Freedom In The Family A Mother Daughter Memoir Of The Fight For Civil Rights:

Freedom in the Family Tananarive Due, Patricia Stephens Due, 2009-04-02 Patricia Stephens Due fought for justice during the height of the Civil Rights era Her daughter Tananarive grew up deeply enmeshed in the values of a family committed to making right whatever they saw as wrong Together in alternating chapters they have written a paean to the movement its hardships its nameless foot soldiers and its achievements and an incisive examination of the future of justice in this country Their mother daughter journey spanning two generations of struggles is an unforgettable story Women and the Civil Rights Movement, 1954-1965 Davis W. Houck, David E. Dixon, 2009-10-20 Historians have long agreed that women black and white were instrumental in shaping the civil rights movement Until recently though such claims have not been supported by easily accessed texts of speeches and addresses With this first of its kind anthology Davis W Houck and David E Dixon present thirty nine full text addresses by women who spoke out while the struggle was at its most intense Beginning with the Brown decision in 1954 and extending through the Voting Rights Act of 1965 the editors chronicle the unique and important rhetorical contributions made by such well known activists as Ella Baker Fannie Lou Hamer Daisy Bates Lillian Smith Mamie Till Mobley Lorraine Hansberry Dorothy Height and Rosa Parks They also include speeches from lesser known but influential leaders such as Della Sullins Marie Foster Johnnie Carr Jane Schutt and Barbara Posey Nearly every speech was discovered in local regional or national archives and many are published or transcribed from audiotape here for the first time Houck and Dixon introduce each speaker and occasion with a headnote highlighting key biographical and background details The editors also provide a general introduction that places these public addresses in context Women and the Civil Rights Movement 1954 1965 gives voice to stalwarts whose passionate orations were vital to every phase of a movement that changed America To Tell a Black Story of Miami Tatiana D. McInnis, 2022-12-13 How portrayals of anti Blackness in literature and film challenge myths about South Florida history and culture In this book Tatiana McInnis examines literary and cultural representations of Miami alongside the city s material realities to challenge the image of South Florida as a diverse cosmopolitan paradise McInnis discusses how this favorable melting pot narrative depends on the obfuscation of racialized violence against people of African descent Analyzing novels short stories and memoirs by Edwidge Danticat M J Fievre Carlos Moore Carlos Eire Patricia Stephens Due and Tananarive Due as well as films such as Dawg Fight and Moonlight McInnis demonstrates how these creations push back against erasure by representing the experiences of Black Americans and immigrants from Caribbean nations McInnis considers portrayals of state sanctioned oppression residential segregation violent detention of emigres and increasing wealth gaps and concludes that celebrations of Miami s diversity disguise the pervasive adaptive nature of white supremacy and anti Blackness To Tell a Black Story of Miami offers a model of how to use literature as a primary archive in urban studies It draws attention to the similarities and divergences between Miami s Black diasporic communities a historically underrepresented demographic in popular and scholarly awareness of the city Increasing understanding of Miami's political, social, and economic inequities, this book brings greater nuance to traditional narratives of exceptionalism in cities and regions. Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Dark Cities Sherrilyn Kenyon, Scott Smith, Cherie Priest, Jonathan Maberry, 2017-05-16 An anthology of spine-tingling tales of urban terror from modern masters of horror including Sherrilyn Kenyon, Cherie Priest, and Seanan McGuire. In shadowy back alleys, crumbling brownstones, and gleaming skyscrapers, cities harbor unique forms of terror. Here lie malicious ghosts, cursed buildings, malignant deities, and personal demons of every kind. Twenty of today's most talented writers bend their skills toward the darkness, creating brand-new tales guaranteed to keep you awake at night, especially if you live in the dark cities. Far worse than mythical creatures such as vampires and werewolves, these are horrors that lurk in the places you go every day where you would never expect to find them. But they are there, and now that you know, you'll never again walk the streets alone. The End of the World As We Know It Christopher Golden, Brian Keene, 2025-08-19 An original short story anthology based on master storyteller Stephen King's #1 New York Times bestselling classic The Stand. Since its initial publication in 1978, The Stand has been considered Stephen King's seminal masterpiece of apocalyptic fiction, with millions of copies sold and adapted twice for television. Although there are other extraordinary works exploring the unraveling of human society, none have been as influential as this iconic novel. Generations of writers have been impacted by its dark yet ultimately hopeful vision of the end and new beginning of civilization and its stunning array of characters. Now, for the first time, Stephen King has fully authorized a return to the harrowing world of The Stand through this original short story anthology, as presented by award-winning authors and editors Christopher Golden and Brian Keene. Bringing together some of today's greatest and most visionary writers, The End of the World As We Know It features unforgettable all-new stories set during and after, and some perhaps long after, the events of The Stand.
