Department of Agriculture, 1911 Upholstery Conservation: Principles and Practice Dinah Eastop, Kathryn Gill, 2012-09-10 This well referenced book provides an amply illustrated publication on upholstery conservation which discusses and reviews the issues related to the care interpretation and treatment of upholstered furniture Through many well illustrated case studies the interdisciplinary collaboration fundamental to upholstery conservation and the complex decision making process involved in the treatment of upholstered furniture are made evident The case histories are contributed by leading international practitioners in the field and concern objects and collections in the care of English Heritage the Victoria and Albert Museum the Metropolitan Museum of Art and other internationally renowned institutions Likewise the contributors from both sides of the Atlantic are world renowned specialists and leaders in this area of conservation working for the public and private sectors The case histories illustrated in colour black and white and specially prepared line drawings concern object treatment and documentation the conservation of information the function and the artefact They range from the documentation of eighteenth century removable chair covers and the treatment of a nineteenth century carriage to a twentieth century foam filled chair belonging to a museum Annual Report of the Department of Agriculture ... New York. Department of Agriculture, 1911 The Sea View Has Me Again Patrick Wright, 2020-12-08 The story of Uwe Johnson one of Germany's greatest and most influential post war writers and how he came to live and work in Sheerness Kent in the 1970s Towards the end of 1974 a stranger arrived in the small town of Sheerness on the Isle of Sheppey in Kent He could often be found sitting at the bar in the Napier Tavern drinking lager and smoking Gauloises while flicking through the pages of the Kent Evening Post Charles was the name he offered to his new acquaintances But this unexpected immigrant was actually Uwe Johnson originally from the Baltic province of Mecklenburg in the GDR and already famous as the leading author of a divided Germany What caused him to abandon West Berlin and spend the last nine years of his life in Sheerness where he eventually completed his great New York novel Anniversaries in a house overlooking the outer reaches of the Thames Estuary And what did he mean by detecting a moral utopia in a town that others including his concerned friends saw only as a busted slum on an island abandoned to deindustrialisation and a stranded Liberty ship full of unexploded bombs Patrick Wright who himself abandoned north Kent for Canada a few months before Johnson arrived returns to the island that is all the world to uncover the story of the East German author s English decade and to understand why his closely observed Kentish writings continue to speak with such clairvoyance in the age of Brexit Guided in his encounters and researches by clues left by Johnson in his own island stories the book is set in the 1970s when North Sea oil and joining the European Economic Community seemed the last hope for bankrupt Britain It opens out to provide an alternative version of modern British history a history for the present told through the rich and haunted landscapes of an often spurned downriver mudbank with a brilliant German answer to Robinson Crusoe as its primary witness

Man's Most Dangerous Myth: The Fallacy of Race Ashley Montagu, 2011-11-29

DR ASHLEY MONTAGU S book possesses two great merits rarely found in current discussions of human problems Where most writers over simplify he insists on the principle of multiple and interlocking causation And where most assume that facts will speak for themselves he makes it clear that facts are mere ventriloquists dummies and can be made to justify any course of action that appeals to the socially conditioned passions of the individuals concerned These two truths are sufficiently obvious but they are seldom recognized for the good reason that they are very depressing To recognize the first truth is to recognize the fact that there are no panaceas and that therefore most of the golden promises made by political reformers and revolutionaries are illusory And to recognize the truth that facts do not speak for themselves but only as man s socially conditioned passions dictate is to recognize that our current educational processes can do very little to ameliorate the state of the world In the language of traditional theology so much more realistic in many respects than the liberal philosophies which replaced it most ignorance is voluntary and depends upon acts of the conscious or subconscious will Thus the fallacies underlying the propaganda of racial hatred are not recognized because as Dr Montagu points out most people have a desire to act aggressively and the members of other ethnic groups are convenient victims whom one may attack with a good conscience This desire to act aggressively has its origins in the largely unavoidable frustrations imposed upon the individual by the processes of early education and later adjustments to the social environment Dr Montagu might have added that aggressiveness pays a higher dividend in emotional satisfaction than does co peration Co peration may produce a mild emotional glow but the indulgence of aggressiveness can be the equivalent of a drinking bout or sexual orgy In our industrial societies the goodness of life is measured in terms of the number and intensity of the excitements experienced Popular philosophy is moulded by and finds expression in the advertising pages of popular magazines Significantly enough the word that occurs more frequently in those pages than any other is thrill Like sex and alcohol aggressiveness can give enormous thrills Under existing social conditions it is therefore easy to represent aggressiveness as good Concerning the remedies for the social diseases he has so penetratingly diagnosed Dr Montagu says very little except that they will have to consist in some process of education But what process It is to be hoped that he will answer this question at length in another work ALDOUS HUXLEY

Teach! Change! Empower! Carl A. Grant, 2009-10-07 Teach Change Empower takes the concepts of diversity and change which are often complex abstract confusing and not salient to many teachers who struggle with the meaning of these concepts in actual classroom practices and uses them as a framework for something that is very real to teachers the achievement gap Barbara Heuberger Rose Associate Professor Miami University Readers are challenged to think about themselves and their role in addressing achievement gaps in a non blaming manner Carl Grant does an outstanding job of incorporating the work of a number of researchers Maria Whittemore Minority Achievement Coordinator Frederick County Public Schools MD Narrow the achievement gap by affirming diversity and engaging in a process of personal change The achievement gap illustrates restricted life chances and choices for many students and only by addressing these inequities can we enable all learners to reach their fullest potential Teach Change Empower provides a powerful step by step process for making the changes necessary to close the achievement gaps in your school This innovative resource offers a wealth of strategies and action plans to help teachers reflect on their own beliefs about diversity and power and turn those reflections into actions Educators can put into practice ideas that challenge the status quo including Culturally relevant curriculum and environments for students Caring with a social political consciousness within a culture of learning Cooperative professional development for teachers administrators and staff Democratic student involvement Initiate change in your classroom that fosters lifelong learning in yourself your students and your school
