Employee participation and voice EPV concern power and influence Traditionally EPV has encompassed worker attempts to wrest control from employers through radical societal transformation or to share control through collective regulation by trade unions This book offers a controversial alternative arguing that in recent years participation has shifted direction In Employee Voice and Participation the author contends that participation has moved away from employee attempts to secure autonomy and influence over organisational affairs to one in which management ideas and initiatives have taken centre stage This shift has been bolstered in the UK and USA by economic policies that treat regulation as an obstacle to competitive performance Through an examination of the development of ideas and practice surrounding employee voice and participation this volume tracks the story from the earliest attempts at securing worker control through to the rise of trade unions and today's managerial efforts to contain union influence It also explores the negative consequences of these changes and though the outlook is pessimistic considers possible approaches to address the growing power imbalance between employers and workers Employee Voice and Participation will be an excellent supplementary text for advanced students of employment relations and Human Resource Management HRM It will also be a valuable read for researchers policy makers trade unions and HRM professionals Full employment and world class skills Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Work and Pensions Committee, 2007-10-30 In light of the recommendations of the Leitch Review Prosperity for all in the global economy world class skills TSO ISBN 9780118404792 published in December 2006 the Government produced two policy papers setting out its plans to improve the co ordination of employment and skills training so that people who are low skilled and out of work have a better chance of finding and keeping employment These documents are the Green Paper In work better off Cm 7130 ISBN 9780101713023 and a related document World Class Skills Implementing the Leitch Review of Skills in England Cm 7181 ISBN 9780101718127 both published in July 2007 The Committee's report examines these key policy statements assessing the Department for Work and Pension's plans for future reform and how the Department will fulfil its role in improving the skills levels of people entering work drawing on the findings of previous Committee inquiries into welfare reform issues The Political Mind George Lakoff, 2008-05-29 A groundbreaking scientific examination of the way our brains understand politics from a New York Times bestselling author One of the world's best known linguists and cognitive scientists George Lakoff has a knack for making science make sense for general readers In his new book Lakoff spells out what cognitive science has discovered about reason and reveals that human reason is far more interesting than we thought it was Reason is physical mostly unconscious metaphorical emotion laden and tied to empathy and there are biological explanations behind our moral and political thought processes His call for a New Enlightenment is a bold and striking challenge to the cherished beliefs not only of philosophers but of pundits pollsters and political leaders The Political Mind is a passionate erudite and groundbreaking book that will appeal to anyone interested in how the mind works and how we function socially and politically Report of the ... Kelly,1987 Decent Work and Unemployment Christiana Bagusat,William J. F. Keenan,Clemens Sedmak,2010 This volume of 23 essays on diverse aspects of the complex and challenging concept of decent work has its inception in the Impulses of Salzburg 2009 Questions of decent work and decent unemployment have become especially salient in times of an economic and financial crisis The establishment of decent working conditions and decent unemployment provisions a complex matter of securing the right ethical mix of security and incentives are perceived as major challenges not only for developing and undeveloped countries which still don t have stable economies and where the rate of poverty and corruption is still high but also for developed societies themselves End Papers ,1986 The Industrial Law Journal ,1988 Industrial law journal provides comment and in depth analysis on a wide range of topics relating to employment law Its scope includes coverage of newly enacted legislation and proposals for law reform Industrial law journal also carries commentary on relevant government publications and reviews of books relating to labor law Work Related Abstracts ,1987 The Psychology of Employee Empowerment Rozana Ahmad Huq,2016-03-03 The complexities of employee empowerment have been largely underestimated and it is clear that organisations struggle with putting the concept into practice Rozana Ahmad Huq recognises that effective utilisation of human resources is a strategic issue for organisations Hierarchical organisations struggle to survive The growing trend for downsizing and merging of organisations means that they can no longer maintain the command and control approach and employees are given more responsibility and expected to take decisions However simply burdening employees with extra responsibility without empowering them does not deliver results Drawing on her own research in organisations Dr Huq investigates the concept of empowerment in a new way that combines themes from the disciplines of management and social work the latter being a domain where empowerment is an important construct This helps to bridge the gaps in knowledge in the management domain and draws attention to the positive and negative psychological implications for employees of the practice of empowerment that are often ignored by leaders and managers Ultimately the author offers a practice model to help people in management and non management understand the new roles and behaviours that they need to adopt if empowerment is to become a reality This book is a resource for any business or other organisation genuinely interested in employee empowerment and for those with a responsibility for teaching about it Whitaker's Books of the Month & Books to Come ,1986 Being Fair, Faring Better Roberta Gatti,Sandor Karacsony,Kosuke Anan,Celine Ferré,Carmen de Paz Nieves,Valerie Morrica,Carmen de Paz,Abla Safir,2016-02-05 In Central and Eastern European countries inequalities for Roma families living in marginalized communities start early and are striking Some of these inequalities reflect hard wired family circumstances such as being born in poverty Others reflect lack of opportunities such as limited access to those basic goods and services that are necessary not only for realizing one s potential in life but also for living with dignity Gaps between Roma and non Roma widen over the lifecycle in a way that reinforces and perpetuates disadvantage and translates into significantly unequal outcomes despite the fact that Roma report having similar aspirations to those of their non Roma neighbors Promoting equal opportunities for disadvantaged Roma is not only an imperative for societies that want to call themselves fair but it is also a smart economic choice especially in those countries where populations are aging rapidly Investing early with a particular emphasis on supporting healthy and cognitive development for disadvantaged Roma children is likely to go a long way in promoting fair chances However leveling the playing field in childhood is likely not enough disadvantaged Roma continue being exposed to unequal opportunities at key nodes in their lives such as when pursuing education or when looking for a job Therefore it is as important that a broader set of policies address some of the circumstances in which a large share of Roma children grow up including access to employment and decent living conditions for their families Implementing interventions that help overcome these interrelated barriers will require strong ownership at the national level coordinated policies across different ministries and government levels and an integrated delivery system that is grounded in approaches that are customized to local conditions and implemented in a participatory manner Good practices in Europe and elsewhere show that inclusion of the most disadvantaged including many Roma is possible and the current programming cycle for European Funds represents a unique opportunity to fund such interventions
