Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom

The Escape of William and Ellen Craft From Slavery is a poignant anthology that captures the complex narratives of resilience, ingenuity, and agency within the thematic landscape of antebellum America. Through a variety of literary styles ranging from harrowing personal narratives to impassioned abolitionist essays, the collection thrusts readers into the tumultuous journey toward emancipation that characterized the pre-Civil War era. The standout pieces within this compilation draw upon the vivid and visceral experiences of the Crafts, offering a multifaceted exploration of their daring escape and the broader cultural implications it portended. The collection is framed by the voices of Ellen and William Craft, whose backgrounds as former enslaved individuals are integral to their narrative's authenticity and power. Their courageous and insightful testimonies seamlessly align with the broader abolitionist movement, providing invaluable perspectives on 19th-century efforts to dismantle the institution of slavery. The anthology enriches the thematic tapestry by weaving together the personal and the political, underscoring the diverse and often perilous outreach efforts of those who fought for freedom in one of America's darkest periods. This anthology offers a unique opportunity for readers to immerse themselves in a convergence of voices articulating the struggle for freedom and equality. It stands as an essential educational tool, providing unparalleled insights into the lived experiences and powerful awakenings of both the Crafts and their contemporaries. In exploring such diverse narratives, readers engage in a profound dialogue that fosters a deeper appreciation for historical courage and the enduring quest for justice. Whether for academic purposes or personal interest, this collection is an indispensable addition to the literature on slavery and resistance.

Running A Thousand Miles For Freedom

Incredible Escape of William Ellen Craft from Slavery is a remarkable anthology that explores the harrowing and courageous journey of escaping the shackles of slavery through its compelling narrative. The collection navigates an array of literary styles from intense, vivid recounts of the perils faced by the Crafts to deeply reflective prose that examines the broader implications of freedom and identity. The anthology transcends mere historical documentation, exploring themes of bravery, resilience, and the unyielding pursuit of liberty. This work stands as a testament to the power of storytelling in confronting and chronicling the darkest aspects of human history. At the heart of this anthology are Ellen and William Craft, whose collaboration offers a rich, deeply personal perspective on the horrors of slavery and the indomitable human spirit required to triumph over such adversity. As part of the greater abolitionist movement of the 19th century, the Crafts' narrative is steeped in historical significance Their story enriched by diverse voices within their accounts invites a multifaceted examination of the socio political conditions surrounding their escape and the broader struggle for abolition This collection offers readers an invaluable opportunity to immerse themselves in an authentic and affecting account of history Engaging with this anthology not only provides an educational experience but it also invites reflection on themes that continue to resonate today It is a dialogue between past and present where each entry fortifies the complex narrative of freedom with its unique voice The diverse perspectives included make it a crucial addition for anyone seeking to understand the myriad dimensions of such poignant historical journeys

Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom; or, the Escape of William and Ellen Craft from slavery. [With a portrait of Ellen Craft.] William CRAFT,1860

Running A Thousand Miles For Freedom - Incredible Escape of William & Ellen Craft from Slavery William Craft, Ellen Craft, 2017-02-09 This carefully crafted ebook Running A Thousand Miles For Freedom Incredible Escape of William and Ellen Craft is a fact that the villains to whom those defenceless creatures are sent not only flog them as they are ordered but frequently compel them to submit to the greatest indignity William Craft 1824 1900 and Ellen Craft 1826 1891 were slaves from Macon Georgia in the United States who escaped to the North in December 1848 Their daring escape was widely publicized making them among the most famous of fugitive slaves in America But due to the controversial Fugitive Slave Act of 1850 they had to immigrate to Britain for safety where they continued to garner support for the abolishment of slavery

Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom William Craft, 1999-01-01 Husband and wife William and Ellen Craft's break from slavery in 1848 was perhaps the most extraordinary in American history Numerous newspaper reports in the United States and abroad told of how the two fair skinned Ellen disguised as a white slave master and William posing as her servant negotiated heart pounding brushes with discovery while fleeing Macon Georgia for Philadelphia and eventually Boston No account though conveyed the ingenuity daring good fortune and love that characterized their flight for freedom better than the couple's own version published in 1860 a remarkable authorial accomplishment only twelve years beyond illiteracy Now their stirring first person narrative and Richard Blackett's excellent interpretive pieces are brought together in one volume to tell the complete story of the Crafts

Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom UNKNOWN. AUTHOR,2015-07-19 Excerpt from Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom Or the Escape of William and Ellen Craft From Slavery But in December 1848 a plan suggested itself that proved quite successful and in eight days after it was first thought of we were free from the horrible trammels of slavery rejoicing and praising God in the glorious sunshine of liberty My wife s first master was her father and her mother his slave and the latter is still the Slave of his widow About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom William Craft, Ellen Craft, 2013-11 Having heard while in Slavery that God made of one blood all nations of men and also that the American Declaration of Independence says that We hold these truths to be self evident that all men are created equal that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights that among these are life liberty and the pursuit of happiness we could not understand by what right we were held as chattels Therefore we felt perfectly justified in undertaking the dangerous and exciting task of running a thousand miles in order to obtain those rights which are so vividly set forth in the Declaration I beg those who would know the particulars of our journey to peruse these pages This book is not intended as a full history of the life of my wife nor of myself but merely as an account of our escape together with other matter which I hope may be the means of creating in some minds a deeper abhorrence of the sinful and abominable practice of enslaving and brutifying our fellow creatures
