Chris Sugden

Faith And Modernity:

Faith and Modernity Chris Sugden, 1994 The context for Christian mission is the world of modern technology and modern thought Yet how well do we really understand modernity This book sets out the ideas discussed at a conference of the Lausanne Committee on World Evangelisation held in Uppsala Sweden in 1993 The Faith of Modernism Shailer Mathews, 2012-03-01

Faith and Modernity Dr. Mario Joseph, 2024-10-28 In Faith and Modernity How to Reconcile Traditional Christian Beliefs with Modern Societal Values and Technological Advancements readers are invited to explore a crucial dialogue between enduring faith and the rapidly evolving modern world This book is essential for anyone seeking to navigate the complexities of upholding Christian principles in an era marked by vast technological advancements and shifting societal values It offers insightful perspectives and practical strategies for harmoniously integrating faith with contemporary life making it highly relevant for modern believers striving to live authentically and effectively in today's dynamic and diverse global landscape

Christianity and Progress Harry Emerson Fosdick, 2019-12-19 In Christianity and Progress Harry Emerson Fosdick explores the intricate relationship between Christian faith and the evolution of modern society Written in the early 20th century a period marked by rapid industrialization and social upheaval Fosdick's prose is both accessible and deeply contemplative merging theological discourse with contemporary societal issues This work engages with the challenges faced by the modern church in a progressively secular world while asserting the relevance of Christian teachings in fostering social justice and moral governance Fosdick's ability to synthesize traditional Christian principles with progressive ideologies reflects a significant literary context as he grapples with the moral imperatives of an advancing civilization Fosdick a prominent preacher and theologian of the early 1900s was at the forefront of the liberal Christian movement His experiences as a minister dealing with the rising social concerns of his time including war poverty and inequality deeply influenced his perspective By advocating for a faith that embraces change and moral responsibility he sought to reinvigorate Christianity in an age that often seemed at odds with its tenets This book is highly recommended for readers interested in the intersections of faith ethics and progressivism Fosdick's insightful analysis offers a profound reflection on how Christianity can adapt and respond to the demands of modernity making it essential reading for theologians historians and anyone seeking to understand the vital role of religion in societal advancement

Faith and Modern Thought Timothy Hull, 2020-10-29 Get the full picture Understand the whole story Faith and Modern Thought is a jargon busting and engaging introduction providing an imaginative and creative way into the great minds that have forged the modern world especially Kant and Hegel and the revolutionary philosophies of existentialism and Marxism they inspired Tim Hull provides the wider intellectual picture the fuller philosophical story in which modern theology was forged After an engaging introduction to the European Enlightenment and the cultural crisis it triggered the stage is set to understand the essence of modern theology From that essential background the radical faith of many of the most influential of modern theologians and philosophers of religion is explored exposing a deep rooted indebtedness to the Enlightenment tradition

The Faith of Modernism Shailer Mathews, 1924      Faith Challenges Culture Paul O'Callaghan, 2021-10-25 The modern culture we live off and take for granted is an elevated sophisticated one containing a great variety of precious anthropological insights and strengths with a surprising adaptability and openness to absorb to clarify and to unite However in the present moment it comes across in many cases as a culture detached from the faith that gave life to it in the first place and without which it may simply not survive In fact it has become of late a fragile culture a culture less and less capable of adapting and absorbing and uniting This may be seen in the way many aspects of modern culture and public life have fallen into a pathology of rationalism individualism inequality discord ingratitude This may be seen in our attempt to live in isolation from our fellow humans unwilling to recognize the world we live in and the privileges we enjoy as God's gifts Faith Challenges Culture A Reflection of the Dynamics of Modernity describes the process in two directions how culture challenges faith to provide answers that have not been previously given and how faith challenges culture not only by showing modern culture's fragility and ambivalence but also by posing new questions      Emerging Evangelicals James S. Bielo, 2011 The Emerging Church movement developed in the mid 1990s among primarily white urban middle class pastors and laity who were disenchanted with America's conservative Evangelical sub culture It is a response to the increasing divide between conservative Evangelicals and concerned critics who strongly oppose what they consider overly slick corporate and consumerist versions of faith A core feature of their response is a challenge to traditional congregational models often focusing on new church plants and creating networks of related house churches Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork James S Bielo explores the impact of the Emerging Church movement on American Evangelicals He combines ethnographic analysis with discussions of the movement's history discursive contours defining practices cultural logics and contentious interactions with conservative Evangelical critics to rethink the boundaries of Evangelical as a category Ultimately Bielo makes a novel contribution to our understanding of the important changes at work among American Protestants and illuminates how Emerging Evangelicals interact with the cultural conditions of modernity late modernity and visions of postmodern Christianity James S Bielo is Visiting Assistant Professor of Anthropology at Miami University in Oxford OH He is the author of Words Upon the Word An Ethnography of Evangelical Group Bible Study NYU Press and editor of The Social Life of Scriptures Cross cultural Perspectives on Biblicalism      The Future of Reason, Science and Faith J. Andrew Kirk, 2016-12-05 Focusing on the history of ideas this book explores important questions concerning knowledge in relation to philosophy science ethics and Christian faith Kirk contributes to the current debate about the intellectual basis and integrity of Western culture exploring controversial issues concerning the notions of modernity and post modernity Repositioning the Christian faith as a valid dialogue partner with contemporary secular movements in philosophy and ethics Kirk seeks to show that in post Christian Europe the Christian faith still possesses intellectual resources worthy to be reckoned with This book's principal argument is that contemporary Western society faces a cultural crisis It explores what appears to be an historical enigma namely the question of why Western intellectual endeavours in philosophy and science seem to have abandoned the search for a source of knowledge able to draw together disparate pieces of information provided by different disciplines Kirk draws conclusions particularly in the area of ethical decision making from this apparent failure and invites readers to consider Christian theism afresh as a means for the renewal of culture and society

