Religious Authority in the Spanish Renaissance Lu Ann Homza, 2003-05-01 This in depth study of religious tensions in early modern Spain offers a new and enlightening perspective on the era of the Inquisition Traditionally the Spanish Renaissance of the 15th and 16th centuries has been framed as an epic battle of opposites The followers of Erasmus were in constant discord with conservative Catholics while the humanists were diametrically opposed to the scholastics Historian Lu Ann Homza rejects this simplistic view In Religious Authority in the Spanish Renaissance she presents a subtler paradigm recovering the profound nuances in Spanish intellectual and religious history Through analyses of Inquisition trials biblical translations treatises on witchcraft and tracts on the episcopate and penance Homza illuminates the intellectual autonomy and energy of Spain s ecclesiastics

Bucer, Ephesians and Biblical Humanism N. Scott Amos, 2014-10-27 This book describes Martin Bucer 1491 1551 as a teacher of theology focusing on his time as Regius Professor of Divinity at the University of Cambridge between 1549 and 1551 The book is centered on his 1550 Cambridge lectures on Ephesians and investigates them in their historical context exploring what sort of a theologian Bucer was The lectures are examined to find out how they represent Bucer s method of teaching and doing theology and shed light on the relationship between biblical exegesis and theological formulation as he understood it Divided into two interconnected parts the book first sets the historical context for the lectures including a broad sketch of scholastic method in theology and the biblical humanist critique of that method It then closely examines Bucer's practice in the Cambridge lectures to show the extent to which he was a theologian of the biblical humanist school influenced by the method Erasmus set forth in the Ratio Verae Theologiae in which true theology begins ends and is best done as an exercise in the exegesis of the Word of God Lowndes'British Librarian, Or Book-collector's Guide to the Formation of a Library in All Branches of Literature, Science, and Art William Thomas Lowndes,1839 "The" Athenaeum ,1840 Catalogue de la Bibliothèque de Théologie de M.
