Equity In Health Services:

Health Care: Can There be Equity? Odin Waldemar Anderson, 1972 Comparison of health service and health insurance systems in the USA Sweden and the UK covers administrative aspects social policies the respective roles of the private sector and the public sector in the financing of services etc analyses the ratio of physicians nurses dentists etc To the population and develops a model of the elements and performance indicators of a modern health service and compares it to the systems of these three countries Bibliography pp 249 to 264 references and statistical tables Toward Health Equity and Patient-Centeredness Institute of Medicine, Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice, Board on Health Care Services, Roundtable on Health Literacy, Roundtable on Health Disparities, Forum on the Science of Health Care Quality Improvement and Implementation, 2009-02-25 To receive the greatest value for health care it is important to focus on issues of quality and disparity and the ability of individuals to make appropriate decisions based on basic health knowledge and services The Forum on the Science of Health Care Quality Improvement and Implementation the Roundtable on Health Disparities and the Roundtable on Health Literacy jointly convened the workshop Toward Health Equity and Patient Centeredness Integrating Health Literacy Disparities Reduction and Quality Improvement to address these concerns During this workshop speakers and participants explored how equity in care delivered and a focus on patients could be improved

Equity in Health Services Ronald Andersen, Joanna Kravits, Odin Waldemar Anderson, 1975 In Search of Equity Ronald Bayer, 2012-12-06 I Several years ago when the Carter administration announced that it would support congressional action to end the public funding of abortions the President was asked at a press conference whether he thought that such a policy was unfair he responded Life is unfair His remarks provoked a storm of controversy For other than those who for principled reasons opposed abortion on any grounds it seemed that the President's comments were cruel violating what was thought to be an American commitment to providing equal access to health services to all citizens regardless of their capacity to pay Those sentiments had in fact been reflected in public opinion polls that had for at least three decades indicated that Americans supported the proposition that the government should guarantee health care to all Ultimately those beliefs had been translated into the oft expressed political demand for a one class system of health care This commitment to equality is rather remarkable American society evidences a striking willingness to tolerate vast inequalities with regard to income and wealth While it guarantees education to all children there is not even a pretense that the children of the wealthy and the children of the poor ought to get precisely the same kind of schooling While some commitment Hazel Erskine The Polls Health Insurance Public Opinion Quarterly XXXIX Spring 1975 128 143 People Living with Disabilities National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Health and Medicine Division, Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice, Roundtable on Health Literacy, Roundtable on the Promotion of Health Equity, 2018-09-20 Poor health literacy has many negative consequences for achieving the quadruple aim of better care improving the health of the community and the population providing affordable care and improving the work life of health care providers and those consequences disproportionately affect those individuals with disabilities and those who experience health disparities To better understand how health literacy health equity and health disparities intersect for individuals living with disabilities the Roundtable on the Promotion of Health Equity and the Elimination of Health Disparities and the Roundtable on Health Literacy jointly sponsored a workshop that was held on June 14 2016 in Washington DC This publication summarizes the presentations and discussions from the workshop

Why Are Health Disparities Everyone's Problem? Lisa Cooper, 2021-06-29 How can we all work together to eliminate the avoidable injustices that plague our health care system and society Health is determined by far more than a person's choices and behaviors Social and political conditions economic forces physical environments institutional policies health care system features social relationships risk behaviors and genetic predispositions all contribute to physical and mental well being In America and around the world many of these factors are derived from a lingering history of unequal opportunities and unjust treatment for people of color and other vulnerable communities But they aren't the only ones who suffer because of these disparities everyone is impacted by the factors that degrade health for the least advantaged among us In Why Are Health Disparities Everyone's Problem Dr Lisa Cooper shows how we can work together to eliminate the injustices that plague our health care system and society The book follows Cooper's journey from her childhood in Liberia West Africa to her thirty year career working first as a clinician and then as a health equity researcher at Johns Hopkins University Drawing on her experiences it explores how differences in communication and the quality of relationships affect health outcomes Through her work as the founder and director of the Johns Hopkins Center for Health Equity it details the actions and policies needed to reduce and eliminate the conditions that are harming us all Cooper reveals with compelling detail how health disparities are crippling our health care system and society driving up health care costs leading to adverse health outcomes and ultimately an enormous burden of human suffering

Why Are Health Disparities Everyone's Problem demonstrates the ways in which everyone's health is interconnected both within communities and across the globe Cooper calls for a new kind of herd immunity when a sufficiently high proportion of people across race and social class become immune to harmful social conditions through vaccination with solidarity among groups and opportunities created by institutional and societal practices and policies By acknowledging and acting upon that interconnectedness she believes everyone can help to create a healthier world
