The Pictorial Third Liliane Louvel, 2018-05-23 The Pictorial Third An Essay into Intermedial Criticism examines the extent to which poetry intertwines with painting and the visual at large and studies the singular relationship established between language and image observing the modalities and workings of what is termed intermedial transposition By following a critical method of the close analysis of texts the book examines to what extent the pictorial tool may be of help to analyze literary texts and thus enlarge and enrich literary criticism Examining the technical notions typical of the medium and its history including perspective framing colour anamorphosis trompe l'œil Veronica veil still life portrait figure illusion apparatus genres and styles this volume presents a pragmatics of image in text and of the visual in text as an operative tool This pictorial reading necessarily includes synesthesia and the senses it also functions as a reading event or what happens to one when one unawares encounters a picture be it present in the book or the object of an ekphrasis Thus the body is eventually given back a role to play The sensitive approach has its own resonances and the eye or the gaze sometimes sees double in such intermedially oriented texts This volume proposes to identify the pictorial third as the phenomenon which can be apprehended in terms of effect or affect not only as a concept

The Fountainhead of Chinese Erotica Charles R. Stone,2003-03-31 The Lord of Perfect Satisfaction Ruyijun zhuan a short work of fiction from the early sixteenth century tells the story of the Tang dynasty's notorious Wu Zetian the only woman to rule as emperor of China. It is famous not for the history it relates but for its graphic sexual descriptions the first ever in a Chinese novel purportedly given from a woman's point of view. Despite its renown and unmistakable influence on later writing the origins and significance of the Ruyijun zhuan have never been explored in any language and until now it has never been translated. Its date of composition is unknown its author unidentified. One of its earliest appraisals written by a contemporary scholar known for his conservatism maintains that the Ruyijun zhuan is a moral work notwithstanding its sexual content. Combining a complete translation with a detailed and far ranging study of the text The Fountainhead of Chinese Erotica places this important cultural document into historical context and offers possibilities on its meaning. Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004 Modern American Short Story Sequences J. Gerald Kennedy, 1995-01-27 Originally published in 1995 this book gathers together eleven full length essays on important American short story sequences of the twentieth century. The introduction by J. Gerald Kennedy elucidates problems of defining the genre cites notable instances of the form such as Sherwood Anderson's Winesburg, Ohio and explores the implications of its modern emergence and popularity. Subsequent essays discuss illustrative works by such figures as Henry James, Jean Toomer, Ernest Hemingway, Richard Wright, William Faulkner, Eudora Welty, J. D. Salinger, John Cheever, John Updike, Louise Erdrich and Raymond Carver. While examining distinctive thematic concerns each essay also considers implications of form and arrangement in the construction of composite fictions that often produce the illusion of a fictive community. Love: A Treatise on the Science of Sex-Attraction Bernard S.
