A Faith for All Seasons Shabbir Akhtar, 1991-02-01 An intelligent erudite argument in which Mr Akhtar whose writings won the praise of Graham Greene and other British authors challenges his fellow Muslims to bring their faith into the modern world In the process he offers a clear and concise explanation of Islam s basic religious tenets A Faith for All Seasons Shabbir Akhtar, 1990 An intelligent erudite argument in which Mr Akhtar whose writings won the praise of Graham Greene and other British authors challenges his fellow Muslims to bring their faith into the modern world In the process he offers a clear and concise explanation of Islam s basic religious tenets A Faith for All Seasons Shabbir Akhtar, 1990 General Books publication date 2009 Original publication date 1888 Original Publisher Dunlap God, Muhammad and the Unbelievers David Marshall, 2014-04-08 This study of the Qur an arises from an interest in a pressing contemporary issue the relationship between Muslims and non Muslims the Ummah and the Other This text explores how the Qur an comments on this relationship as it changed in the course of Muhammad s ministry Particular attention is paid to the portrayal in the Meccan punishment narratives of a fascinating and complex triangular relationship between God the powerless and persecuted believing community with Muhammad at its centre and the unbelieving Meccans who rejected Muhammad s preaching The text raising questions about the possible contemporary relevance of this analysis focusing firstly on discussions about the appropriate models for Islamic society today and secondly on dialogue between Christians and Muslims This book presents a detailed and illuminating analysis of many important Qur anic themes and passages and offers a coherent and original account of significant developments within the thought of the Qur an as a whole An Illusion of Harmony Taner Edis, 2010-03-05 Current discussions in the West on the relation of science and religion focus mainly on science s uneasy relationship with the traditional Judeo Christian view of life But a parallel controversy exists in the Muslim world regarding ways to integrate science with Islam As physicist Taner Edis shows in this fascinating glimpse into contemporary Muslim culture a good deal of popular writing in Muslim societies attempts to address such perplexing questions as Is Islam a scientific religion Were the discoveries of modern science foreshadowed in the Quran Are intelligent design conjectures more appealing to the Muslim perspective than Darwinian explanations Edis examines the range of Muslim thinking about science and Islam from blatantly pseudoscientific fantasies to comparatively sophisticated efforts to Islamize science From the world s strongest creationist movements to bizarre science in the Quran apologetics popular Muslim approaches promote a view of natural science as a mere fact collecting activity that coexists in near perfect harmony with literal minded faith Since Muslims are keenly aware that science and technology have been the keys to Western success they are eager to harness technology to achieve a Muslim version of modernity Yet at the same time they are reluctant to allow science to become independent of religion and are suspicious of Western secularization Edis examines all of these conflicting trends revealing the difficulties facing Muslim societies trying to adapt to the modern technological world His discussions of both the parallels and the differences between Western and Muslim attempts to harmonize science and religion make for a unique and intriguing contribution to this continuing debate Islam & Jihad Abdul Gafoor Abdul Majeed Noorani, 2002 The terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 and their aftermath have focused the world's attention on Islamic fundamentalism This accessible volume aims to rebut the misconceptions about Islam articulated by many European intellectuals down the centuries For non Muslims these still obstruct a clear understanding of both the nature of Islam and the history of Christian Muslim interactions Religion and Modern Thought Victoria S. Meijer,2009 The relation between Islam and the West is the topic of an ongoing debate The debate often leaves us with a choice between two mutually exclusive worlds the modern West with its enlightenment and science and accompanying secular education or else Islam and Islamic education characterised by orthodoxy and tradition In the hope of promoting dialogue instead of polarisation the author a philosopher of education trained in the West searches for the ideas and ideals of education schooling and learning within Islam Wherever knowledge and learning have blossomed education schooling and teaching must have flourished too Which educational culture was part of the highly developed intellectual culture of classical Islam Current day modernist Muslim intellectuals take inspiration from this rich intellectual tradition of Islam The perspective on the future of Islamic education in the modern context in which the book results utilizes their ideas Hermeneutics the theory of interpretation is applied to the rereading and reinterpretation of the source texts of Islam Hermeneutics also offers an inspiring perspective on an education that strikes the balance between tradition and enlightenment Liberal Islam Charles Kurzman,1998 This book contends that Liberal Islam is not a contradiction in terms but rather a thriving tradition more than a century old and undergoing a revival within the last generation This anthology presents the translated work of 32 Muslims who are concerned with the separation of church and state democracy the condition of women the rights of minorities freedom of thought and the future of human progress The God Who Became Human Graham Cole,2013-05-14 Seeking an answer to Anselm's timeless question Why did God become man Graham Cole follows Old Testament themes of preparation theophany and messianic hope through to the New Testament witness to the divinely foretold event This New Studies in Biblical Theology volume concludes with a consideration of the theological and existential implications of the incarnation of God Muslim Networks and Transnational Communities in and Across Europe Stefano Allievi,Jørgen S. Nielsen,2003 This collection of twelve papers provides case studies and thematic reflections on the growing transnational networking of European Muslims and their involvement with contemporary global Islam The volume pays particular attention to the mechanisms and significance of this phenomenon Islam, Modernity, and the Human Sciences A. Zaidi,2011-05-09 Ali Zaidi discloses a largely unnoticed dialogue between Muslim and Western social thought on the search for meaning and transcendence in the human sciences This disclosure is accomplished by a comparative reading of Muslim debates on secular knowledge on the one hand and of Western debates on the putative death of metaphysics in the human sciences on the other hand The analysis is grounded in dialogical hermeneutics that is a hermeneutic approach to texts and cultural traditions that draws upon the work of Hans Georg Gadamer and upon the insights of inter religious dialogue
