Erased Faces , Comparative Indigeneities of the Américas M. Bianet Castellanos, Lourdes Gutiérrez Nájera, Arturo J. Aldama, 2012-10-04 The effects of colonization on the Indigenous peoples of the Am ricas over the past 500 years have varied greatly So too have the forms of resistance resilience and sovereignty In the face of these differences the contributors to this volume contend that understanding the commonalities in these Indigenous experiences will strengthen resistance to colonial forces still at play This volume marks a critical moment in bringing together transnational and interdisciplinary scholarship to articulate new ways of pursuing critical Indigenous studies Comparative Indigeneities of the Am ricas highlights intersecting themes such as indigenismo mestizaje migration displacement autonomy sovereignty borders spirituality and healing that have historically shaped the experiences of Native peoples across the Am ricas In doing so it promotes a broader understanding of the relationships between Native communities in the United States and Canada and those in Latin America and the Caribbean and invites a hemispheric understanding of the relationships between Native and mestizo o peoples Through path breaking approaches to transnational multidisciplinary scholarship and theory the chapters in this volume advance understandings of indigeneity in the Am ricas and lay a strong foundation for further research This book will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of anthropology literary and cultural studies history Native American and Indigenous studies women and gender studies Chicana o studies and critical ethnic studies Ultimately this deeply informative and empowering book demonstrates the various ways that Indigenous and mestizo o peoples resist state and imperial attempts to erase repress circumscribe and assimilate them

Historical Dictionary of U.S. Latino Literature Francisco A. Lomelí, Donald W. Urioste, María Joaquina Villaseñor, 2016-12-27 U S Latino Literature is defined as Latino literature within the United States that embraces the heterogeneous inter groupings of Latinos For too long U S Latino literature has not been thought of as an integral part of the overall shared American literary landscape but that is slowly changing This dictionary aims to rectify some of those misconceptions by proving that Latinos do fundamentally express American issues concerns and perspectives with a flair in linguistic cadences familial themes distinct world views and cross cultural voices The Historical Dictionary of U S Latino Literature contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has cross referenced entries on U S Latino authors and terms relevant to the nature of U S Latino literature in order to illustrate and corroborate its foundational bearings within the overall American literary experience This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this subject

Colorblind Tools Marzia Milazzo, 2022-10-15 Winner of the 2023 Association for Ethnic Studies Outstanding Book Award A study of anti Blackness and white supremacy across four continents demonstrates that colorblindness is neither new nor a subtype of racist ideology but a constitutive technology of racism In Colorblind Tools Marzia Milazzo offers a transnational account of anti Blackness and white supremacy that pushes against the dominant emphasis on historical change pervading current racial theory This emphasis on change she contends misses critical lessons from the past Bringing together a capacious archive of texts on race produced in Brazil Cuba Mexico Panama the United States and South Africa from multiple disciplines and genres Milazzo uncovers transnational continuities in structural racism and white supremacist discourse from the inception of colonial modernity to the present In the process she traces the global workings of what she calls colorblind tools technologies and strategies that at once camouflage and reproduce white domination Whether examining Rijno van der Riet s defense of slavery in the Cape Colony discourses of racial mixture in Latin American eugenics and their reverberations in contemporary scholarship the pitfalls of white antiracism or Chicana indigenist aesthetics Milazzo illustrates how white people collectively disavow racism to maintain power across national boundaries and how anti Black and colonial logics can be reproduced even in some decolonial literatures Milazzo s groundbreaking study proves that colorblindness is not new nor is it a subtype of racist ideology or a hallmark of our era It is a constitutive technology of racism a tool the master cannot do without

Juan Felipe Herrera Francisco A. Latino Los Angeles in Film and Fiction Ignacio López-Calvo, 2011-02-15 Los Angeles has long been a place where cultures clash and reshape The city has a growing number of Latina o authors and filmmakers who are remapping and reclaiming it through ongoing symbolic appropriation In this illuminating book Ignacio L pez Calvo foregrounds the emotional experiences of authors implicit authors narrators characters and readers in order to demonstrate that the evolution of the imaging of Los Angeles in Latino cultural production is closely related to the politics of spatial location This spatial temporal approach he writes reveals significant social anxieties repressed rage and deep racial guilt Latino Los Angeles in Film and Fiction sets out to reconfigure the scope of Latino literary and cultural studies Integrating histories of different regions and nations the book sets the interplay of unresolved contradictions in this particular metropolitan area The novelists studied here stem from multiple areas including the U S Southwest Guatemala and Chile The study also incorporates non Latino writers who have contributed to the Latino culture of the city The first chapter examines Latino cultural production from an ecocritical perspective on urban interethnic relations Chapter 2 concentrates on the representation of daily life in the barrio and the marginalization of Latino urban youth The third chapter explores the space of women and how female characters expand their area of operations from the domestic space to the public space of both the barrio and the city A much needed contribution to the fields of urban theory race critical theory Chicana o Latina o studies and Los Angeles writing and film L pez Calvo offers multiple theoretical perspectives including urban theory ecocriticism ethnic studies gender studies and cultural studies contextualized with notions of transnationalism and post nationalism