The Dilemma of Faith in Modern Japanese Literature Massimiliano Tomasi, 2018-04-19 The first book length study to explore the links between Christianity and modern Japanese literature this book analyses the process of conversion of nine canonical authors unveiling the influence that Christianity had on their self construction their oeuvre and ultimately the trajectory of modern Japanese literature Building significantly on previous research which has treated the intersections of Christianity with the Japanese literary world in only a cursory fashion this book emphasizes the need to make a clear distinction between the different roles played by Catholicism and Protestantism In particular it argues that most Meiji and Taisho intellectuals were exposed to an exclusively Protestant and mainly Calvinist derivation of Christianity and so it is against this worldview that the connections between the two ought to be assessed Examining the work of authors such as Kitamura Tokuo Akutagawa Ryunosuke and Nagayo Yoshir this book also contextualises the spread of Christianity in Japan and challenges the notion that Christian thought was in conflict with mainstream literary schools As such this book explains how the dualities experienced by many modern writers were in fact the manifestation of manifold developments which placed Christianity at the center rather than at the periphery of their process of self construction The Dilemma of Faith in Modern Japanese Literature will be of great interest to students and scholars of Japanese modern literature as well as those interested in Religious Studies and Japanese Studies more generally

Salvation and Modernity Fredrik Fällman, 2008-09-17 Salvation and Modernity presents an interpretation of the phenomenon of intellectual Christians in contemporary Chinese society with special focus paid to Liu Xiaofeng by exploring the main issues of faith salvation and the quest for a modern China Author Fredrik Fällman investigates similar developments in earlier centuries by linking past and present forms of cultural Christian phenomenon and the beliefs and ideas of Liu Xiaofeng and other scholars Their focus on Christianity implies a criticism of traditional Chinese value systems in particular Confucianism and Daoism The introduction of Christian theology and values into Chinese academia is a way of creating greater understanding for Western culture Many cultural Christians argue that this advanced understanding is a prerequisite for establishing a modern China Issues of personal faith and identity are also central in respect to modernity as well as to individual and national salvation Post Mao China is seeking a new foundation for values and cultural Christians have a definite role to play Since the choice of Christianity is an expression of individuality freedom and criticism of political structures cultural Christians will ultimately help in laying foundations for a theology in Chinese relations between the intellectuals and the Church The impact and importance of cultural Christians is becoming more visible now than ever before

Abiding Grace Mark C. Taylor, 2018-10-02 Post war post industrialism post religion post truth post biological post human post modern What succeeds the post age Mark C Taylor returns here to some of his central philosophical preoccupations and asks What comes after the end Abiding Grace navigates the competing Hegelian and Kierkegaardian trajectories born out of the Reformation and finds Taylor arguing from spaces in between showing how both narratives have shaped recent philosophy and culture For Hegel Luther's internalization of faith anticipated the modern principle of autonomy which reached its fullest expression in speculative philosophy The closure of the Hegelian system still endures in the twenty first century in consumer society financial capitalism and virtual culture For Kierkegaard by contrast Luther's God remains radically transcendent while finite human beings and their world remain fully dependent From this insight Heidegger and Derrida developed an alternative view of time in which a radically open future breaks into the present to transform the past demonstrating that far from autonomous life is a gift from an Other that can never be known Offering an alternative genealogy of deconstruction that traces its pedigree back to readings of Paul by way of Luther Abiding Grace presents a thoroughgoing critique of modernity and postmodernity's will to power and mastery In this new philosophical and theological vision history is not over and the future remains endlessly open Secular Faith Vincent William Lloyd, Elliot A.

