The Making of Working-Class Religion Matthew Pehl,2016-09-08 Religion has played a protean role in the lives of America s workers In this innovative volume Matthew Pehl focuses on Detroit to examine the religious consciousness constructed by the city s working class Catholics African American Protestants and southern born white evangelicals and Pentecostals between 1910 and 1969 Pehl embarks on an integrative view of working class faith that ranges across boundaries of class race denomination and time As he shows workers in the 1910s and 1920s practiced beliefs characterized by emotional expressiveness alliance with supernatural forces and incorporation of mass culture s secular diversions into the sacred That gave way to the more pragmatic class conscious religion cultures of the New Deal era and from the late Thirties on a quilt of secular working class cultures that coexisted in competitive though creative tension Finally Pehl shows how the ideology of race eclipsed class in the 1950s and 1960s and in so doing replaced the class conscious with the race conscious in religious cultures throughout the city An ambitiously inclusive contribution to a burgeoning field The Making of Working Class Religion breaks new ground in the study of solidarity and the sacred in the American heartland The Great American Makeover D. This is the first book length study in English to investigate Freire s landmark educational theory and practice through the lens of his lifelong Catholicism A Pedagogy of Faith explores this often overlooked dimension of one of the most globally prominent and influential educational thinkers of the past fifty years Leopando illustrates how vibrant currents within twentieth century Catholic theology shaped central areas of Freire s thought and activism especially his view of education as a process of human formation in light of the divinely endowed vocation of persons to shape culture society and history With the contemporary resurgence of authoritarian political and cultural forces throughout much of the world Freire s theologically grounded affirmation of radical democracy social justice historical possibility and the absolute dignity of the human person remains as vital and relevant as ever Curating Spaces of Hope Matthew Barber-Rowell,2025-03-31

What might a political theology of leadership look like in uncertain times Curating Spaces of Hope explores how individuals and communities work together to shape and contribute to society in times of pandemic Brexit war and a cost of living crisis through the exploration and development of local leadership practice underpinned by shared values The Impossible Will Take a Little While Paul Rogat Loeb,2014-04-29 More relevant than ever this seminal collection of essays encourages us to believe in the power of ordinary citizens to change the world In today s turbulent world it s hard not to feel like we re going backwards after decades of striving justice and equality still seem like far off goals What keeps us going when times get tough How have the leaders and unsung heroes of world changing political movements persevered in the face of cynicism fear and seemingly overwhelming odds In The Impossible Will Take a Little While they answer these questions in their own words creating a conversation among some of the most visionary and eloquent voices of our times Today more than ever we need their words and their wisdom In this revised edition Paul Rogat Loeb has comprehensively updated this classic work on what it s like to go up against Goliath whether South African apartheid Mississippi segregation Middle East dictatorships or the corporations driving global climate change Without sugarcoating the obstacles these stories inspire hope to keep moving forward Think of this book as a conversation among some of the most visionary and eloquent voices of our times or any time Contributors include Maya Angelou Diane Ackerman Marian Wright Edelman Wael Ghonim V clav Havel Paul Hawken Seamus Heaney Jonathan Kozol Tony Kushner Audre Lorde Nelson Mandela Bill McKibben Bill Moyers Pablo Neruda Mary Pipher Arundhati Roy Dan Savage Desmond Tutu Alice Walker Cornel West Terry Tempest Williams and Howard Zinn
