Equity Environment Efficiency Ethics And Economics In Urban Australia:

Equity, Environment, Efficiency Patrick Nicol Troy, 2000 The book offers a timely re evaluation of the connection between ethics and economics It argues that efficiency is not an end in itself but rather a means to socially desirable ends It is essential reading for all those involved in policy development housing markets environment groups planning and housing departments and local authorities

Reconstructing Urban Economics Franklin Obeng-Odoom, 2016-08-15 Neoclassical economics the intellectual bedrock of modern capitalism faces growing criticisms as many of its key assumptions and policy prescriptions are systematically challenged Yet there remains one field of economics where these limitations continue virtually unchallenged the study of cities and regions in built environment economics In this book Franklin Obeng Odoom draws on institutional Georgist and Marxist economics to clearly but comprehensively show what the key issues are today in thinking about urban economics In doing so he demonstrates the widespread tensions and contradictions in the status quo showing how to reconstruct urban economics in order to create a more just society and environment

Australian Urban Policy Robert Freestone, Bill Randolph, Wendy Steele, 2024-03-19 Urban Australia confronts numerous challenges in the 21st century climate change housing transport greenspace social inequality and governance among them While state and local governments wrestle with these issues they are continent wide and require national leadership direction and participation As a highly urbanised country without a national approach to urban policy Australia is an outlier Contributors to this book argue that this policy gap needs to be addressed They ask How have productive sustainable and liveable cities so far been enhanced Where have aspirations fallen short or produced negative outcomes And what approaches are emerging to challenge existing and devise new urban policy settings In the face of ongoing crises and escalating change the need for policy to quickly transform urban Australia is daunting Problems wicked in their complexity require innovative ethical solutions This book offers new ideas that challenge policy orthodoxy

Governance for Pro-Poor Urban Development Franklin Obeng-Odoom, 2013-07-18 The world development institutions commonly present urban governance as an antidote to the so called urbanisation of poverty and parasitic urbanism in Africa Governance for Pro Poor Urban Development is a comprehensive and systematic analysis of the meaning nature and effects of urban governance in theory and in practice with a focus on Ghana a country widely regarded as an island of good governance in the sub region The book illustrates how diverse groups experience urban governance differently and contextualizes how this experience has worsened social differentiation in cities This book will be of great interest to students teachers and researchers in development studies and highly relevant to anyone with an interest in urban studies geography political economy sociology and African studies

Steering Sustainability in an Urbanising World Anitra Nelson, 2016-04-01 Sustainability has become the key challenge for urban planners housing and infrastructure policy makers Citizens are increasingly encouraged to live more compactly in denser urban developments to use less water and other natural resources and to choose public transport While councils government agencies and private business invest in a broad range of promotions offering discounts on sustainable products and services uptake has been slow and the impacts marginal at a time when environmental stresses suggest that we must act fast This book examines this pressing problem in a holistic way discussing broad scale sustainability policies and programmes for achieving sustainable urban futures It brings together academics and practitioners to analyze the complexity and interdependence of principles models processes and practices of sustainability in a range of integrated sectors as well as the establishment and maintenance of sustainable physical infrastructure in cities Urban Nation Robert

Freestone,2010-04-01 Urban Nation Australia s Planning Heritage provides the first national survey of the historical impact of urban planning and design on the Australian landscape This ambitious account looks at every state and territory from the earliest days of European settlement to the present day It identifies and documents hundreds of places parks public spaces redeveloped precincts neighbourhoods suburbs up to whole towns that contribute to the distinctive character of urban and suburban Australia It sets these significant planned landscapes within the broader context of both international design trends and Australian efforts at nation and city building Dialectics of Space and Place across Virtual and Corporeal

Topographies June Jordaan,Carl Haddrell,Christine Alegria,2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Dialectics of Space and Place across Virtual and Corporeal Topographies explores the inter and multi disciplinary subjects of space and place in two parts Part 1 Virtual topographies of Space and Place is concerned with themes related to immaterial places and Part II Corporeal Topographies of Space and Place explores narratives of real and imagined experiences of places This volume underpinned by an array of philosophical positions provides a foundation for new and critical dialogues on space and place Contemporary Issues in Gerontology Victor Minichiello,Irene Coulson,2005

