Freedom Now The Story Of The Abolitionists:

Freedom Now! Francine Klagsbrun, 1972 Discusses the abolition movement focusing on prominent personalities A Kid's Guide to African American History Nancy I. Sanders, 2007-06-01 What do all these people have in common the first man to die in the American Revolution a onetime chief of the Crow Nation the inventors of peanut butter and the portable X ray machine and the first person to make a wooden clock in this country They were all great African Americans For parents and teachers interested in fostering cultural awareness among children of all races this book includes more than 70 hands on activities songs and games that teach kids about the people experiences and events that shaped African American history This expanded edition contains new material throughout including additional information and biographies Children will have fun designing an African mask making a medallion like those worn by early abolitionists playing the rhyming game Juba inventing Brer Rabbit riddles and creating a unity cup for Kwanzaa Along the way they will learn about inspiring African American artists inventors and heroes like Harriet Tubman Benjamin Banneker Rosa Parks Langston Hughes and Louis Armstrong to name a few Abolitionists Remember Julie Roy Jeffrey, 2012-02-01 In Abolitionists Remember Julie Roy Jeffrey illuminates a second little noted antislavery struggle as abolitionists in the postwar period attempted to counter the nation's growing inclination to forget why the war was fought what slavery was really like and why the abolitionist cause was so important In the rush to mend fences after the Civil War the memory of the past faded and turned romantic slaves became quaint owners kindly and the war itself a noble struggle for the Union Jeffrey examines the autobiographical writings of former abolitionists such as Laura Haviland Frederick Douglass Parker Pillsbury and Samuel J May revealing that they wrote not only to counter the popular image of themselves as fanatics but also to remind readers of the harsh reality of slavery and to advocate equal rights for African Americans in an era of growing racism Jim Crow and the Ku Klux Klan These abolitionists who went to great lengths to get their accounts published challenged every important point of the reconciliation narrative trying to salvage the nobility of their work for emancipation and African Americans and defending their own participation in the great events of their day Henrietta Szold Francine Klagsbrun, 2024-03-05 Award winning author Francine Klagsbrun reveals the complex life and work of Henrietta Szold founder of Hadassah and a Zionist trailblazer Henrietta Szold 1860 1945 is renowned as the founder of Hadassah the Women s Zionist Organization of America which quickly became one of the most successful of all Zionist groups In her work with Hadassah Szold used a combined ethical and pragmatic approach aimed at improving the lives of both Jews and Arabs She later moved to Mandate Palestine to help shape education health and social services there The pinnacle of her career came in her seventies when she took on the task of directing the Youth Aliyah program which rescued thousands of young people from the Nazis and resettled them in Palestine Using Szold's copious letters diaries and essays along with other archival documents Francine Klagsbrun traces Szold's life and legacy with an eye to uncovering the person behind the Zionist icon She reveals Szold as a complex human being who had to cope with controversy and criticism a workaholic with an outsized sense of duty and an idealist who fought for her beliefs even as she questioned her own abilities With deep insight Klagsbrun introduces readers to this extraordinary woman whose impact on women s lives as well as on education and health systems still resonates Horrid Tales: True Life Stories of Fomer Slaves, Historical Documents & Novels Mark Twain, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Aphra Behn, Thomas Clarkson, Daniel Drayton, Louis Hughes, Lydia Maria Child, James Weldon Johnson, Austin Steward, Ida B. advocating for the immediate emancipation of slaves as opposed to those planning for a gradual end to slavery the book recovers some of the political force of romanticism Through close readings of texts by Washington Irving John Neal Catharine Sedgwick Frederick Douglass Ralph Waldo Emerson and Herman Melville the book argues that these writers practiced forms of literary historiography that treat the past as neither a reflection of present interests nor as an irretrievably distant other but as a complex and open ended interaction between the two In place of a fixed and linear past these writers imagine history as an experience rooted in a fluid dynamic and ever changing present The political philosophical and aesthetic disposition Insko calls romantic presentism insists upon the present as the fundamental sphere of human action and experience and hence of ethics and democratic possibility Black Electoral Politics Lucius J. Barker, 2017-09-29 The official publication of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists NCOBPS this annual publication includes significant scholarly research reflecting the diverse interests of scholars from various backgrounds who use a variety of models approaches and methodologies The central focus is on politics and policies that advantage or disadvantage groups because of race ethnicity sex or other factors. The research is performed in a variety of contexts and settings. This second volume is dedicated to the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the NCOBPS and is commemorated in a special introductory section that includes major feature articles a special symposium and a book review section Lucius J Barker is Edna F Gellhorn Professor of Public Affairs and Political Science at Washington University St Louis and author of a number of books and articles on American judicial politics and public law and African American politics Contours of African American Politics Georgia Persons, 2017-07-05 Contours of African American Politics chronicles the systematic study of African American politics and its subsequent recognition as an established field of scholarly inquiry African American politics emanates from the demands of the prolonged struggle for black liberation and empowerment Hence the study of African American politics has sought to track codify and analyze the struggle that has been mounted and to understand the historic and changing political status of African Americans within American society This two volume set presents a selection of scholarship on African American politics as it appeared in The National Political Science Review from its initial launch in 1989 to the spring of 2009 Represented are contributions from some of the leading scholars of African American politics who have helped to establish and sustain the field The volumes are organized around themes that derive from the unfolding real life drama of African American politics and its subsequent scholarly treatment The result is a window into the political efforts that meld the historically disparate strands of black political expressions into a reconstructed and strategically nimble electoral based mass mobilization necessary for optimizing the impact of the African American vote Sections in the volumes also chronicle the evolution of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists as a professional organization The two volumes illuminate a pivotal epoch in black political empowerment and provide a context for the future of black politics
