Epics Of Everest:

The Epic of Mount Everest Francis Edward Younghusband, 2020-08-06 This vintage book contains Francis Younghusband's 1926 account of a mountaineering expedition to the peak of Mount Everest. This fascinating and insightful volume is highly recommended for climbing enthusiasts and constitutes a must have for collectors of antiquarian literature of this ilk. Lieutenant Colonel Sir Francis Edward Younghusband 1863-1942 was an officer in the British Army as well as an explorer and author. He is most famous for his writings on Asia and foreign policy. Many old works such as this are increasingly scarce and expensive and it is with this in mind that we are republishing this book now in an affordable modern high quality edition. It comes complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author. The Epics of Everest Leonard Wibberley, 1964

The Epic of Mount Everest Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 2000 The Epic of Mount Everest Francis Younghusband, 2024-01-29 The Epic of Mount Everest first published in 1926 is the exciting story of the first attempts to reach the summit of Mount Everest including that of George Mallory and Andrew Irvine who disappeared and died in the 1924 expedition. Considered must reading for mountaineers, The Epic of Mount Everest provides a fascinating insight into the men, methods and struggles of early mountain climbers. Included are 15 pages of illustrations and 2 maps. Sir Francis Edward Younghusband 1863-1942 was an officer in the British Army as well as an explorer and author. He is most noted for his writings on Asia and foreign policy. Epics on Everest Clint Willis, 2003-04-21 It's been a half century since Edmund Hillary and Sherpa Tenzing made the first ascent of Everest. Their success capped a thirty year struggle that cost more than a dozen lives and touched off a new era in the history of the mountain. The past fifty years have seen Everest become an even greater magnet for adventurers both foolish and heroic. Some of the world's best climbers have carved out incredibly dangerous new routes on the peak and many have died trying. Meanwhile hundreds of nonclimbers have taken on Everest with mixed results. This history has created an entire literature in itself: a story of triumph and tragedy of epic proportions. Whether it's Peter Boardman on being forced to leave a friend to die near the summit, Stephen Venables on spending a night out near the summit, an experience only a handful of men have survived, or Chris Bonington on the death of Boardman and Joe Tasker on the Northeast Ridge, almost every great climbing writer has tackled some aspect of the mountain. And Epics on Everest includes their best work. The Epics of Everest ... Illustrated by Genevieve Vaughan-Jackson. Leonard Wibberley, 1954

Everest 1922 Mick Conefrey, 2022-05-31 The dramatic and inspiring account of the very first attempt to climb Mount Everest published to coincide with the centenary of the expedition of 1922. The first attempt on Everest in 1922 by George Leigh Mallory and a British team is an extraordinary story full of controversy, drama and incident, populated by a set of larger than life characters straight out of an adventure novel. The expedition ended in tragedy when on their third bid for the top Mallory's party was hit by an avalanche that left seven men dead. Using diaries, letters and unpublished accounts, Mick Conefrey creates a rich character driven narrative that explores the motivations and private dramas of the key individuals detailing their backroom politics and bitter rivalries who masterminded this epic adventure     The Epic of Mount Everest Francis Younghusband, Sir Francis Edward Younghusband, 2000 Francis Younghusband was the first chairman of the Mount Everest Committee of the Royal Geographical Society This is his account of the three separate expeditions to Mount Everest in 1921 1922 and 1924 the expedition in which Mallory and Irving lost their lives     Mountaineering Literature Jill Neate, 1986 Long established as a standard reference work worldwide this is a thorough bibliography of all mountaineering books that are of practical use to climbers or for reading pleasure or historical interest Documenting more than 2000 books of mountaineering literature it also includes nearly 900 climber s guidebooks a sampling of more than 400 works of mountaineering fiction plus journals and bibliographies     Nomadic Cinema Alison Griffiths, 2025-04-15 From In Borneo the Land of the Head Hunters to The Epic of Everest to Camping Among the Indians the early twentieth century was the heyday of expedition filmmaking As new technologies transformed global transportation and opened new avenues for documentation and as imperialism and capitalism expanded their reach Western filmmakers embarked on journeys to places they saw as exotic seeking to capture both the monumental and the mundane Their films portrayed far flung locales the hardships of travel and the day to day lives of Indigenous people through a deeply colonial lens Nomadic Cinema is a groundbreaking history of these films analyzing them as visual records of colonialism that also offer new possibilities for recognizing Indigenous histories Alison Griffiths examines expedition films made in Borneo Central Asia Tibet Polynesia and the American Southwest reinterpreting them from decolonial perspectives to provide alternative accounts of exploration She considers the individuals and institutions including the American Museum of Natural History responsible for creating the films the spectators who sought them out and the Indigenous intermediaries whose roles white explorers minimized Ambitious and interdisciplinary Nomadic Cinema ranges widely from the roots of expedition films in medieval cartography and travel writing to still emerging technologies of virtual and augmented reality Highlighting the material conditions of filmmaking and the environmental footprint left by exploration this book recovers Indigenous memory and sovereignty from within long buried sources     The Epic of Everest Eugene Goossens, Frederick Laurence, 1925*
