Ephrem The Syrian Hymns:

Ephrem the Syrian Saint Ephraem (Syrus),1989 In this volume is a translation of a collection of hymns of Christ composed by Ephrem the Syrian c 306 373 the most famous and prolific of the Fathers of the Syriac speaking Church

Hymns of Saint Ephrem the Syrian Mary Hansbury,2018-08-19 Fairacres Publications 149 St Ephrem the Syrian 306 376 a visionary poet and spiritual teacher of the early Christian centuries is known chiefly as the author of numerous hymns These examples of his Table Blessings recalling the events of salvation history combine lyrical delight in the good and beautiful things of creation with an outpouring of praise and thanksgiving to their Creator Hymns on the Nativity St. Ephrem the Syrian,2019-12-07 Our Righteous Father Ephrem the Syrian was a prolific Syriac language hymn writer and theologian of the 4th century He is venerated by Christians throughout the world but especially among Syriac Christians as a saint His feast day in the Orthodox Church is January 28 The Life and Essential Writings of Ephraim the Syrian Ephraim the Syrian,2011 For the First time in well 100 years this effort has been pains takingly re edited for the modern English reader Saint Ephrem the Syrian was born sometime around the year 306 in Nibisis a Syrian town located in modern day Turkey Fleeing westward from the Persians who were ravaging Turkey Ephrem settled in Edessa in southern Turkey in 363 There he continued to write hymns especially defending the teaching of the Council of Nicea against the Arian heretics who were influential in Edessa He died tending plague victims in 373 Ephrem the Syrian. Hymns Kathleen E. McVey,1999 Ephrem the Syrian's Hymns on the Unleavened Bread Saint Ephraem (Syrus),2012 The fourth century Syriac author Ephrem the Syrian left behind a large corpus of hymns on various topics that provide key insights into a unique Syriac expression of Christianity along the volatile border of the Roman and Persian Empires The set of hymns presented here provides a fascinating study of Syriac Christianity because Ephrem invites the reader into a world of symbolic interpretation filled with imagination brimming beneath the surface of word plays alliteration and typological comparisons These hymns also thrust the reader into the middle of a fourth century context in which Christians and Jews maintain competing practices of a Passover service to the extent that Ephrem feels the need to distinguish between the symbol and the reality P 4 of cover The Poetic Hymns of Saint Ephrem the Syrian Elena Narinskaya,2013 By outlining the writings of Ephrem an early Christian scholar this book describes how humans can understand God through the mystery of the Eucharist It explores Ephrem s Eucharistic theology as it is expressed in his poetic Hymns It aims to look into various definitions of Eucharist that Ephrem offers in his writings Hymns and Homilies of St. Ephraim the Syrian Ephraim the Syrian,Saint Ephraem (Syrus),Paul A. Böer (Sr.),2012-08-25 Born at Nisibis then under Roman rule early in the fourth century died June 373 The name of his father is unknown but he was a pagan and a priest of the goddess Abnil or Abizal His mother was a native of Amid Ephraem was instructed in the Christian mysteries by St James the famous Bishop of Nisibis and was baptized at the age of eighteen or twenty eight Thenceforth he became more intimate with the holy bishop who availed himself of the services of Ephraem to renew the moral life of the citizens of Nisibis especially during the sieges of 338 346 and 350 One of his biographers relates that on a certain occasion he cursed from the city walls the Persian hosts whereupon a cloud of flies and mosquitoes settled on the army of Sapor II and compelled it to withdraw The adventurous campaign of Julian the Apostate which for a time menaced Persia ended as is well known in disaster and his successor Jovianus was only too happy to rescue from annihilation some remnant of the great army which his predecessor had led across the Euphrates To accomplish even so much the emperor had to sign a disadvantageous treaty by the terms of which Rome lost the Eastern provinces conquered at the end of the third century among the cities retroceded to Persia was Nisibis 363 To escape the cruel persecution that was then raging in Persia most of the Christian population abandoned Nisibis en masse Ephraem went with his people and settled first at Beit Garbaya then at Amid finally at Edessa the capital of Osrhoene where he spent the remaining ten years of his life a hermit remarkable for his severe asceticism Nevertheless he took an interest in all matters that closely concerned the population of Edessa Several ancient writers say that he was a deacon as such he could well have been authorized to preach in public At this time some ten heretical sects were active in Edessa Ephraem contended vigorously with all of them notably with the disciples of the illustrious philosopher Bardesanes To this period belongs nearly all his literary work apart from some poems composed at Nisibis the rest of his writings sermons hymns exegetical treatises date from his sojourn at Edessa It is not improbable that he is one of the chief founders of the theological School of the Persians so called because its first students and original masters were Persian Christian refugees of 363 At his death St Ephraem was borne without pomp to the cemetery of the foreigners The Armenian monks of the monastery of St Sergius at Edessa claim to possess his body

