Faith Word And Culture Forty Years After Vatican II:

Science and Religion: Fifty Years After Vatican II Kenan Osborne OFM, Ki Wook Min, 2014-01-31 In the past one hundred years two major realities have changed both science and religion The world of science has been enriched by quantum physics the computation of the age of the universe archaeological data in the Middle East and a scientific stress on historical writing The world of religion has been enriched by the establishment of the World Council of Churches and the Second Vatican Council In the past fifty years major scientists and major religious leaders have met together again and again In the past fifty years religious leaders from Christianity Islam and Judaism have held a number of thought provoking conferences In this volume these gatherings are reviewed and evaluated Two major religious problems have challenged the science religion discussions namely which God should the scientists agree on the Trinitarian God Allah or Yahweh Which history of the universe sponsored by these three religions should scientists be looking for This volume raises questions and suggests some preliminary forms of serious discussion

The Collected Works of Edward Schillebeeckx Volume 4 Edward Schillebeeckx, 2014-09-25 World and Church deals with the conflict between religiosity and life in the world Deliberately Schillebeeckx turns around the order of the words in the idiom church and world thereby stressing the embedding of faith and church life in particular contexts In the first three chapters he reflects on this tension as he experienced it in burgeoning existentialism and debates between Catholics and Marxists in those turbulent years in Paris where he was living immediately after World War II It includes thoughts on pastoral work among the working class and the then popular pretres ouvriers movement He looks at some social problems and the mutual interrogation of believers and non believers also in light of the ideological compartmentalisation pillarization evident in diverse spheres of European society education social work and health care Schillebeeckx concludes by considering the responsibility of Catholic intellectuals and academics for the future of the world and the church including the possible significance of a Catholic university

The Future of Religion Ralph H. Johnson, Paul Rennick, 2020-05-15 Religion evokes strong emotions and raises hard questions This volume addresses many of the contentious elements that religion provokes and challenges some of the easy answers contemporary society has produced The frequent and often facile dictum about the separation of church and state when examined closely may prove to contribute to the erosion of some of our most cherished human values rather than to their preservation The science versus religion dichotomy is dogma for many yet the empiricism that is the hallmark of scientific method and knowledge can be singularly absent from positions that claim to be science The current spate of attacks against God and religion that are now commonplace when critically scrutinized often fail to provide compelling arguments or even to be as objective as their authors claim These and other explorations are the focus of this book From the Forward in which Charles Kimball challenges the West to re evaluate its perspective and understanding of the East particularly Islam to the Afterword in which theologian Gregory Baum chronicles the extraordinary reversal of sociology's estimation of religion the invitation from this volume to all of us is to review our pieties and presuppositions as we reflect on the future of religion

The Reception of the Second Vatican Council's Liturgical Reforms in Nigeria (Nsukka Diocese) Uchenna Aba, 2016 Fifty years after the promulgation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy a great moment has dawned in which a more dispassionate assessment of the reception of this important document has become imperative in order to enable the Church to undertake necessary steps in realizing the full potential of the renewal envisaged by the Council Fathers The present study identifies peculiar and diverse challenges confronting the process of reception in the Nsukka Diocese Nigerian Church today However the author acknowledges that the full reception of Sacrosanctum Concilium is still a work in progress Uchenna Aba is a Catholic priest in Nsukka Nigeria and currently the Chaplain of St Martin s Parish Goch Diocese of Muenster Germany

Covenant and Hope Robert W. Jenson, Eugene Korn, 2012-07-27 Covenant and Hope centers around two main themes in Jewish Christian dialogue Covenant Mission and Relation to the Other and Hope and Responsibility for the Human Future In the first section scholars from both faiths analyze the idea of covenant how it determines their religious commitments behavior and theology and how their covenantal theology shapes their relations with people outside their religious communities The second section focuses on the foundation for religious hope how belief in the future can be nourished and on our practical and philosophic responsibility to work for a better human future

Kindred Spirits Brenna Moore, 2021-07-02 Kindred Spirits takes us inside a remarkable network of Catholic historians theologians poets and activists who pushed against both the far right surge in interwar Europe and the secularizing tendencies of the leftist movements active in the early to mid twentieth century With meticulous attention to the complexity of real lives Brenna Moore explores how this group sought a middle way anchored in spiritual friendship religiously meaningful friendship understood as uniquely capable of facing social and political challenges For this group spiritual friendship was inseparable from resistance to European xenophobia and nationalism anti racist activism in the United States and solidarity with Muslims during the Algerian War Friendship they believed was a key to both divine and human realms a means of accessing the transcendent while also engaging with our social and political existence Some of the figures are still well known philosopher Jacques Maritain Nobel Prize laureate Gabriela Mistral influential Islamicist Louis Massignon poet of the Harlem renaissance Claude McKay while others have unjustly faded from memory Much more than an idealized portrait of a remarkable group of Catholic intellectuals from the past Kindred Spirits is a compelling exploration of both the beauty and flaws of a vibrant social network worth remembering

Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray, 2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement Receptive Ecumenism that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice Beyond this the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other's gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesiologists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts

Mission, Ministry, Order David N. Power, O.M.I., 2008-06-01 What is the mission of the church What are the ministries that further its mission How should the traditional orders of bishop overseer priest presbyter and deacon be reconsidered in the light of 21st century challenges and ecumenical unity These big questions involve a constellation of neuralgic issues both within the Roman Catholic Church and between it and its sister churches both East and West women priests women bishops married priests lay ministries the unaccountability of bishops to their flocks The rapid decline of priests in the US has led to an enormous number of lay people in leadership positions but they can't preside at the Eucharist the heart and soul of Catholic identity and practice and their roles are nebulous undefined and severely constrained Catholic women are voting with their feet over the church's failure to ordain women Lay theologians men and women now outnumber priest theologians but have little standing in the church outside of academia Far reaching agreements on theological issues have been made between Roman Catholicism and Anglicanism and Lutheranism but the practical consequences e.g. shared Eucharists are nil It is against this background that David Power the doyen of sacramental theologians in North America has written a magisterial work on the mission ministry and order of the church that is historically comprehensive theologically progressive ecumenically and globally focused and practical in its prescriptions
