Episcopal Visitations In Bedfordshire 1706 17:

The Clerical Profession in the Long Eighteenth Century, 1680-1840 W. M. Jacob, 2007-09-06 W M Jacob examines the concept of profession during the later Stuart and Georgian period with special reference to the clergy of the Church of England He describes their social backgrounds how they were recruited selected and educated and obtained jobs how they were paid and their lifestyles and family life as well as examining the evidence for what they did as leaders of worship pastors and teachers how their parishioners responded to them and how they were supervised Jacob concludes that contrary to popular views the clerical profession was much better organized educated and supervised than the medical and legal professions during this period During the age of reform from the 1780s to the 1830s all the professions were criticized Jacob suggests that the modest regulation and professional training introduced in the other learned professions in the 1830s only slowly brought them to the standard already achieved by the clerical profession The Post-Reformation John Spurr, 2014-06-11 The 17th century was a dynamic period characterized by huge political and social changes including the Civil War the execution of Charles I the Commonwealth and the Restoration The Britain of 1714 was recognizably more modern than it was in 1603 At the heart of these changes was religion and the search for an acceptable religious settlement which stimulated the Pilgrim Fathers to leave to settle America the Popish plot and the Glorious Revolution in which James II was kicked off the throne This book looks at both the private aspects of human beliefs and practices and also institutional religion investigating the growing competition between rival versions of Christianity and the growing expectation that individuals should be allowed to worship as they saw fit The Publications of the Bedfordshire Historical Record Society, 1925 Reformation without end Robert G. Ingram, 2018-03-27 This study provides a radical reassessment of the English Reformation No one in eighteenth century England thought that they were living during the Enlightenment instead they saw themselves as facing the religious intellectual and political problems unleashed by the Reformation which began in the sixteenth century Moreover they faced those problems in the aftermath of two bloody seventeenth century political and religious revolutions This book examines how the eighteenth century English debated the causes and consequences of those revolutions and the thing they thought had caused them the Reformation It draws on a wide array of manuscript sources to show how authors crafted and pitched their works Episcopal Visitations in Bedfordshire, 1706-1720 Bedfordshire Historical Record Society, 2002 Responses to the bishop's questionnaire reveal cross section of parish life Publications of the Bedfordshire Historical Record Society, 1924 The Welsh Church from Reformation to Disestablishment, 1603-1920 Glanmor Williams, 2007 A comprehensive study of the religious establishment in Wales and its impact on Welsh society Sir Glanmore Williams The Welsh Church from Reformation to Disestablishment 1603 1920 is an important contribution to the study of Welsh history and its relation to the history of Britain as a whole Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History, 2002 Bedfordshire Churches in the Nineteenth Century Bedfordshire Historical Record

"Seditious Sectaries" Larry J. Kreitzer,2008-12-01 This book offers the first in depth study of the origins of the Baptist Church in Oxford in the seventeenth century it charts the people the places and the events that helped forge the Baptists into a dissenting congregation over a fifty year period 1641 1691 It chronicles the rise of Baptist conventiclers during the early days of the Civil War when Parliamentarians clashed with Royalist interests in the city of Oxford It proceeds to discuss the significance of the Dissenters during the years of the Commonwealth and Protectorate and the struggle they faced during the Restoration period as a resurgent Church of England sought to stamp its authority on all such seditious sectaries The story is told of a committed group of religious Dissenters made up mainly of local townspeople who were fully integrated into the civic life of Oxford seeking to make their vision of God s kingdom a reality in the world in which they lived An influential tanner a dedicated glover a disaffected and outcast soldier a well connected cider maker and a controversial haberdasher who went on to become Mayor of Oxford all make their appearance here Although the study is essentially biographical in nature it drives the reader back inexorably to primary source materials many of them identified and discussed here for the first time Transactions of the Royal Historical Society Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1940 'Seditious Sectaries': People and places Larry Joseph Kreitzer,2006 Catalog of Printed Books of the Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, D.C. Folger Shakespeare Library,1970 Hospitals ,1949 Includes Hospital news of the month