The Hymns on Faith Saint Ephraem (Syrus), 2015 Ephrem is known for a theology that relies heavily on symbol and for a keen awareness of Jewish exegetical traditions Yet he is also our earliest source for the reception of Nicaea among Syriac speaking Christians It is in his eighty seven Hymns on Faith the longest extant piece of early Syriac literature that he develops his arguments against subordinationist christologies most fully These hymns most likely delivered orally and compiled after the author's death were composed in Nisibis and Edessa between the 350s and 373 They reveal an author conversant with Christological debates further to the west but responding in a uniquely Syriac idiom As such they form an essential source for reconstructing the development of pro Nicene thought in the eastern Mediterranean

Ephraem the Syrian. 80 Hymns on Faith P. Russell, 2000 Ephraem the Syrian 373 is the brightest light in the Syriac speaking Christian tradition A hymnographer homilist exegete and theologian of great ability his works provide a window into a sphere of early Christianity too little known to modern readers many of which show Ephraem's involvement in the debates stemming from the Arian Controversy contain much of his most fully articulated theological writing Approaching these fundamental topics from a point of view quite different from his Greek and Latin speaking contemporaries Ephraem discusses the nature of God and creation the usefulness and limits of theological language the revelation of God in Scripture and nature as well as providing detailed discussions of questions of Christology collection offers not only an opportunity to hear a new voice from the Christian past but also demonstrates that high level technically adept theological writing can be couched in clear poetic style with much use of imagery and symbols Students of the Middle East will discover much information here about the religious currents active in the region during the Late Antique period references theologically significant Syriac words with all their appearances noted and of topics and themes addressed These are designed to increase the volume s usefulness for teaching especially for students innocent of Syriac

Hymns on the Nativity Ephrem the Syrian, 2015-10-25 Hymns on the Nativity by Saint Ephrem the Syrian Select Metrical Hymns and Homilies of Ephraem Syrus Saint Ephraem (Syrus), 1853 Ephrem the Syrian's Hymns on the Unleavened Bread, 2012 Syriac-English Concordance to Ephrem the Syrian's Hymns on Faith, 2015 Hymns for the Feast of the Epiphany Ephrem the Syrian, 2018-10-04 Ephrem the Syrian was a Syriac Christian deacon and a prolific Syriac language hymnographer and theologian of the fourth century Ephrem is especially beloved in the Syriac Orthodox Church and counted as a Venerable Father in the Eastern Orthodox Church The Sacred Writings of Ephraim the Syrian Ephraim the Syrian, Ephraim the Syrian was a saint who lived in Mesopotamia during the first three quarters of the 4th century A D He is perhaps the most influential of all Syriac authors and his fame as a poet commentator preacher and defender of orthodoxy has spread throughout all branches of the Christian Church This reputation he owes partly to the vast fertility of his pen according to the historian Sozomen he was credited with having written altogether 3 000 000 lines partly to the elegance of his style and a certain measure of poetic inspiration more perhaps to the strength and consistency of his personal character and his ardour in defence of the creed formulated at Nicaea

Hymns on Paradise Saint Ephraem (Syrus), 1990 St Ephrem the Syrian s cycle of fifteen hymns on paradise offers a fine example of Christian poetry in which the author weaves a profound theological synthesis around a particular Biblical narrative Centered on Genesis 2 and 3 he expresses his awareness of the sacramental character of the created world and of the potential of everything in the created world to act as a witness and pointer to the creator God s two witnesses says Ephrem are Nature through man s use of it and Scripture through his reading it In his writing Ephrem posits an inherent link between the material and spiritual worlds St Ephrem s mode of theological discussion is essentially Biblical and Semitic in character He uses types and symbols to express connections or relationships to reveal something that is otherwise hidden particularly expressing meanings between the Old Testament and the New between this world and the heavenly between the New Testament and the sacraments and between the sacraments and the eschaton His theology is not tied to a particular cultural or philosophical background but operates by means of imagery and symbolism basic to all human experience Biblica et Apocrypha, orientalia, ascetica Elizabeth A. Livingstone, 1993 Papers presented at the Eleventh International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 1991 see also Studia Patristica 24 26 27 and 28 The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University. Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers. These range over the whole field both East and West from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers. The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents, dates of events and such like and some unveil new texts. The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends. The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject.

Rhythms of Saint Ephrem the Syrian John Brande Morris, 2006

As a member of the Oxford Movement Morris had a natural fascination with Eastern Christianity. Using his linguistic skills to translate select works of St Ephrem into English he chose those that would create an impact on his fellow Englishmen in the nineteenth century. These works are still treasured by western proponents of Eastern Christianity today.
