Wolaitta Evangelists E. Paul Balisky,2009-09-01 This study presents the religious dynamics of the Wolaitta Kale Heywet Church in southern Ethiopia from 1937 to 1975 On the basis of detailed research from within southern Ethiopia E Paul Balisky demonstrates that the indigenous extension of the Wolaitta Christian movement into southern Ethiopia through the instrumentality of her evangelists helped Wolaitta regain her own religious center and subsequent identity after centuries of various forms of colonialism and imperialism Wolaitta Evangelists broadens one s understanding of how an imported model of Christianity provided religious answers to the ideals of a particular Ethiopian society and continues to motivate her members to evangelize The evangelists who went to people of similar culture and worldview were successful in effecting social change To ethnic groups who had moved beyond their former primal religions and to those of disparate culture the evangelists were those who scattered the seed and impacted the religious social economic and political life of southern Ethiopia Wolaitta Evangelists tells the story of how missionary activity played a role in Wolaitta once again becoming a people Ethiopian Orthodox Christianity in a Global Context ,2022-02-28 Ethiopian Orthodox Christianity constitutes an exceptional religious tradition flourishing in sub Saharan Africa already since late antiquity The volume places Ethiopian Orthodoxy into a global context and explores the various ways in which it has been interconnected with the wider Christian world from the Aksumite period until today By highlighting the formative role of both wide ranging translocal religious interactions as well as disruptions thereof the contributors challenge the perception of this African Christian tradition as being largely isolated in the course of its history Ethiopian Orthodox Christianity in a Global Context Entanglements and Disconnections offers a new perspective on the Horn of Africa's Christian past and reclaims its place on the map of global Christianity

Leadership Formation in the African Context Samuel Deressa, 2022-03-25 The teachings of Christian leadership have been dominated by a focus on the influence of a leader on its followers Samuel Deressa's new book Leadership Formation in the African Context highlights how an African concept of community and holistic approach to ministry provides a biblically sound approach to understanding leadership formation and practice in this new age This book links the issue of missional leadership with the life of the congregation It provides theological and practical insights into how we can understand leadership formation in contexts where churches are engaged in the Missio Dei as a community of believers

Cost of Revolution and Military Dictatorship in Ethiopia Etana Habte Dinka, 2012-03-19 This book is concerned with societal experience in Ethiopia following the 1974 revolution that had lost its target because of military intervention in Ethiopian politics It analyzes developments during the military regime often known as the Darg among the Macca Oromo of Wallagga 1974-1991 Although it emphasizes only one of the many provinces of what is today Oromia it clearly exhibited the policy preferred regarding the Oromo to be followed by the military regime The work places its analyses in the context of the wider Ethiopian scene It is mainly an attempt to contribute to the Oromo study under suppression

A Church for the World Samuel Yonas Deressa, Josh de Keijzer, 2020-08-20 A Church for the World The Church's Role in Fostering Democracy and Sustainable Development challenges theologians and lay readers alike to think about the role of the church vis-à-vis its responsibility to the world How may the church contribute to democracy and foster sustainable development Contributors from mostly non-Western theological communities offer historical developmental ecclesiastical and theological perspectives on the church-world relationship challenging misconceptions and practices that prevent the church from living up to its transformational vocation as salt and light in the world Matt 5:13-16 The driving force behind the questions and perspectives discussed here is Gustavo Gutierrez's axiom in A Theology of Liberation A theology which fails to address the most urgent needs of ordinary people is not worthy of the word theology Proceeding from this insight this book creates awareness about the relationship between religion, democracy and development and aims to strengthen the self-understanding of the church with regard to its responsibilities in the world

The Political Economy of an African Society in Transformation: the Case of Macca Oromo (Ethiopia) Tesema Ta'a, 2006 The official historiography of the Ethiopian Empire as well as the majority of the publications on Ethiopian history by European authors used to view the country as a single cultural whole and to deal only with the history of the Christian empire The different historical experiences of the Ethiopian multiethnic society and culture used to be usually ignored In contrast to such one sided approach this book deals with the Macca Oromo activities social transformation and historical experiences in the western part of Central Ethiopia focusing on the political economy of the region The sources for the book include 1 written documents in Ethiopian languages Amharic and Ge'ez e g archival materials 2 reports by European travellers and missionaries 3 recent secondary literature and 4 traditions and oral history collected mainly in Wallagga in 1972 73 and 1979 80 In that region the Macca states had played an important political and economical role until they were subjugated by the order of Menelik II and incorporated into the Ethiopian Empire at the end of the 19th century Tesema Ta'a belongs to the first generation of the Ethiopian historiographers who graduated from Addis Ababa University in the seventies and later formed the teaching staff of the History department in Addis Ababa