Written by leading international experts this book helps students and practitioners to better understand and cater for the needs of our ageing population It examines how services can be provided to meet the expectations and needs of a growing population of ageing citizens within a cost effective social justice and positive ageing framework how resources allocated to aged care can be distributed equitably to better meet the demands associated with housing retirement service provision and care how health promotion principles can contribute to a healthy older population Investigating current critical debates in health and social science the book explores innovative new approaches to aged care and ageing By using international examples and a multidisciplinary approach this comprehensive textbook provides a broad understanding of ageing from a social perspective and analyzes concepts of ageism healthy ageing and positive ageing Real Estate, Construction and Economic Development in Emerging Market Economies Raymond Talinbe Abdulai,Franklin Obeng-Odoom,Edward Ochieng,Vida Maliene,2015-10-23 Real Estate Construction and Economic Development in Emerging Market Economies examines the relationships between real estate and construction sectors and explores how each sector and the relationships between them affect economic development in emerging market economies EMEs Throughout the book the international team of contributors discuss topics as diverse as real estate finance and investment housing property development construction project management valuation sustainability and corporate real estate In doing so the book demonstrates how the relationship between construction and real estate impacts on economic development in countries such as Argentina Brazil Colombia China Ghana Nigeria Turkey Lithuania Hungary and Slovenia Topics include the role of real estate brokerage in improving the living standards of citizens the effect of a mineral boom on construction cycles real estate values and the socio economic conditions of people in boom towns and cities corporate real estate management practices and how they affect economic growth and the synergies between construction and real estate and how they in turn affect economic development This book will be of interest to those studying and researching real estate construction development studies urban economics and emerging market economies Aging: Culture, Health, and Social Change David N. Weisstub, David C. Thomasma, S. Gauthier, G.F. Tomossy, 2001-11-30 This is the first of three volumes on Aging conceived for the International Library of Ethics Law and the New Medicine Leading scholars from a range of disciplines contest some of the predominant paradigms on aging and critically assess modern trends in social health policy Humanities Research Centre Glen St. John Barclay, Caroline Turner, 2004-05-01 A history of the HRC at the ANU but also an examination of the role and predicament of the humanities within universities and the wider community and contributes substantially to the ongoing debate on an Australian identity Publics and the City Kurt Iveson, 2011-07-22 Publics and the City investigates struggles over the making of urban publics considering how the production management and regulation of public spaces has emerged as a problem for both urban politics and urban theory Advances a new framework for considering the diverse spatialities of publicness in relation to the city Argues that a city's contribution to the making of publics goes beyond the provision of places for public gathering Examines a series of detailed case studies Looks at the relationship between urbanism public spheres and democracy Pseudo-Public Spaces in Chinese Shopping Malls Yiming Wang, 2019-06-07 Shopping malls in China create a new pseudo public urban space which is under the control of private or quasi public power structure As they are open for public use mediated by the co mingling of private property rights and public meanings of urban space the rise publicness and consequences of the boom in the construction of shopping malls raises major questions in spatial political economy and magnifies existing theoretical debates between the natural and conventional schools of property rights In examining these issues this book develops a theoretical framework starting with a critique of the socio spatial debate between two influential bodies of work represented by the work of Henri Lefebvre and David Harvey Drawing on the framework the book examines why pseudo public spaces have been growing so rapidly in China since the 1980s assesses to what degree pseudo public spaces are public and how they affect the publicness of Chinese cities and explores the consequences of their rise Findings of this book provide insights that can help to better understand Chinese urbanism and also have the potential to inform urban policy in China This book will be of interest to academics and researchers in both

Chinese studies and urban studies Alternative (post)modernity William Siew Wai Lim, 2003 In this book Singapore architect and intellectual William Lim continues his search for alternative Asian perspectives to Eurocentric modernity and US style globalization This compilation comprises essays and lectures of the past two years when the author pondered contemporary critical cultural and urban discourses through which he formulated new ideas and analyses particularly in relation to the postmodern glocality and social justice Lim's articles express powerful indictments of the multiple failures of Eurocentric modernity He challenges the mainstream modernist theories on urbanism and globality He offers critical alternatives and expands the frontiers of radical postmodern urbanism to include sustainability basic needs citizen participation and social justice The title of the book Alternative Post modernity clearly signals the complex relational fluidity hybridity and de-territorialisation between modernity and postmodernity The slogan of think global and act local and vice versa perhaps can describe the dialectical indefinable and ever evolving relationship of Post modernity Environment & Planning, 2004 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1971 Human Ecology, Human Economy Clive Hamilton, 2020-09-02 A brilliant synthesis of ecology and economics that provides a sure guide to a sustainable future It is a must for all environmentalists and economists Charles Birch Written by an impressive list of experts across a number of disciplines this readable text provides not only analysis but vigorous criticism and answers Robyn Williams This book is such a useful guide to responsible decision making that it should be supplied in bulk to senior government officials and managers in the private sector Ian Lowe This is a fine contribution to ecological economics coming from Australia and of interest worldwide Herman E Daly Human well being is wholly dependent upon the continued good health of the Earth's ecosystems Human behaviour as it interacts with the biophysical environment is enormously complex as governments and individuals who must make decisions about resource use are becoming increasingly aware Human Ecology Human Economy provides the basic concepts and tools for understanding how to analyse that interaction The book is designed to be used as a text for undergraduate and graduate students in environmental studies human and social ecology ecological economics futures studies and science and technology studies It is also intended for interested members of the public and for policy makers working on environmental issues especially where these intersect with economic policy Human Ecology Human Economy not only covers the basic concepts but also moves to some of the frontiers of thinking in several case studies It uses a problem and solution oriented approach which crosses disciplinary boundaries drawing together elements from biology economics philosophy and political science Professor Mark Diesendorf is Director of the Institute for Sustainable Futures at the University of Technology Sydney and Vice President of the Sustainable Energy Industries Council of Australia Among the books he has edited are The Magic Bullet and Energy And People Dr Clive Hamilton is Executive Director of the Australia Institute Canberra and teaches in the Public Policy Program at the Australian National University His books include Capitalist Industrialisation In Korea The Mystic Economist and The Economic Dynamics Of Australian Industry Business,
