The Professional and Amateur Photographer, 1908 A Shared Legacy Fintan Cullen, 2017-07-05 A Shared Legacy Essays on Irish and Scottish Art and Visual Culture brings together for the first time a unique selection of new research by leading Irish Scottish English and North American scholars to explore the varying ways in which the visual can operate within the context of two countries with related experiences of lost statehood yet retained nationhood Covering a span of three centuries this skilfully crafted book takes the discussion of Irish and Scottish art beyond the often isolationist approach adopted in the past dealing directly with issues of nationality in a wider context The authors identify national concerns through a range of themes race class union and assimilation or nationalism and internationalism and while many of the essays focus on paintings sculpture prints and watercolours others consider a wider notion of visual culture by investigating photography magic lantern slides and the home arts of embroidery and textiles

Francis Bedford, Landscape Photography and Nineteenth-century British Culture Stephanie Spencer, 2011 Focusing on one representative figure Francis Bedford this study emphasizes how photographs operated to form and transmit cultural ideas and values The first writing on Bedford since the 1970s the book examines this premier photographer who was also commercially successful Major themes include the intersection of nature and culture the practice of nineteenth century tourism attitudes toward historical identity and the formation of a national identity in England and Wales Elemental Architecture Phillip James Tabb, 2018-10-31 Elemental Architecture presents a new and refreshing approach to sustainable architectural practice Going beyond the standard performance based and quantitative sustainable measures it incorporates a broader framework of considerations including the more poetic and noetic possibilities of environmental design The book is structured around the ancient Greek and medieval alchemists system of the Five Temperaments fire earth air water and ether Phillip James Tabb examines how these elements produce both positive and negative environmental forces which have an impact on architectural design from drinking water and fresh air to torrential floods and tornados He shows how responding to or enhancing these forces can help us to create a more sustainable healthy and purposeful architecture To illustrate this each chapter draws on seminal contemporary works of architecture from Peter Zumthor s Bruder Klaus Field Chapel to Frank Lloyd Wright s masterpiece at Fallingwater These examples are accompanied by over a hundred high quality illustrations Expanding the discussion of sustainability to include phenomenological as well as qualitative considerations Elemental Architecture is ideal for students and researchers with an interest in sustainable architecture and architectural theory

Landscape and Images John R. Stilgoe, 2015-02-12 John Stilgoe is just looking around This is more difficult than it sounds particularly in our mediated age when advances in both theory and technology too often seek to replace the visual evidence before our own eyes rather than complement it We are surrounded by landscapes charged with our past and yet from our earliest schooldays we are instructed not to stare out the window Someone who stops to look isn t only a rarity he or she is suspect Landscape and Images records a lifetime spent observing America s constructed landscapes Stilgoe s essays follow the eclectic trains of thought that have resulted from his observation from the postcard preference for sunsets over sunrises to the concept of teen geography to the unwillingness of Americans to walk up and down stairs In Stilgoe s hands the subject of jack o lanterns becomes an occasion to explore centuries old concepts of boundaries and trespassing and to examine why this originally pagan symbol has persisted into our own age Even something as mundane as putting the cat out before going to bed is traced back to fears of unwatched animals and an untended frontier fireplace Stilgoe ponders the forgotten connections between politics and painted landscapes and asks why a country whose vast majority lives less than a hundred miles from a coast nonetheless looks to the rural Midwest for the classic image of itself At times breathtaking in their erudition the essays collected here are as meticulously researched as they are elegantly written Stilgoe s observations speak to specialists whether they be artists historians or environmental designers as well as to the common reader Our landscapes constitute a fascinating history of accident and intent The proof says Stilgoe is all around us
