Resurrection, Scripture, and Reformed Apologetics Steven D. West, 2012-07-26 Apologetic methodology has been the subject of intense debate in Reformed circles This book argues that we can test Reformed apologetic methods for consistency using two linchpin theological topics the doctrine of the resurrection and the doctrine of Scripture Should apologetics move from establishing theism to the resurrection and then to Scripture Or should theism the resurrection and the doctrine of Scripture be accepted on the testimony of the Holy Spirit as basic beliefs Alternatively do these doctrines need to be presupposed and incorporated into a transcendental defense of the faith After analyzing classical apologetics historical evidentialism Reformed epistemology and presuppositionalism for their apologetic cogency Steven D West contends that any method used by Reformed apologists should be able to argue successfully for a high view of Scripture the source of the doctrine of the resurrection The book will be useful to everyone interested in the relationship between theology philosophy and apologetics The Historical Development of Legal Apologetics William P. Broughton, 2009 The Historical Development of Legal Apologetics This book will indicate that legal apologetics has a history that is co extensive with Christianity itself It is unified by faith and reason and requires a fact based defense that seeks probable judgment rather than absolute certainty but nevertheless would be conclusive in a court of law It will provide a comparative examination of the legal model as a form of evidentialism and alternative models or schools There are many clear contrasts among apologetic approaches for example evidentialism is definitely J W Montgomery's approach and presuppositionalism is definitely the approach of Cornelius Van Til However this book is not only about the differences between evidentialism and presuppositionalism since there are other models to consider each of which adopts a model different from both the evidentialist approach and the presuppositional approach This work concludes with an assessment of how closely a Montgomery type legal apologetic accords with the specific needs of the historical era in which it has emerged and ascended from the 1960 s to the present Apologetics is the response to the central claims that the faith faces from inside and outside the Christian religion The resurrection of Jesus is assaulted from many quarters Furthermore large scale secularism and pluralism has resulted with the development of large scale multi culturism in our society Legal apologetics focuses squarely on proving the factual reality of Jesus resurrection and is an apologetic which is particularly well suited to our times with its emphasis on factual evidence BILL BROUGHTON received his B A from Concordia University in Montreal Canada his M Div from McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario Canada and his D Min from Trinity Seminary in Newburgh Indiana He is a retired pastor in the United Church of Canada and lives in Arnstein Ontario with his wife Bonnie
