the things which happened to me have fully turned out for the furtherance of the gospel.

13 so that I have become weak in every way, and yet I have learned to be content in every situation.

14 For I have learned to be content in every situation, whether I am in need or whether I am in abundance, whether I am hungry or whether I am full, whether I am cold or whether I am warm.

15 For I have learned to be content in every situation, because I have learned to be content in every situation.

16 For I have learned to be content in every
situation, because I have learned to be
content in every situation.

17 For I have learned to be content in every
situation, because I have learned to be content in every situation.
