Faith We Confess:

The Faith We Confess Jan Milic Lochman, 2005-01-13 Jan Milic Lochman is internationally respected as a convincing and powerful interpreter of theology for both Christians and Marxists. With this work he offers a contemporary and ecumenical statement of what Christians believe based on the Apostles Creed. He treats the creed not as an archaic document but as a living witness vitally relevant to today's intellectual and ecumenical scene. This existentially committed exposition of the basics of Christian faith will inform and challenge both clergy and laity. Protestant, Catholic and Orthodox as few have done since the majestic Credo of Karl Barth.

The Faith We Confess Gerald Lewis Bray, 2009 Bray examines the 39 Articles of Religion, one of the three historic formularies of the Church of England. Along with the Book of Common Prayer and the Ordinal, they gave the church its distinctive identity at the time of the Reformation.

Confession of the Christian Religion Girolamo Zanchi, 2025-03-06 In response to the Lutheran Formula of Concord, representatives of Reformed churches commissioned Girolamo Zanchi to draft a confession of faith acceptable to all Reformed churches. Zanchi patterned his Confession of the Christian Religion after the Apostles Creed, giving it a broadly Trinitarian and redemptive historical structure that emphasizes God's saving work for His people in His incarnate Son. It is a synthesis of his exegetical, doctrinal and pastoral interests and stands out among his numerous publications as a useful and accessible overview of the entire Reformed theological system of doctrine. Although the project never attained confessional status at the ecclesiastical level as was planned, Zanchi's Confession proved influential in both the Reformed theological tradition generally and the development of Reformed dogmatics in particular.

Activating Your Personal Faith to Receive: 25 Biblical Principles for Releasing the Power Within! Rich Brott, 2000-09 Author Rich Brott notes that faith is a choice, an act of the human will. It is a deliberate choice to place confidence in God and His Word. Unbelief is a sin because it is a deliberate choice to withhold confidence in God and His Word. Faith is a receiving of the truth, an embracing of the truth and a commitment to the God of truth. And commitment always produces action. That is why faith without works is dead. With no action there is no commitment. With no commitment there is no faith. In this book you will find 25 faith building principles that will enlarge your capacity to receive the very best that God has to offer you.

Confessing the Faith Today Allan Janssen, 2016-11-30 With the understanding that confession is a witness to the gospel, Confessing the Faith Today investigates how a sixteenth century Reformation confession, the Belgic Confession, can assist contemporary Christians testify to the truth of God's gracious turn toward creation and do so in the context of the twenty-first century's competing claims. A close examination of the internal coherence of the Belgic Confession along with an exploration of how that confession might engage contemporary life offers fresh insight into how Christians might articulate what is at stake in the gospel. Janssen encourages the church to enter a conversation with the forebears of the faith, acknowledging the historical nature of not only the confession but of God's involvement in all creation.

The Scots Confession of Faith John Knox articulates a robust framework of Reformed theology that emerged during the tumultuous era of the Protestant Reformation. Written in 1560, this seminal document serves as both a declaration of faith and a blueprint for the burgeoning Scottish Church, encapsulating core doctrines such as the sovereignty of God, the authority of Scripture, and the necessity of grace. Knox's literary style is characterized by clarity and fervor, reflecting the urgency of his mission to reform and unify the Scottish populace under a shared Christian identity amidst political and religious chaos. John Knox, a pioneer of the Reformation in Scotland, drew upon his own tumultuous experiences, including his time in exile and encounters with contemporaries like John Calvin. His passionate advocacy for Reformed theology and ecclesiastical governance played a pivotal role in shaping the identity of Scottish Protestantism. Knox's convictions stemmed from a deep-seated belief in the necessity of reforming the Church to align with biblical teachings, driven by both his theological insights and the socio-political conditions of his time. This work is essential for anyone seeking to understand the roots of Presbyterianism and the impact of Reformation theology on modern Christianity. The Scots Confession of Faith is not just a historical document; it is an invitation for readers to explore the profound implications of faith, governance, and community that resonate to this day. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. A succinct Introduction situates the work's timeless appeal and themes.
