When the foundations of our faith violently shake we should take heed to the warning conveyed in Hebrews 6:4-8. But beloved, we are confident of better things concerning you, things that accompany salvation. We will hold on to our faith even when good health eludes us, children are denied, there is no spouse coming our way, and the portals of death have opened their porches to swallow us. We will hold on to God as Nehemiah did in response to his enemies. Should such a man as I flee? Nehemiah 6:11