Ratzman, 2011-01-01 Is faith a necessary virtue in the contemporary world May it be or must it be detached from religious commitment What do genealogies of the secular tell us about faith Does religion need secular faith Secular Faith brings together leading and emerging scholars to reflect on the apparent paradox of secular faith Ranging over anthropology religious studies political science history and literature from Muslims in China to Pentecostals in South Africa to a prison chapel in Texas this collection of essays is as engaging and accessible as it is penetrating and rigorous Communism was once labeled the god that failed Like Christianity Communism involves faith in a superhuman endeavor conversion myth discipline and salvation and from the perspective of secular liberalism both are unjustified and false In recent years scholars have begun to investigate whether secularism is itself based on faith in a god that failed or is failing Nevertheless many still embrace such a faith finding in the spirit of democracy an ethos of eternal renewal Secular Faith enters and broadens this conversation interrogating secular faith in a global context tapping new theoretical resources and grappling provocatively with the tragedies and opportunities of today's profane pantheon of beliefs Modern Egyptian Women, Fashion and Faith Amany Abdelrazek-Alsiefy, 2023-11-03 This book discusses Egyptian Muslim women's dress as the social political and ideological signifier of the changing attitudes towards Western modernity It employs women's clothing styles as a feminist act that provides rich insights into the power and limits of legal regulations and hegemonic discourses in constructing gendered and cultural borders in the modern Egyptian public sphere Furthermore through highlighting marginalized but significant models and historical moments of cultural exchange between Muslim and Western cultures through female dress the book tells a third story beyond the binary model of an assumed modest oppressed traditional Muslim woman vis vis consumer emancipated modern Western woman in mainstream Western discourse and literary representation      Guardians of Faith in Modern Times Meir Hatina, 2009 This collective volume provides an integrative historical and contemporary discussion of Sunni Ulama in the Middle East in both an urban and a semi tribal context The various chapters reinforce a renewed interest in the position of the Ulama in modern times and offer new insights as to their ideological vitality and contribution to the public discourse on moral and sociopolitical issues      Faith and the Modern Family Craig

Jutila, 2014-05-05 Today's families are big on commitment but short on time We are inundated with enticing technology an abundance of activities and too many events to count There doesn't seem to be much family time left does there With our schedules overflowing and anxiety weighing us down how do we find family balance and connect with each other How do we raise healthy families in the midst of our modern world In Faith and the Modern Family Craig Jutila offers sound advice for today's modern family and today's modern parents Craig will guide you through the steps of setting a healthy life pace for your family including setting priorities modeling the behavior you want from your children and planning for your family's future Also included are downloadable resources such as Four Steps on Your Faith Journey and Rules for Maintaining a Healthy Social Media Account that you can use again and again With faith and some expert advice you can stay connected to your modern family in a healthy way      Faith and History - A Comparison of Christian and Modern Views of History

Reinhold Niebuhr, 2013-04-18 The theme of this volume was first presented as the Lyman Beecher Lectures On Preaching at the Yale Divinity School in 1945 Some of the same lectures were given by arrangement under the Warrack Lectureship On Preaching at the Universities of Glasgow and Aberdeen in Scotland in the winter of 1947 Some of the chapters were used as the basis of lectures given under the Olaf Petri Foundation of the University of Uppsala in Sweden I sought to develop various portions of a general theme in these various lectureships In this volume I have drawn these lectures into a more comprehensive study of the total problem of the relation of the Christian faith to modern conceptions of history While the total work therefore bears little resemblance to the lectures it does contain consideration of the specific problems which were dealt with in the lectures I shall not seek to identify this material by chapters as I subjected the whole to reorganization Two of these lectureships usually deal with the art of preaching though not a few of the actual lectures have been concerned with the preacher's message Since I had no special competence in the art of homiletics I thought it wise to devote the lectures to a definition of the apologetic task of the Christian pulpit in the unique spiritual climate of our day Since several of the Beecher lecturers in the past half century sought to accommodate the Christian message to the prevailing evolutionary optimism of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries I thought it might be particularly appropriate to consider the spiritual situation in a period in which this evolutionary optimism is in the process of decay This volume is written on the basis of the faith that the Gospel of Christ is true for men of every age and that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday today and forever It is nevertheless the task of the pulpit to relate the ageless Gospel to the special problems of each age In doing so

however there is always a temptation to capitulate to the characteristic prejudices of an age      Ancient Faith, Future Mission ,      Faith and Reason Henri Blocher, 2022-05-03 How do we harmonize the findings of science with the revelation of Scripture Were there errors in the original manuscripts of the Bible What of those who willfully bend a verse to say whatever they want Blocher who is former president of the European Fellowship of Evangelical Theologians provides a persuasive primer on apologetics      Faith in God and Modern Atheism Compared, in Their Essential Nature, Theoretic Grounds, and Practical Influence James Buchanan, 1855
