totally new Aficionados of ghost stories will revel in this reinvention of a popular genre In the second section Sonnets there is a drastic mood change as personal experience and harrowing news items root the poems into the mundane world of everyday existence Some of these poems delves into the dark reality of unnatural happenings the tragedies of the Beslan massacre or the Chinese cockle pickers whilst others rescue the banal and sweep it off into the realms of the fantastical The final section Other Sonnets inhabits the cusp between Ghost and Here chance and inexplicable coincidence meet in the ghostly multiplications of language Working within the conventional form of the sonnet this sequence is on the surface one of Monk's most accessible works but the simplicity is deceptive as each poem shifts and veers into unexpected complexity Words shimmy down the page to their unpredictable conclusion leaving the reader delighted disconcerted and baffled Monk brings together disparate strands of uncertainty in a fragile world and she does it with her usual tenderness ferocity and humour

The Art of Hanging John Deane Potter,1969 Hanging in Chains Albert Hartshorne,1891 First edition of this scarce book and an uncommonly upbeat work on capital punishment Hartshorne's Hanging In Chains provides us with a brief history of execution in England and Europe and then covers in great detail the practice of gibbetting the hanging of a person in chains as either a means of execution or torture and the display of piracy and wrongdoing to the general public The work has significant material on pirates and piracy Description from Buddenbrooks bookseller By the Neck August Menchen,1942 A Handbook on Hanging Charles Duff,1999-10-31 A Handbook on Hanging is a Swiftian tribute to that unappreciated mainstay of civilization the hangman With barbed insouciance Charles Duff writes not only of hanging but of electrocution decapitations and gassings of innocent men executed and of executions botched of the bloodlust of mobs and the shabby excuses of the great This coruscating and in contemporary America very relevant polemic makes clear that whatever else capital punishment may be said to be justice vengeance a deterrent it is certainly killing By the Neck August Mencken,1942 Women and the Noose Richard Clark (Writer on capital punishment),2007 From the Publisher Tracing the history of female crime and execution from 1726 to 1955 Women and the Noose presents the cases of more than 50 women who met their end on the hangman's gallows From the criminal act to the execution day itself these women's stories illustrate the range of crimes punishable by execution such as petty theft and murder as well as reactions to the death sentence including the pleading the belly defense Richard Clark also discusses the developments in execution methods from burning at the stake to the short and long drop as well as the move from very public hangings to more dignified private events Clark's frank treatment of the executions combined with sympathetic revelations about the women's private lives makes for a chilling and surprisingly moving read The Hanging Tree Vic Gatrell,1994 But how did those who watched read about or ordered these strangulations feel about the terror and suffering inflicted in the law's name What kind of justice was delivered and how did it change "... Hang by the Neck ..." Negley King Teeters,Jack H. Hedblom,1967 An Unjust Hanging Dave Halliwell,2012-08-10 One winter's evening in 1821 stung by his girlfriend Eliza's rejection 17 year old
