Woods,2010-02-01 Walking with Faith addresses a long standing need to develop the faith related dimensions of Christian moral life and explore their implications It responds to Vatican II s exhortation that theological studies be renewed through a lively contact with the mystery of Christ and the history of salvation Accordingly this book examines the relationship between faith and moral life in the Scriptures and acknowledges the normative quality of the biblical texts It reviews the long experience of the Church paying special attention to history worship and intellectual currents These dimensions of Christian life show the relationship between faith and moral life at any given time and allow the actions of one generation to have effects that extend far into the future Walking with Faith promotes an understanding of contemporary pastoral and theological issues and encourages a deep and informed approach to Christian life Faith, Hope, and Sustainability Cybelle T. Shattuck,2021-06-01 Faith Hope and Sustainability explores the experiences of fifteen faith communities striving to care for the earth and live more sustainably A church in Maine partners with fishermen to create the first community supported fishery so they can make a living without overfishing A Jewish congregation in Illinois raises extra funds to construct a green synagogue that expresses their religious mission to heal the world Benedictine sisters in Wisconsin adopt caring for the earth as part of their mission and begin restoring one hundred acres of prairie reviving their community in the process Presbyterians in Virginia dismayed by air pollution in Shenandoah National Park take courage from their conviction that God does not call us to do little things and advocate for improved national air pollution policies Stories such as these highlight the variety of environmental actions that people of faith are enacting through congregational venues Beyond simply narrating inspiring stories however this book compares these case studies to explore in detail the processes through which the communities took action In addition to examining why faith communities engage in earth care Cybelle T Shattuck explores how they put intention into action and how the congregational context affects what they do She introduces an analytical framework focusing on four domains of activity champions faith leaders congregations and organizations to explicate the full range of factors that influence how initiatives develop and whether sustainability becomes embedded in these religious organizations Both the framework and the information on process presented in this book will be highly useful to scholars and to people of faith interested in implementing an earth care ethic through sustainability programs Living Faith Eileen Patricia Flynn, Gloria Blanchfield Thomas, 1989 Covering fundamental theological themes this book provides a readable introduction that is comprehensive but not overwhelming The Indian and Christian Miracles of Walking on the Water William Norman Brown, 1928 Coming Back to Faith J. LeBron McBride PhD, 2021-03-29 Have you been bruised or wounded by your faith or belief system This book is not about arguing theology but about providing practical insights and meditations to enhance the Christian journey Your faith may be going through a transition It is the hope of the author of this work that Coming Back to Faith will be a sensitive and caring beacon of hope along the way Afrikaners and the Boundaries of Faith in Post-Apartheid South Africa Annika Björnsdotter Teppo, 2021-09-30 This book examines the shifting moral and spiritual lives of white Afrikaners in South Africa after apartheid The end of South Africa's apartheid system of racial and spatial segregation sparked wide reaching social change as social cultural spatial and racial boundaries were transgressed and transformed This book investigates how Afrikaners have mediated the country's shifting boundaries within the realm of religion For instance one in every three Afrikaners used these new freedoms to leave the traditional Dutch Reformed Church NGK often for an entirely new religious affiliation within the Pentecostal or Charismatic churches or New Religious Movements such as Wiccan neopaganism Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork in the Western Cape area the book investigates what spiritual life after racial totalitarianism means for the members of the ethnic group that constructed and maintained that very totalitarianism Ultimately the book asks how these new Afrikaner religious practices contribute to social solidarity and integration in a persistently segregated society and what they can tell us about racial relations in the country today This book will be of interest to scholars of religious studies social and cultural anthropology and African studies Publication ,1994 Church on the Way Nell Becker Sweeden, 2015-07-17 The practice of Christian hospitality reaches back to the early centuries of Christian life as well as deep into Jewish history life and Scripture This practice is alive today in Christian churches and in parachurch organizations within the United States but new contextual realities in particular twenty first century global migration patterns have altered the conditions under which hospitality is practiced The reality of migration and its effect on human lives disrupts static conceptions of hospitality and challenges ecclesial communities toward contextual appropriation of hospitality practice This volume explores Christian hospitality practice in light of twenty first century U S Latino a migration and it develops the notion of a journeying hospitality of accompaniment with and among persons migrating which fosters deeper relationships and formation The shifting identities of persons on the move challenge assumptions about what it means to welcome another in hospitality and ultimately what it means to be church from within these new relationships In turn the new conceptions and expressions of hospitality offered in this book press how the nature and mission of the church will be oriented toward new ecclesial patterns and alternative forms of residing on earth Herald and Presbyterian ,1907 Faith in the Public Square Robert D. Eastern biblical attitude toward life How can knowing Jesus within this context shed light on his teachings for us today In Walking in the Dust of Rabbi Jesus we ll journey back in time to eavesdrop on the conversations that arose among the rabbis of Jesus day and consider how hearing Rabbi Jesus with the ears of a first century disciple can bring new meaning to our faith And we ll listen to Jewish thinkers through the ages discovering how ideas that germinated in Jesus time have borne fruit Doing so will yield fresh practical insights for following our Rabbi s teachings from a Jewish point of view Knowing Our Faith Justo L. González, 2019-03-12 I do not hope to convince you so that you will believe That is to be left to the Holy Spirit I write to you because you share the faith by which I live I write so that you may share my joy in seeking to understand better this truth that our hearts believe and love In Knowing Our Faith Justo González introduces the Christian faith in direct contemporary language that does not assume prior knowledge While recognizing the existence of various denominations and theological positions González focuses on the core faith of the Christian church through the centuries Covering all the key topics revelation God Jesus Christ the Spirit the church Christian hope and others Knowing Our Faith is an ideal resource for both individual reading and small group study with questions for discussion included at the end of each short chapter This accessible resource will help readers understand the Christian faith better and more importantly live it better Dictionary Catalog of the Klau Library, Cincinnati Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion.
