on the Left promoted egalitarian forms of humanism under the banner of international communism Others saw these opposed tendencies as converging in the extinction of the individual and sought to retrieve the ideals of the Enlightenment in ways that critically acknowledged the contradictions of a liberal democracy racked by class cultural and racial conflict Key figures and movements discussed in this volume include Schmitt Adorno and the Frankfurt School Arendt Benjamin Bataille French Marxism Black Existentialism Saussure and Structuralism Levi Strauss Lacan and Late Pragmatism These individuals and schools of thought responded to this modernity crisis in different ways but largely focused on what they perceived to be liberal democracy's betrayal of its own rationalist ideals of freedom equality and fraternity

Baudrillard and the Culture Industry Amirhosein Khandizaji, 2017-11-23 This book argues for the importance of the theory of the culture industry in today's world It begins by considering the neglect of the culture industry in the second and third generation of the Frankfurt School presenting historical background information and criticisms on the theories of Habermas and Honneth In our age the culture industry is something quite different from what Adorno and Horkheimer described or could even imagine in the twentieth century Today the masses can not only access the media but can also respond to the messages they receive A key question that arises then is why the masses even after gaining access to their own media still adhere to the values of the capitalist system Why haven't they achieved a class consciousness This work seeks to answer those questions Drawing on Jean Baudrillard's work it reveals the semiotic aspects of the culture industry and describes the industry in the age of simulation and hyperreality The book argues that the culture industry has now entered the micro level of our everyday life through shopping centers the image of profusion and more Further it explores new aspects of the culture industry such as a passion for participating in the media the consumed vertigo of catastrophe and masking the absence of a profound reality As such the book will particularly appeal to graduates and researchers in sociology and sociological theory and all those with an interest in the Frankfurt School and the works of Jean Baudrillard

Readers and Mythic Signs Debra Modellmog, 1993 Some literary scholars view myth criticism as passe an approach to literature that enjoyed a heyday in the 1950s and 1960s before being replaced by approaches that are considered to be more theoretically sophisticated and satisfying such as feminism new historicism and deconstruction Modellmog argues that there are many good reasons not to cast out myth criticism from the community of critical approaches Most obvious among them is that myth has attracted many writers of this century from James Joyce to Thomas Pynchon Virginia Woolf to Flannery O'Connor Thomas Mann to Alain Robbe-Grillet William Faulkner to Alberto Moravia and that to ignore myth is to dismiss an essential part of their work Modellmog suggests that by reconstruing the relationship between myth and literature we will find that mythic approaches are frequently not only necessary but also highly stimulating engaging readers in many varieties of questions quests and conclusions Publisher description

Human Rights and the Reinvention of Freedom Nick Stevenson, 2016-10-04 This volume seeks to propose a reinvention of freedom under contemporary conditions of globalization cross border mobility and neo liberal dominance There are currently two predominant myths circulating about freedom The first is that in a global age growing numbers of citizens are less concerned with freedom than they are with security Secondly there is the presumption that freedom only refers to market freedom and consumerism implying that the ideas of choice and consumption are interchangeable with ideas of freedom

Stevenson argues that while these arguments are significant they are deeply misleading More authentic ideas of freedom such as self realisation participating in politics and seeking a meaningful life of self reflection have not been entirely displaced but have instead become reinvented in our global times The cries of freedom can still be heard in a multitude of places from the Arab Spring to the Occupy Movement and from the protests against European austerity to the current popularity of human rights Stevenson also argues that the idea of freedom has become increasingly mobile in our interconnected and transnational society The spaces and places of civil society are more complex in this global age pushing ideas of freedom far beyond the usual arena of national politics This volume brings together a diverse range of cultural interpretations in respect of freedom related to the idea of the commons cosmopolitanism contemporary documentary cinema and the history of jazz music Exploring the ways in which notions of freedom are being re made within the context of the present and looking more precisely at the current threats to freedom it will be of interest to students and scholars of globalization human rights and cultural sociology
