For the first time the real story of the life of Robert A Heinlein in the authorized biography Robert A Heinlein 1907 1988 is generally considered the greatest American SF writer of the 20th century A famous and bestselling author in later life he started as a navy man and graduate of Annapolis who was forced to retire because of tuberculosis A socialist politician in the 1930s he became one of the sources of Libertarian politics in the USA in his later years His most famous works include the Future History series stories and novels collected in The Past Through Tomorrow and continued in later novels Starship Troopers Stranger in a Strange Land and The Moon is a Harsh Mistress Given his desire for privacy in the later decades of his life he was both stranger and more interesting than one could ever have known This is the first of two volumes of a major American biography This volume is about Robert A Heinlein s life up to the end of the 1940s and the mid life crisis that changed him forever At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied      Campaigns Inc. Cayce Myers, 2025-06-26 Set against the changing and turbulent politics of California from the 1930s through the 1950s Campaigns Inc Leone Baxter Clem Whitaker and the Invention of Political Consulting examines the life and work of Leone Baxter and her husband Clem Whitaker During this era Baxter and Whitaker invented and refined the field of campaign consulting a form of public relations practice that manages reputation image and communication during a political campaign This book details their work and the development of their successful political consulting firm Campaigns Inc They worked for mainly conservative and Republican clients and it was through this work that Campaigns Inc set the standard for how campaigns would be structured and run through the next century The book begins with an overview of Baxter and Whitaker s core philosophy of communication campaigns and politics Cayce Myers details their early work in California s Central Valley and their first big campaign against Democratic nominee Upton Sinclair who ran for California Governor in 1934 The book then examines Baxter and Whitaker s campaign for the successful 1942 Gubernatorial candidacy of Earl Warren The Warren campaign served as a template for building a campaign around a candidate and not a party Following that election Baxter and Whitaker s work transformed to focus on defeating compulsory health insurance reforms They successfully defeated healthcare reform initiatives by California Governor Earl Warren and later President Harry Truman by shaping public sentiment against the specter of socialized medicine      Going Dirty David Mark, 2007-03-09 Going Dirty is a history of negative campaigning in American politics and an examination of how candidates and political consultants have employed this often controversial technique The book includes case studies on notable races throughout the television era in which new negative campaign strategies were introduced or existing tactics were refined and amplified upon Strategies have included labeling opponents from non traditional political backgrounds as dumb or lightweight an approach that got upended when a veteran actor and rookie candidate named Ronald Reagan won the California governorship in 1966 setting him on a path to the White House The negative tone of campaigns has also been ratcheted up dramatically since the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 Campaign commercials now routinely run pictures of international villains and suggest sometimes overtly at other times more subtly that political opponents are less than resolute in prosecuting the war on terror The book also outlines a series of races in which negative campaigning has backfired because the charges were not credible or the candidate on the attack did not understand the political sentiments of the local electorate they were trying to persuade The effect of newer technologies on negative campaigning is also examined including blogs and Web video in addition to tried and true methods like direct mail     The EPIC Plan for California Upton Sinclair,1934     A People's
