Faithful Witnesses Palestinian Children Recreate Their World:

Faithful Witnesses Kamal Boullata,199? Memories of Our Future Ammiel Alcalay,1999-12 This text features essays from Ammiel Alcalay covering Mediterranean culture Arabic literature the war in Bosnia the Israeli Palestinian conflict the destruction of Carthage and much more The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide Irving Epstein,2007-12-30 From the skyrocketing AIDS rate in Haiti to the oppressive pollution in industrial China from the violent street culture of Nigeria to the crippling poverty in Nicaragua from child trafficking in Thailand to child marriages in India this jam packed six volume set explores all these issues and more in an unprecedented look at the world s children at the dawn of the 21st century In recent years while many countries have enjoyed a higher standard of living and improved working conditions others have been torn apart by war and incapacitated by famine and are struggling to improve life for their children and their future Recent concern over the world s children has resulted in a global attempt to define what constitutes an acceptable childhood New attention has been paid not only to healthcare and secondary education but also to the right to play and increased access to technology The UN s codification of children s rights has done much to expand our understanding of what is needed for healthy growth and development of children and youth Organized by region The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children s Issues Worldwide is the first globally focused set of this magnitude offering extensive up to date coverage of these critical issues Original chapters accessibly synthesize current data on key topics including education play and recreation child labor family health laws and legal status religious life abuse and neglect and growing up in the 21st century Palestinian Refugees Robert Bowker,2003 Encompassing history politics and political culture Bowker grapples with fundamental issues of Palestinian identity in the context of the peace process Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph,2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph s volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship Occupied by Memory John Collins,2004-12 Occupied by Memory explores the memories of the first Palestinian intifada Based on extensive interviews with members of the intifada generation those who were between 10 and 18 years old when the intifada began in 1987 the book provides a detailed look at the intifada memories of ordinary Palestinians These personal stories are presented as part of a complex and politically charged discursive field through which young Palestinians are invested with meaning by scholars politicians journalists and other observers What emerges from their memories is a sense of a generation caught between a past that is simultaneously traumatic empowering and exciting and a future that is perpetually uncertain In this sense Collins argues that understanding the stories and the struggles of the intifada generation is a key to understanding the ongoing state of emergency for the Palestinian people The book will be of interest not only to scholars of the Middle East but also to those interested in nationalism discourse analysis social movements and oral history Ethnicities and Global Multiculture Jan Nederveen Pieterse,2007-03-15 Arguing that ethnicity and multiculturalism are essential for understanding globalization Jan Nederveen Pieterse offers one of the first sustained treatments of the reach of these key forces beyond a limited national context He shows that multiethnicity preceded the nation state by millennia but argues that states feeling the threat to their national identities seek to control or suppress it Contemporary multiculturalism another attempt to regulate multiethnicity is a work in progress in which dramas of global inequality are played out This groundbreaking book adopts a kaleidoscopic and comparative historical perspective that intertwines strands of social science and western and non western research as a strategy to overcome the disciplinary and regional fragmentation of most discussions Moving beyond worn notions of ethnicity and multiculturalism Nederveen Pieterse proposes ethnicities and global multiculturalism as alternative wide angle perspectives on cultural diversity Global multiculturalism he convincingly demonstrates offers a fresh account of layered cultural dynamics amid accelerated globalization

Encyclopedia of Arab American Artists Faye S. Oweis,2007-12-30 The rich history and culture of the Arab American people is found in the passionate works of its artists Whether they be traditional media such as painting and calligraphy or more sophisticated media such as digital work and installation the pieces represent the beauty of heritage the struggles of growing up in war torn countries the identity conflicts of female artists in male dominated societies and the issues surrounding migration to a Western culture very different from one's own Many of the artists included here though their works appear in museums and galleries throughout the world have never before been featured in a reference book Interviews conducted by the author provide a personal look into the experiences and creative processes of these artists Artists included Etel Adnan Wasma Chorbachi Nihad Dukhan Kahlil Gibran Sari Khoury Emily Jacir Sari Khoury Mamoun Sakkal Mary Tuma Madiha Umar Afaf Zurayk Discourse and Palestine Annelies Moors,1995 I Am a Muslim: A Modern Storybook Susan Douglass,1995-01-01 This unit is built around a set of paired stories one from the Qur'an or authentic traditions and one related modern story The overall objectives are 1 to awaken the children's awareness of their identity and worth as

