Faithful Tribe:

The Faithful Tribe Ruth Dudley Edwards, 1999 If there is any more controversial body of men than the Orange Order and with the exception of Ruth Dudley Edwards who has been admitted to an honorary position in her very own lodge they are all men in the British Isles it is hard to think who they might be To most outsiders grown men parading in bowler hats white gloves coloured sashes or collarettes rolled umbrellas and banners showing scenes from the Old Testament or from a war that ended three centuries ago are anachronistic silly and provocative to their enemies they are triumphalist bigots to most of their members the lodges parades are a commemoration of the courage of their forefathers a proud declaration of their belief in civil and religious freedom a demonstration of their Britishness a chance to catch up with old friends and a jolly day out

The Gospel magazine, and theological review. Ser. 5. Vol. 3, no. 1-July 1874, 1847 History and Memory in Modern Ireland Ian McBride, 2001-11-08 Discussing the relationship between the past and the present in Irish society this 2001 title outlines the ways in which Irish identities have been shaped by oral tradition icons and images rituals and re enactments It examines pivotal moments in Irish history such as the 1798 rebellion the Famine the Great War and the Northern Ireland troubles investigating the ways in which they have been recalled commemorated and mythologised Beginning with the conviction that commemoration has its own history the essays address questions concerning the workings of communal memory How have particular political and social groups interpreted appropriated and distorted the past for their own purposes How are collective memories transmitted from one generation to the next Why does collective amnesia work in some situations and not in others What is the relationship between academic history and popular memory A Nation and not a Rabble Diarmaid Ferriter, 2015-03-05 Packed with violence political drama and social and cultural upheaval the years 1913 1923 saw the emergence in Ireland of the Ulster Volunteer Force to resist Irish home rule and in response the Irish Volunteers who would later evolve into the IRA World War One the rise of Sinn Féin in intense Ulster unionism and conflict with Britain culminated in the Irish war of Independence which ended with a compromise Treaty with Britain and then the enmities and drama of the Irish Civil War Drawing on an abundance of newly released archival material witness statements and testimony from the ordinary Irish people who lived and fought through extraordinary times A Nation and not a Rabble explores these revolutions Diarmaid Ferriter highlights the gulf between rhetoric and reality in politics and violence the role of women the battle for material survival the impact of key Irish unionist and republican leaders as well as conflicts over health land religion law and order and welfare Luke's People Thomas J. F. Stanford, 2014-05-27 Luke's People seeks to understand the men and women who met Jesus and the apostles as they are described in the Gospel of Luke and in the Acts of the Apostles in the way that Luke who wrote these works intended This socio historical literary study seeks to interpret Luke's writings in the light of the time when they were written on the basis that Luke was a skilled writer who wrote what he meant and meant what he wrote It argues that Luke's depiction of women has been grossly misunderstood and finds that this misunderstanding may be due to a widespread attempt around the end of the first century to impose a patriarchal system of governance upon the church Luke s People shows that Luke did not share such a patriarchal viewpoint but instead always presents Christian women as autonomous and agentic It also finds that this patriarchal interpretation both distorts Luke s presentation of the rich and powerful who are shown to receive their authority from the devil and obscures the way in which the love of money corrupts men in his story The moon of leaves, and other poems Aristo (pseud.),1901 Ferragus Honore de Balzac,2020-09-28 Rituals of Islamic Monarchy Andrew Marsham,2009-05-31 This fascinating history explores the ceremony of the oath of allegiance to the caliph from the time of the Prophet Muhammad until the fragmentation of the caliphate in the late ninth and tenth centuries The study of royal rituals of accession and succession in Christian Rome Byzantium and the early Medieval West has generated an extensive literature This has however remained unexplored in scholarship on the Islamic world This book redresses that by examining the ceremonial of accession to the caliphate in early Islam covering the following aspects of the subject The place of ritual in political practice Changes and continuities in that practice The problem of how best to understand accounts of ritual It also offers a contribution to major current debates in Islamic history the development of Arab Muslim identity and the formation of the Islamic state It presents an accessible discussion of royal ritual in early Islam which situates developments in the Islamic world in a late antique and early medieval context adding an important comparative context to the book Calcutta Review ,1897 British India, Its Races and Its History Considered with Reference to the Mutinies of 1857 John Malcolm Forbes Ludlow,1858

Catholics James Mumford, 1808 From Ordinary People to Great Leaders Everette W. Howell, Dr. Siegfried E.

