaze of reason and drawing our supernatural assent to the mysteries through the gift of faith As Fr Cajetan Cuddy O P observes On Divine Revelation is a stunning work of inestimable value No other subsequent work on this topic has come close to meeting it much less surpassing it The

Kinast, 1999 Making faith sense is a new term for an ancient practice It is what the early Christians called mystical or wisdom theology understanding life in the light of God's participation recorded in the Gospels recognizing the signs of God's presence in everyday events and shaping one's life accordingly In Making Faith Sense Robert Kinast shows all who seek to unify their life experience around their belief in God how to follow that ancient practice Drawing upon the award winning process he has used with students for the ministry Father Kinast explains how to make sense of family work and cultural experience from the perspective of Christian faith Each chapter contains numerous real life examples and practical guidelines that can be used privately or with a group Making Faith Sense begins with a discussion of wisdom theology and its revival in modern times highlighting the turn to experience that characterizes feminist liberation and inculturated theologies The methods for making faith sense embrace three main components experience reflection and action The first section describes what is meant by experience the value of narrating it how to analyze it and what to pay attention to so that experience will reveal its theological meaning The second section explains the role of reflection its similarity to prayer techniques for connecting experience to theological tradition and the most useful theological resources for making faith sense The third section affirms the importance of putting reflection into practice of ensuring that action flows from reflection of planning and evaluating the effect of one's practice and of using practice as the starting point for continuing the process of making faith sense Examples from work family and cultural life are used throughout to provide illustrations of these general points A concluding chapter summarizes the reemergence of practical theology since the 1980s as an effort of church communities to make faith sense of their collective lives Chapters are What Is Faith Sense How to Make Faith Sense Getting Started How to Make Faith Sense The Heart of the Matter and Enacting Faith Sense The Culmination of the Process Robert L Kinast PhD is a pastoral theologian specializing in the field of
