American film world Ida Lupino William Donati,2023-01-31 British born actress singer director and producer Ida Lupino 1918 1995 cut one of the most alluring profiles of any Hollywood persona during the forties and fifties The star of classic films such as They Drive by Night 1940 High Sierra 1941 and Road House 1948 she was a stalwart of the screen throughout her early career and frequently received top billing ahead of stars such as Humphrey Bogart While her talent was undeniable her insistence on taking only roles she felt would challenge her professionally often put her at odds with the demands of studio executives It was in those periods of frustration and suspension as an actor that Lupino fostered a talent for the filmmaking process In a bold decision for a woman of the era she founded her own independent production company where she became widely regarded as one of the most prolific filmmakers working at the height of the Hollywood studio system She has been described by fellow directors such as Martin Scorsese as resilient with a remarkable empathy for the fragile and heartbroken William Donati's Ida Lupino A Biography chronicles the dramatic life of one of Hollywood's most substantive and innovative artists who lived her life unapologetically both behind and in front of the camera Now considered a classic biography of an amazing talent Vanity Fair praised the book as masterful Celebrating 27 years in print this edition has a new cover all new photographs and a poignant preface by the author Errol Flynn; Dr. Herman; F. Three nights in a row he sat at the edge of the bed with a revolver to his head The third night it was in his mouth He Errol Flynn had power fame money women yet it was all an empty victory He had been destroyed by the rape trial That which I had my big house my yacht my bank account seemed hollow None of these could take the place of self respect which I had lost He would write in his autobiography Inside I was smarting terribly wounded from the scar of the rape trial He had other aspirations for his life than becoming a phallic symbol Everyone thought they knew Errol Flynn but they didn't He was a complicated man who camouflaged his true self from the outside world and only through some of his own writing could one glean the type of person he really was and what he had hoped to be No one could enter with aplomb and grace like him who clicked his heels in salute like him who was the greatest swashbuckler like him a terrific horseman who held his sword and lance as if they were part of him no one could be as great a leader like him tall handsome dashing whose voice eyes and mannerisms would make ladies fall in love with him and men follow him to the end of the earth The Adventures of Robin Hood The Charge of the Light Brigade The Sea Hawk They Died with Their Boots On and Objective Burma are some of the finest films ever made and undoubtedly no one has been able to replace him He was a natural actor who lived his roles and his characters but who aspired to be a writer and war correspondent He was a man marred by an ugly childhood of neglect and abandonment who rose out of sheer fortitude of his character to become one of the great stars of the golden age This book is a probing and extensively researched attempt to explore the people events and factors that made Errol Flynn who he was It is an analysis of his triumph his tortured inner self and his ultimate downfall There is in addition a complete filmography with historical background
