Traveling Light Andrea Thalasinis,2025-06-25 Paula Makaikis is ashamed of her marriage Driven out of their bedroom by Roger s compulsive hoarding she has spent the past ten years sleeping downstairs on her husband's ratty couch. Distant and uninspired Paula is more concerned with the robins landing on her office window ledge than her hard earned position at the university. Until a phone call changes everything. A homeless Greek man is dying in a Queens hospital and Paula is asked to come translate. The old man tells her of his beloved dog Fotis who bit a police officer when they were separated. Paula has never considered adopting a dog but she promises the man that she will rescue Fotis and find him a good home. But when Fotis enters her life she finds a companion she can't live without. Suddenly Paula has a dog, a brand new Ford Escape, an eight week leave of absence and a plan. So Fotis and Paula begin the longest drive of their lives. In northern Minnesota something compels her to answer a help wanted ad for a wildlife rehabilitation center. Soon Paula is holding an eagle in her hands and the experience leaves her changed forever. An inspiring story about fate, family and healing, this novel explores what is possible when we cut the ties that hold us down and the heart is free to soar. Traveling Light by Andrea Thalasinis is an inspiring story about fate, family and healing. The Burning Saints Dimitris Xygalatas, 2014-10-14. The Anastenaria are Orthodox Christians in Northern Greece who observe a unique annual ritual cycle focused on two festivals dedicated to Saint Constantine and Saint Helen. The festivals involve processions, music, dancing, animal sacrifices and culminate in an electrifying fire-walking ritual. Carrying the sacred icons of the saints, participants dance over hot coals as the saint moves them. The Burning Saints presents an analysis of these rituals and the psychology behind them. Based on long-term fieldwork, The Burning Saints traces the historical development and sociocultural context of the Greek fire-walking rituals. As a cognitive ethnography, the book aims to identify the social, psychological and neurobiological factors which may be involved and to explore the role of emotional and physiological arousal in the performance of such ritual. A study of participation, experience and meaning, The Burning Saints presents a highly original analysis of how mental processes can shape social and religious behaviour.
