Arts in New Zealand, 1945 Tuhinga, 2008 Fairburn and Friends Dinah Holman, Christine Cole Catley, 2004 ARD Fairburn probably more than any other New Zealander bridged literature politics commerce medicine and art history He moved from the worlds of architecture broadcasting painting and photography to the environment and outdoor pursuits and he was always intent on debating social and philosophical ideas Rex Fairburn liked nothing better than to expound these notions and toss them around in the company of good friends drink in one hand pipe in the other His friends many of whom figure in this book included many of those prominent in those same worlds from the 1920s through to the 1950s According to acclaimed author and historian Michael King this book makes an important contribution to New Zealand's history It will enlarge our understanding of how the literary and artistic community functioned in Auckland in the 1920s to 1950s with a degree of accomplishment and coherence that is surprising by today's standards Variety and Daily Variety Television

Reviews, 1993-1994 Prouty, 1996-10 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors Miola's edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play the play's debt to contemporary theater its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan the metrical variety of the play and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficult accessible journals newspapers and other sources This collection brings together these essays for the first time

The Wire Rafael Alvarez, David Simon, 2009-10-01 All in the game West Baltimore Traditional THE WIRE has been widely hailed as the greatest television series of all time It portrays the war of attrition between Baltimore's hardened police force and its drug dealers and the blurring of good and evil justice and injustice right and wrong that happens every day as men and women struggle against the institutions they are bound up in Over its five series it has built up a detailed rich and layered portrait of Baltimore from its corner boys touting dope and its dock workers facing extinction through the strained education system and tainted halls of power to the crumbling media establishment Rafael Alvarez a reporter essayist and staff writer for the show brings the reader inside this world detailing many of the real life incidents and personalities that have inspired the show's storylines and characters Packed with photographs and featuring an introduction by series creator and executive producer David Simon as well as essays by acclaimed authors George Pelecanos Ed Burns Richard Price Laura Lippman and Denis Lehane it covers all five series in glorious detail The Film Daily Year Book of Motion Pictures
