Reflections of the Curse Ayn Dillard,2022-07-25 Natalie s saga continues through male archetypes prophetic dreams past life memories and legal situations on her journey to genuine love Everyone we meet is our mirror an aspect of our inner self either in the sameness or the opposite In the Garden of Eden God told Adam and Eve not to partake of the fruit from one particular tree the tree of knowledge The Serpent Satan slithered in approach to the woman Eve telling enticing her that it was okay to eat of the fruit of the tree That nothing harmful would occur to not believe God but to believe him Eve believed the Serpent Satan and took a bite of the forbidden fruit It tasted good and nothing negative appeared to occur Eve went to Adam and told him as such Adam took a bite of the fruit Adam and Eve realized they were naked and became ashamed God noticing their shame inquired of Adam Why did you eat of the fruit from the forbidden tree Adam replied The woman Eve told me to eat of it God asked Eve Why did you partake of the fruit from the forbidden tree Eve replied The serpent told me that it was okay to eat of it so I did In the fall of Adam he became a blame deflecting narcissist Shame was introduced into paradise Out of his shame Adam took no accountability or responsibility for eating the forbidden fruit Instead he put the blame on Eve then Eve passed the buck to the Serpent Satan The devil made me do it excuse The Serpent Satan knew that he d won this first round Adam held Eve out in front of him as a shield or excuse This story line has continued on varying levels ever since Satan was the original malignant narcissist caring only about manipulation control deception lies gas lighting and destruction as he tries to take the power of God for himself Satan Narcissists are full of shame The shame of envy lies and sin Satan s goal out of his envy is to try and usurp God by perverting and destroying God's most precious and prized creation that of the human being and what better way to do this but in the romantic male female relationship Genesis 1:27 KJV So God created man in his own image in the image of God created he him male and female created he them The Serpent Satan began first thing to tarnish love peace purity bliss and joy in the male female God created connection In each and every male female connection there will be three Man woman and Satan or male female and God And of course it extrapolates out from there into the world into each and every relationship on earth There will always aspects of good and evil It only depends on the spectrum and degree of good or evil in each person in any given time as it magnifies into each relationship Along with the awareness of self either to step into self reflection and healing or to fall further and deeper into separation from self into sin and shame God's creation of Adam and Eve necessitated a maturation process as well as a process for salvation Why do we attract to those that we do and why do they attract to us This is one of life's greatest mysteries Patterns of romance selection are guided by complex internal interweavings Perhaps the attraction is to those who carry the energy needed to become more aware of imprints negative beliefs in order to heal and further expand our soul The highest of the male energy protects provides and heals The lowest of the male energy predator like destroys and steals Ayn Dillard By understanding her ways he comes to know the mystery of his heart By sharing love with her he discovers how to love the world In the merging of the two she awakens his masculinity to receive the beauty of the feminine He becomes her strength She becomes his weakness this is truest and most profound exchange of power

Cameron Spiritual Director Centre for Spiritual Living Edmonton Faith in the Inferno Elise Monet, 2024-10-28 In a wilderness journey of extraordinary joy and suffering Elise Monet takes readers to realms beyond ordinary human consciousness where forces of good and evil are arresting undeniable and more convincing than earthly reality From an exquisite foretaste of heavenly bliss to the horrifying specter of perdition Monet is driven along a path of love and terror that shatters her worldview and transforms her understanding of spiritual reality Faith in the Inferno unravels three decades of seeing visions and hearing voices which severely test the author's faith and sanity In explicit detail she describes her visions what voices say and her struggle to make sense of them Monet addresses problems with conventional treatment of schizophrenia which ignores the meaning and reality of spiritual voices She sheds light on historical accounts of voice hearers how and why spiritual forces may intercede in a person's life the delight and agony such experiences bring discerning truth from deceit and the importance of finding coping mechanisms Having broad appeal and practical value at the intersection of culture faith and psychosis this memoir offers an inspirational testimony about how God speaks through suffering to save us After documenting her terrifying dark night of the soul Monet leads readers to a place of love hope and healing Aids to reflection, in the formation of a manly character ... illustrated by select passages ... especially from Archbishop Leighton ... With the Author's Last Corrections Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1872 Facing Feelings in Faith Communities William M. Kondrath, 2013-08-05 Facing Feelings in Faith Communities is based on a simple premise We have emotions because we need them God created us as affectively competent beings William Kondrath argues to help us understand our world and to give appropriate signals to people around us about what we are experiencing When we express our feelings clearly other people can more easily respond in ways that are helpful to us thus enhancing our relationships and the work we might do together Kondrath also recognizes that unfortunately for many of us our emotional software was infected early on with viruses early familial and social conditioning that distorted the way we responded to natural stimuli Because we are underusing or misusing our emotional capacities we are missing out on the opportunity to express our full humanity Fortunately we can re program our emotional software Facing Feelings in Faith Communities helps us restore our emotional systems to their original state or at least invites us to imagine how we would live differently if our emotional expressions were more nearly congruent with the situations and events we encounter Kondrath invites us to explore six feelings fear anger sadness peace power and joy through poetry meditation on an evocative drawing as well as through his own analysis of each feeling Congregational Resources for Facing Feelings is a companion collection to this book For more information click here Sideshow Rickey Smiley, 2024-09-17 How do you live with the pain of watching someone you love suffer from addiction How do you cope with the grief of losing them especially when your job is to make people laugh every day Comedian Rickey Smiley has dealt with these immensely difficult questions for years first with his father then with his son Both battled drug addictions Both died from overdoses Both left Rickey weary and wounded Far from healed Rickey has learned how to find moments of peace He s practicing how to hold the good with the grief the past gifts with the present heartache the hope with the hurt It s the sideshow he s living It s anything but a smooth path but he s on it and he s moving forward And he invites you to come with him Join a fellow hurting soul as he sits with his trauma leans into therapy and relies heavily on his faith and Scripture which give him solace and strength Rickey and his story will help you Feel seen and know you are not alone Process your pain and manage resentment and grief Invite God s strength into your weakness Find a way forward and move toward peace This book is for those who know the weight of grief who I can show the light of God It is for those millions of families whose child or spouse or sibling is battling for their life against addiction and want to know that others have walked this path too It is for my own peace because when I am in service of others as God has directed me I am fulfilled Ricky Smiley
