1933 Germany the fascinating story of Jewish co creation of modern German theatre is less often discussed Yet for a brief time during the Second Reich and the Weimar Republic Jewish artists and intellectuals moved away from a segregated Jewish theatre to work within canonic German theatre and performance venues claiming the right to be part of the very fabric of German culture Their involvement especially in the theatre capital of Berlin was of a major magnitude both numerically and in terms of power and influence The essays in this stimulating collection etch onto the conventional view of modern German theatre the history and conflicts of its Jewish participants in the last third of the nineteenth and first third of the twentieth centuries and illuminate the influence of Jewish ethnicity in the creation of the modernist German theatre The Drama of
