The Unhealthy Truth Robyn O'Brien, Rachel Kranz, 2010-05-11 Robyn O'Brien is not the most likely candidate for an antiestablishment crusade. A Houston native from a conservative family, this MBA and married mother of four was not someone who gave much thought to misguided government agencies and chemicals in our food until the day her youngest daughter had a violent allergic reaction to eggs and everything changed. The Unhealthy Truth is both the story of how one brave woman chose to take on the system and a call to action that shows how each of us can do our part and keep our own families safe. O'Brien turns to accredited research conducted in Europe that confirms the toxicity of America's food supply and traces the relationship between Big Food and Big Money that has ensured that the United States is one of the only developed countries in the world to allow hidden toxins in our food, toxins that can be blamed for the alarming recent increases in allergies, ADHD, cancer, and asthma among our children. Featuring recipes and an action plan for weaning your family off dangerous chemicals, one step at a time, The Unhealthy Truth is a must read for every parent and for every concerned citizen in America today.

Freeing Black Girls Tamara Lomax, 2025-03-07 In Freeing Black Girls, Tamara Lomax offers an insurgent feminist love letter to Black girls, women, mothers, and othermothers. Exploring what it means to mother Black children in the twenty-first century, Lomax shares her journey from her traditionalist Black girlhood to finding the path to revolutionary Black motherhood. Along the way, she shows how all Black people are endangered by white supremacist capitalist heteropatriarchal dominance and emphasizes the power of looking and talking back. Lomax insists on Black feminist ways of living that value and nourish whole persons, sketching a radical dream that will allow Black women and girls to survive America while being able to love themselves, others, and collective Black freedom. Ultimately, Lomax declares that Black women and girls are emphatically not defective, second class, or immanent nurturers; they are sacred and revolutionary beings who deserve to live a life free of predation, patriarchy, misrecognition, misogynoir, and violence.

Chemical-Free Kids Allan Magaziner, Linda Bonvie, Anthony Zolezzi, 2003 Helps parents to protect their children from being exposed to harmful substances by providing information on which foods are devoid of unhealthy additives and how to create a chemical-free home environment.

The Public Assault on America's Children Valerie Polakow, 2000-12 Does our society care about its children? This provocative and in-depth examination of violence in the lives of children uncovers the conditions and social policies that perpetuate violence. In addition, this volume forces us to look at other forms of violence confronting children in families, neighborhoods, and schools: The violence of poverty and homelessness; The violence of environmentally induced childhood diseases; The media and legislative criminalization of children; and The increasing trend towards incarceration of youthful offenders. The pre-eminent contributors to this volume examine these issues from both historical and contemporary public policy perspectives. They address the myths and realities of youth violence and the impact of poverty, race, and gender. Prevailing ideas about punishment and retribution, the role of the state in terms of private or public responsibility, and the developmental needs of the child are all themes that frame the multiple advocacy perspectives presented by these cogent essays Tropical Neurology U.K. Misra,2003-01-01 Tropical neurology refers to those diseases of the nervous system which prevail in between the Tropics of Cancer and Capricorn Developments in speed and ease of travel and globalisation of economy have resulted in large scale migration rendering the boundaries of tropical regions less distinct Resilience Decoded Sujata Kelkar Shetty,2025-08-29 Adolescence has always been turbulent but today s teens face a perfect storm a rewired digital world mounting academic pressures and the lingering effects of a global pandemic Anxiety and depression are soaring and parents are left wondering how do I protect my child This groundbreaking book is your roadmap Blending cutting edge neuroscience real life stories and actionable strategies it reveals how to Harness the Ferrari brain Understand your teen s rapidly developing mind and turn vulnerabilities into strengths Boost resilience daily From sleep to nutrition creativity to digital boundaries master the habits that fortify mental health Navigate social media s pitfalls Learn why screens are the new cigarettes and how to set life saving limits Talk and listen like never before Break through the silence with communication that builds trust not walls Packed with insights from psychologists educators and teens themselves this isn t just a parenting guide it s a lifeline Because resilient teens start with resilient parents Equip yourself Empower them The time to act is now World Epidemics Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2017-11-28 In its expanded second edition this chronology examines the effects of epidemic illness and death on human culture from 2700 bce to 2017 Entries summarize incidents of contagion across the globe including symptoms treatment prevention and demographics as well as biographical information on notable people who identified and battled disease Entries feature citations from personal and public documents along with maps charts comparing types of infection and estimated populations affected by each epidemic Collections of United States Joint Publications Research Service Translations in the Social Sciences Emanating from Communist China United States.