Howell, 2020-11-26 In every period of human history God has scouted for young people of specific character traits whom he will work train and discipline to execute specific leadership functions under His supervision He will patiently check in obscure villages and homes until He finds you and gets your response to be trained in the school of hard knocks Building on the stories of great leaders in the Bible From Ordinary People to Great Leaders is designed to assist you in developing the mindset to grow from ordinary to great God took Moses from Egyptian palace and sent him to sheep school in Midian David went from sheep school to Saul's palace God guided them in their training and preparation and when He saw that they were ready he placed them in leadership positions to develop a fledgling organization into a great nation As someone who is a potential or present leader you must focus on what you and your organization can be the best at doing and focus on what you must do to accomplish your goals The God given wisdom of these leaders can help you get there This guide seeks to help you develop your leadership skills and grow yourself and your organization by using biblical models for contemporary leadership issues Colburn's United Service Magazine and Naval Military Journal, 1877 The Selected Works of Honore de Balzac Honore de Balzac, Servin one of our most distinguished artists was the first to conceive of the idea of opening a studio for young girls who wished to take lessons in painting About forty years of age a man of the purest morals entirely given up to his art he had married from inclination the dowerless daughter of a general At first the mothers of his pupils bought their daughters themselves to the studio then they were satisfied to send them alone after knowing the master's principles and the pains he took to deserve their confidence It was the artist's intention to take no pupils but young ladies belonging to rich families of good position in order to meet with no complaints as to the composition of his classes He even refused to take girls who wished to become artists for to them he would have been obliged to give certain instructions without which no talent could advance in the profession Little by little his prudence and the ability with which he initiated his pupils into his art the certainty each mother felt that her daughter was in company with none but well bred young girls and the fact of the artist's marriage gave him an excellent reputation as a teacher in society When a young girl wished to learn to draw and her mother asked advice of her friends the answer was invariably Send her to Servin's Servin became therefore for feminine art a specialty like Herbault for bonnets Leroy for gowns and Chevet for eatables It was recognized that a young woman who had taken lessons from Servin was capable of judging the paintings of the Musee conclusively of making a striking portrait copying an ancient master or painting a genre picture The artist thus sufficed for the educational needs of the aristocracy But in spite of these relations with the best families in Paris he was independent and patriotic and he maintained among them that easy brilliant half ironical tone and that freedom of judgment which characterize painters He had carried his scrupulous precaution into the arrangements of the locality where his pupils studied The entrance to the attic above his apartments was walled up To reach this retreat as sacred as a harem it was necessary to go up a small spiral staircase made within his own rooms The studio occupying nearly the whole attic floor under the roof presented to the eye those vast proportions which surprise inquirers when after attaining sixty feet above the ground floor they expect to find an artist squeezed into a gutter This gallery so to speak was profusely lighted from above through enormous panes of glass furnished with those green linen shades by means of which all artists arrange the light A quantity of caricatures heads drawn at a stroke either in color or with the point of a knife on walls painted in a dark gray proved that barring a difference in expression the most distinguished young girls have as much fun and folly in their minds as men A small stove with a large pipe which described a fearful zigzag before it reached the upper regions of the roof was the necessary and infallible ornament of the room A shelf ran round the walls on which were models in plaster heterogeneously placed most of them covered with gray dust Here and there above this shelf a head of Niobe hanging to a nail presented her pose of woe a Venus smiled a hand thrust itself forward like that of a pauper asking alms a few ecorches yellowed by smoke looked like limbs snatched over night from a graveyard besides these objects pictures drawings lay figures frames without paintings and paintings without frames gave to this irregular apartment that studio physiognomy which is distinguished for its singular jumble of ornament and bareness poverty and riches care and neglect The vast receptacle of an atelier where all seems small even man has something of the air of an Opera coulisse here lie ancient garments gilded armor fragments of stuffs machinery And yet there is something mysteriously grand like thought in it genius and death are there Diana and Apollo beside a skull or skeleton beauty and destruction poesy and reality colors glowing in the shadows often a whole drama motionless and silent Strange symbol of an artist s head At the moment when this history begins a brilliant July sun was illuminating the studio and two rays striking athwart it lengthwise traced diaphanous gold lines in which the dust was shimmering A dozen easels raised their sharp points like masts in a port Several young girls were animating the scene by the variety of their expressions their attitudes and the differences in their toilets The strong shadows cast by the green serge curtains arranged according to the needs of each easel produced a multitude of contrasts and the piquant effects of light and shade This group was the prettiest of all the pictures in the studio A fair young girl very simply dressed sat at some distance from her companions working bravely and seeming to be in dread of some mishap No one looked at her or spoke to her she was much the prettiest the most modest and apparently the least rich among them Two principal groups distinctly separated from each other showed the presence of two sets or cliques two minds even here in this studio where one might suppose that rank and fortune would be forgotten But however that might be these young girls sitting or standing in the midst of their color boxes playing with their brushes or preparing them handling their dazzling palettes painting laughing talking singing absolutely natural and exhibiting their real selves composed a spectacle unknown to man One of them proud haughty capricious with black hair and beautiful hands was casting the flame of her glance here and there at random another light hearted and gay a smile upon her lips with chestnut hair and delicate white hands was a typical French virgin thoughtless and without hidden thoughts living her natural real life a third was dreamy melancholy pale bending her head like a drooping flower her neighbor on the contrary tall indolent with Asiatic habits long eyes moist and black said but little and reflected glancing covertly at the head of Antinous Among them like the jocosos of a Spanish play full of wit and epigrammatic sallies another girl was watching the rest with a comprehensive glance making them laugh and tossing up her head too lively and arch not to be pretty She appeared to rule the first group of girls who were the daughters of bankers notaries and merchants all rich but aware of the imperceptible though cutting slights which another group belonging to the aristocracy put upon them The latter were led by the daughter of one of the King's ushers a little creature as silly as she was vain proud of being the daughter of a man with an office at court She was a girl who always pretended to understand the remarks of the master at the first word and seemed to do her work as a favor to him She used an eyeglass came very much dressed and always late and entreated her companions to speak low