Muslims 2 to model Islamic behavior patterns and 3 to cultivate a sense of identification and community with Muslims of long ago and in other parts of the modern world While the unit is designed for kindergarten its stories and activities may be useful for values instruction throughout the primary grades in a variety of instructional settings including full time weekend and home schools This unit emphasizing values education may also be useful in Muslim parenting classes Each lesson consists of the story pair to be presented to the children orally or dramatically and suggested discussion guidelines and activities through which the values and related behaviors are developed and reinforced in the children s understanding The 15 lessons are intended to implement teaching objectives in various units taught in a typical Islamic kindergarten social studies curriculum on a selective or exhaustive basis throughout the year

Standing on an Isthmus Ayse S. Kadayifci,2007-01-01 Standing on an Isthmus examines how religious beliefs commitments and traditions shape social action such as promoting either violent or peaceful behavior by analyzing different Islamic interpretations of war and peace in Palestine and seeks to answer the question What is the best strategy to empower those groups and individuals that support a nonviolent Islamic approach to actively pursue a just peace for all parties involved

Palestine George Baramki Azar,1991-01-01 An unforgettable photographic journal of the shadows of the Arab world at turns invisible unknown and threatening to some this work gathers images of the Palestinians during the first few months of 1988 when the intifada was beginning to gain momentum We have come to visually associate the terms intifada and Palestinian solely with images of young men wrapped in kafiyyehs hurling rocks at Israeli soldiers The photos gathered here are different They grant us the rare opportunity to see facets of the Palestinians not portrayed in the popular media the beauty of the land the life of the shepherders the joy of the children the quiet defiance of the elders the dignity they all salvage From 1981 to 1987 George Azar chronicled the Israeli invasion of Lebanon the destruction of the U S Marine compound the civil insurrection in West Beirut the Iran Iraq War and the interfactional war among the Palestinians in North Lebanon He saw gun battles and deaths so numerous that his memory of them has become a blur Leaving the horror of Beirut Damour and Tripoli behind he resisted the thought of going back But in early January 1988 news reports showed the people of the refugee camps the villages and the towns in the West Bank and the Gaza Strip taking to the streets He returned to the occupied territories later that month and began taking these pictures This book bears witness to Palestinian lives and by doing so gives the Other a human face The texts that accompany the photographs are taken from eyewitness testimonies open letters news clippings interviews and Arabic poetry An introductory essay by Ann M Lesch describes the genesis of the intifada movement and its interactions with the Israeli government Despite death deportation and the destruction of their homes the Palestinians remain steadfast convinced that one day the horror of military occupation will end and they will be able to live once again This work is a testament to that conviction

What it Means to be Palestinian Dina Matar,2010-10-30 What It Means to be Palestinian is a narrative of narratives a collection of personal stories remembered feelings and reconstructed experiences by different Palestinians whose lives were changed and shaped by history Their stories are told chronologically through particular phases of the Palestinian national struggle providing a composite autobiography of Palestine as a landscape and as a people The book begins with the 1936 revolt against British rule in Palestine and ends in 1993 with the Oslo peace agreement that changed the nature and form of the national struggle It is based on in depth interviews and conversations with Palestinians male and female old and young rich and poor religious and secular in Jordan Lebanon Syria Israel and the Occupied Territories Presented as remembered personal narratives and as social histories these conversations provide a deep intimate account of what it means to be Palestinian in the 21st century A Jar of Wild Flowers Yasmin Gunaratnam,2016-11-05 John Berger has made the world a better place to live in These essays tell us how he succeeded in that task Arundhati Roy In this collection of essays on the work of and conversations with John Berger thirty seven of his friends artistic collaborators and followers come together to form the first truly international and cross cultural celebration of his interventions Berger has for decades through his poetic humanism brought together geographically historically and socially disparate subjects His work continues to throw out lifelines across genres times and types of experience opening up radical questions about the meaning of belonging and of community In keeping with this spirit and in celebration of Berger the short essays in A Jar of Wild Flowers challenge us all to take the brave step from limited sympathy to extended generosity With contributions from Ali Smith Julie Christie Sally Potter Ram Rahman Jean Mohr Nick Thorpe Hsiao Hung Pai and many others Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom,Sheila Blair,2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations □□□□□□□□ Hala Kaleh,Simonetta Calderini,1993 Heritage, Museums and Galleries Gerard Corsane,2005 This reader provides a starting point and introductory resource for anyone wishing to engage with certain key issues relating to the heritage museums and galleries sector The Middle East, Abstracts and Index ,1997 Children of the Stones John Martin Collins,2000
