Eric Ravilious Helen Binyon, 2016-10-25 Eric Ravilious was among the foremost of English artists to emerge between the wars and one of the great original wood engravers His body of work was wide ranging and multi faceted in his relatively short career after he left the Royal College of Art he produced an extraordinary amount of work murals watercolours wood engravings lithographs pottery designs for Wedgwood Successful and enterprising as he was in these diverse fields it was in the field of landscape painting in watercolour that Ravilious excelled His tragic and untimely death in 1942 while on service as an Official War Artist meant that his great promise was never fulfilled and it has been left to Helen Binyon to present this fascinating study of the artist to a world largely unaware of his presence The author knew Ravilious well from their student days and has been able to draw upon her intimate knowledge of this vivid and exciting artist to make this a compelling account of a genius Eric Ravilious is introduced by Richard Morphet former Keeper of Modern Art at the Tate Gallery who places Ravilious in the context of modern day appreciation of his work and describes the close relationship between Eric Ravilious and Helen Binyon which led her to write this illuminating book The book is lavishly illustrated with examples of Ravilious's work from his student days to his powerfully realised drawings and paintings as an Official War Artist

Ravilious & Co. Andy Friend, 2017-07-11 A dynamic tale of art and friendship set between the World Wars against the backdrop of a rapidly changing world Eric Ravilious is one of the best known twentieth century English artists For many his watercolors capture the spirit of midcentury England But while he had a style of his own he did not work in isolation he worked within a network of artists that included fellow students at the Royal College of Art such as Edward Bawden Barnett

Freedman Enid Marx Percy Horton Peggy Angus and Helen Binyon The story of this beloved artist is also a biography of the group of fellow creators with whom he associated men and women who inspired challenged and influenced one another from their student days up through the Second World War Drawing on extensive research Andy Friend considers the predecessors in the English watercolor and wood engraving tradition that influenced the group's art and demonstrates the significance of women artists whose place within this interwar era network has often been neglected Published to coincide with the seventy fifth anniversary of Ravilious's death Ravilious Co accompanies an exhibition of the same name touring throughout England in 2017

No more giants Jessica Kelly, 2023-01-24 Architecture is more than buildings and architects It also involves photographers writers advertisers and broadcasters as well as the people who finance and live in the buildings Using the career of the critic J M Richards as a lens this book takes a new perspective on modern architecture Richards served as editor of The Architectural Review from 1937 to 1971 during which time he consistently argued that modernism was integrally linked to vernacular architecture not through style but through the principle of being an anonymous expression of a time and public spirit Exploring the continuities in Richards's ideas throughout his career disrupts the existing canon of architectural history which has focused on abrupt changes linked to individual pioneers encouraging us to think again about who is studied in architectural history and how they are researched

The Idea of North Peter Davidson, 2005-04-15 While a compass might tell us which direction we are going there is really only one direction to which it ever points north North is the ultimate point of orientation but it is also a celebrated destination for the adventurous the curious the solitary and the foolhardy In this fascinating book updated in this accessible pocket edition Peter Davidson explores the concept of north through its many manifestations in painting legend and literature Arctic bound Davidson takes the reader on a journey from the heart of society to the most far flung outposts of human geography packing in our rucksacks a treasure trove of stories and artworks from the Icelandic Sagas to Nabokov's snowy kingdom of Zembla from Hans Christian Andersen's forbidding Snow Queen to the works of artists such as Eric Ravilious Ian Hamilton Finlay and Andy Goldsworthy He celebrates the different ways our artists and writers have illuminated our relationship with the earth's most dangerous and austere terrain Through Davidson's astonishing but inviting erudition we ultimately come to see north as a permanent goal frozen forever on a horizon we never seem to quite reach
