reading listening and viewing helping potential listeners cultivate an understanding and appreciation of the jazz art and how it can help in drummer Art Blakey's words wash away the dust of everyday life      Contingent Encounters Dan DiPiero, 2022-08-31 Contingent Encounters offers a sustained comparative study of improvisation as it appears between music and everyday life Drawing on work in musicology cultural studies and critical improvisation studies as well as his own performing experience Dan DiPiero argues that comparing improvisation across domains calls into question how improvisation is typically recognized By comparing the music of Eric Dolphy Norwegian free improvisers Mr K and the Ingrid Laubrock Kris Davis duo with improvised activities in everyday life such as walking baking working and listening DiPiero concludes that improvisation appears as a function of any encounter between subjects objects and environments Bringing contingency into conversation with the utopian strain of critical improvisation studies DiPiero shows how particular social investments cause improvisation to be associated with relative freedom risk taking and unpredictability in both scholarship and public discourse Taking seriously the claim that improvisation is the same thing as living Contingent Encounters overturns long standing assumptions about the aesthetic and political implications of this notoriously slippery term      Jazz
