Marriage and Modernization Don S. Browning, 2003-03-20 The processes of modernization and globalization promise more wealth and health for many people But they are also a threat to the stability and quality of marriage and family life This new book at once sobering and constructive looks at the impact of these processes on marriage and asks what Christianity in cooperation with other religions can do to strengthen married life today Among the deleterious effects of modernization and globalization on marriage are a worldwide drift of men away from the responsibility of parenthood and the tendency of mothers too readily to take on the task of childrearing alone After looking at recent research on these and other problems Don Browning suggests that the cure for modern marital disruption entails reforming and reconstructing the institution of marriage while also nurturing relevant forms of social support Yet the effort to initiate a world marriage revival requires a complex cultural work and Browning explores the key contributions that the religions of the world must make for such an effort to be successful

Does God Make the Man? Stewart M. Hoover, Curtis D. Coats, 2015-10-02

Many believe that religion plays a positive role in men's identity development with religion promoting good behavior and morality In contrast we often assume that the media is a negative influence for men teaching them to be rough and violent and to ignore their emotions In Does God Make the Man Stewart M Hoover and Curtis D Coats draw on extensive interviews and participant observation with both Evangelical and non Evangelical men including Catholics as well as Protestants to argue that neither of these assumptions is correct Dismissing the easy notion that media encourages toxic masculinity and religion is always a positive influence Hoover and Coats argue that not only are the linkages between religion media and masculinity not as strong and substantive as has been assumed but the ways in which these relations actually play out may contradict received views Over the course of this fascinating book they examine crises contradictions and contestations crises about the meaning of masculinity and about the lack of direction men experience from their faith communities contradictions between men's religious lives and media lives and contestations among men's ideas about what it means to be a man The book counters common discussions about a crisis of masculinity showing that actual men do not see the world the way the crisis talk has portrayed it and interestingly even Evangelical men often do not see religion as part of the solution