Bodies at War Belinda Linn Rincón, 2017-10-31 In the wake of U S military intervention abroad and collapsing domestic economies scholars have turned their attention to neoliberalism and militarization two ideological and material projects that are often treated as coincident though not interdependent Bodies at War examines neoliberal militarism a term that signifies the complex ways in which neoliberalism and militarism interanimate each other as they naturalize disempowering notions of masculinity and femininity alter democratic practices and circumscribe the meaning of citizenship and national belonging Bodies at War examines the rise of neoliberal militarism from the early 1970s to the present and its transformation of political economic and social relations It charts neoliberal militarism s impact on democratic practices economic policies notions of citizenship race relations and gender norms by focusing on how these changes affect the Chicana o community and more specifically on how it shapes and is shaped by Chicana bodies The book raises important questions about the cultural legacies of war and the gendering of violence topics that reach across multiple disciplinary fields of inquiry including cultural and media studies It draws attention to the relationship between war and society to neoliberal militarism s destructive social impact and to the future of Latina soldiering Through Chicana art activism and writing Rinc n offers a visionary foundation for an antiwar feminist politic

An Alphabetical Dictionary John Papworth, 2025-07-21 Reprint of the original first published in 1874 The Antigonas publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage People of the Image Marc Michael Epstein, 2025-06-24 The Middle Ages provide us with one of the richest repositories of art in the West Yet the rise in the production of art made for and by Jews especially in the form of illuminated manuscripts is often neglected in general surveys or viewed as a mere emulation of Christian art during this period In People of the Image Marc Michael Epstein demonstrates how medieval Jews transformed their visual art into a vital site of critical commentary Through bold speculation and radical interpretation Epstein considers how viewers might have empathized with depicted emotions how they envisioned the relationship between the monstrous and the human and how they could effectively perpetrate subversive acts merely by anticipating what might occur next in a given image were it to be set in motion Examining these artworks and imagining the circumstances of their production and reception Epstein uncovers otherwise inaccessible social political and theological perceptions among Europe's major medieval minority He goes on to illuminate the afterlives of medieval Jewish art in its reimaginings by postmodern Jews struggling to establish a conceptual as well as a political space for themselves as a minority in majority Christian society Bringing together diverse currents from various fields and bodies of literature People of the Image reveals how medieval Jews understood themselves the world and God Provocative and engagingly written the book will appeal to audiences across medieval studies cultural studies art history and Jewish studies

The Madness of Mamà Carlota Graciela Limón, 2012-03-31 It's 1852 in Cholula Mexico and three sisters indigenous girls of the Chontal people seek work at the Hacienda La Perla They rapidly make their way from dish washers to the cook's assistants before entering the house as servants to the wealthy Acu a family But when the youngest sister is viciously raped by a family member they flee the estate after taking their revenge only to be caught up in the historic Battle of Puebla where native Mexicans defeat invading French troops Fearful that the Acu a family will not rest until the sisters are found and punished they keep moving ultimately finding work as servants at the National Palace in Mexico City where the French have recently taken control There the sisters' fortunes become intertwined with that of the Empress Carlota Both beautiful and extremely intelligent she dedicates herself to the empire chastising Napoleon when he reneges on his promise to send troops and antagonizing the Church by proposing that the empire secularize at least part of its holdings But her love for Mexico's people is not reciprocated and soon the sisters have to decide whether to stay behind without the empress protection or to accompany her to Europe Weaving the story of Mexico's indigenous peoples with that of the tragic Belgian princess who became the wife of the Austrian Archduke Maximilian von Hapsburg acclaimed author Graciela Limón once again explores issues of race class and women's rights She skillfully crafts a gripping novel about a smart wealthy woman who is not afraid to challenge powerful men and reimagines the story behind Empress Carlota's descent into madness and eventual imprisonment in a remote European castle

Semiotics and Visual Communication IV Evripides Zantides, Sonia Andreou, 2024-06-25 The chapters in this book consist of selected papers which investigate the theme of Myths Today paying homage to the notion of myth as defined by Roland Barthes in the late 1950's which provided a theoretical framework under which daily habits as well as consumer practices can be examined as socially constructed signs idealized through verbal narratives While myth is a type of speech it is also a type of image typeface cinema photography sports online networks politics TV shows sound and fashion can all serve as groundwork for mythical discourses Under this framework the book explores myths today in the context of global networks globalisation visuals and mass communication The interdisciplinary nature of the book provides a platform for discussion and research broadens the scope of semiotic and visual communication thinking and challenges the boundaries of various disciplines