Guardians of the Tradition James De Lorenzi, 2015 Ethiopia and Eritrea are home to Africa's oldest written historical tradition which began in the third century with the monuments and manuscripts of Aksum and has continued to the present day This study explores the development of this rich tradition focusing in particular on the dramatic lives and original thought of a group of early twentieth century Ethiopian and Eritrean historians James De Lorenzi examines how these scholars used historiography to not only record the past but also grapple with the changes of the modern era Through their history writings they made provocative political claims explored the nature of their communal ties assessed their inherited institutions and ideas and critically evaluated the people and cultures of the wider world Opposing the view that historiography is a uniquely Western intellectual pursuit Guardians of the Tradition provides new evidence of an African historical consciousness and the vibrancy of history writing outside the West James De Lorenzi is associate professor of history at John Jay College City University of New York

Europäisches und Globales Christentum / European and Global Christianity Katharina Kunter, Jens Holger Schjørring, 2011-10-06 The historical study of Protestantism is often limited to internal or national discussions Yet a broader international look means also studying the major upheavals that occurred throughout the world such as wars and globalisation This volume first reviews the history of the church in the 20th century from an international and interdisciplinary vantage point and takes a look at the most important themes and conflicts that marked that often tension filled time among others the two world wars globalisation the broad number of continuities and discontinuities the influence of the 1960s on social life and the debate on the role of gender in the history of Christianity With contributions by H Lehmann H McLeod A V T nnessen U stergaard M Greschat N Hope M Tomka H Oelke K J Hummel D Thorkildsen K Koschorke K Ward E Gebremedhin and V Mortensen

European Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Ulrich Berner, Christoph Bochsinger, 2004 This volume comprises case studies of five centuries of European encounters with and imaginations of Africa encompassing her triple religious heritage African Traditional Religions Christianity and Islam The introductory chapters outline the challenges and present overviews some of them also analyze the early accounts of European travelers and missionaries The following contributions examine the lasting legacy of the European Enlightenment in employing an ambivalent language of human equality and universalism while in actual fact consigning Africa to an inferior position. It has been difficult for western scholars to divorce themselves wholly from the perceptions thus established. However, there have been quite different approaches. This is indicated in the papers discussing the role and impact of influential European academics, scholars of religion, theologians, historians, and social scientists during the colonial and postcolonial period. Other contributions examine specific institutional centers of African religious studies in Europe. The concluding chapters critically assess European approaches and their use for the study of religion in Africa from an African perspective.

Unmuted Usha Reifsnider, 2024-12-12. Proverbs 31:8 challenges God's people to "Open your mouth for those with no voice for the cause of all the dispossessed." In Unmuted, Usha Reifsnider makes use of muted group theory to help church leaders and theologians understand the real challenges of identity, intersectionality, and the myriad ways of being human in God's world. Drawing together powerful testimonies from disciples of Jesus from around the world, Usha Reifsnider brings theological reflection and biblical insight to the contested question of multifaceted identities. As a convert from a Hindu background and married to an American, she is well placed to do so. Unmuted ends with a powerful statement about the future of evangelicalism in a clarion cry to the West to listen again to the voices of global church and join in with what God is doing.

Why We Sing: Music, Word, and Liturgy in Early Christianity, 2022-11-14. Open Access for this publication was made possible by a generous donation from Segelberg'ska stiftelsen för liturgivetenskaplig forskning. The Segelberg'ska Foundation for Research in Liturgical Studies. In a seminal study, Curcantur Anders Ekenberg examined Carolingian sources for explanations of why the liturgy was sung rather than spoken. This multidisciplinary volume takes up Ekenberg's question anew, investigating the interplay of New Testament writings, sacred spaces, biblical interpretation, and reception history of liturgical practices and traditions. Analyses of Greek, Latin, Coptic, Arabic, and Ge'ez sources, as well as of archaeological and epigraphic evidence, illuminate an array of topics, including recent trends in liturgical studies, manuscript variants, and liturgical praxis. Ignatius of Antioch's choral metaphor, baptism in ancient Christian apocrypha, and the significance of late ancient altar veils.

Hiob Ludolf and Johann Michael Wansleben, 2023-12-11. Hiob Ludolf 1624-1704 and Johann Michael Wansleben 1635-1679: the master and his erstwhile student could not be more different. Ludolf was a celebrated member of the Republic of Letters and the towering authority on Ethiopian studies. Wansleben himself a brilliant scholar and, unlike Ludolf, a seasoned traveller in the Middle East, converted to Catholicism and eventually died impoverished and marginalized. Both stood at the centre of the burgeoning study of Ethiopia and spent a formative part of their career in middle-sized Duchy of Saxe-Gotha, which for several years played a pivotal role in Ethiopian-European encounters. This volume offers in-depth studies of the remarkable life and work of these two scholars in a broader intellectual, political, and confessional context.

Overcomers Kay Bascom, 2018-10-12. Overcomers bears witness in a time of discrimination and persecution to how God delivers His people. Both from leaders under severe pressure and from ordinary believers caught in the vortex of Marxist re education and cultural upheaval these testimonies primarily from the Kale Heywet Church community recount experiences during the Ethiopian Revolution 1974 1991      Beyond the Forestline Marja-Liisa Swantz,2002
