Trading Freedom Dael A. Norwood,2024-05-31 Explores the surprisingly rich early history of US China trade and its unexpected impact on the developing republic The economic and geographic development of the early United States is usually thought of in trans Atlantic terms defined by entanglements with Europe and Africa In Trading Freedom Dael A Norwood recasts these common conceptions by looking to Asia making clear that from its earliest days the United States has been closely intertwined with China monetarily politically and psychologically Norwood details US trade with China from the late eighteenth through the late nineteenth centuries a critical period in America s self definition as a capitalist nation and shows how global commerce was central to the articulation of that national identity Trading Freedom illuminates how debates over political economy and trade policy the building of the transcontinental railroad and the looming sectional struggle over slavery were all influenced by Sino American relations Deftly weaving together interdisciplinary threads from the worlds of commerce foreign policy and immigration Trading Freedom thoroughly dismantles the idea that American engagement with China is anything new Freedom Ship Marcus Rediker,2025-05-13 A definitive sweeping account of the Underground Railroad s long overlooked maritime origins from a pre eminent scholar of Atlantic history and the award winning author of The Slave Ship As many as 100 000 enslaved people fled successfully from the horrors of bondage in the antebellum South finding safe harbor along a network of passageways across North America now known as the Underground Railroad Yet imagery of fugitives ushered clandestinely from safe house to safe house fails to capture the full breadth of these harrowing journeys many escapes took place not by land but by sea Deeply researched and grippingly told Freedom Ship offers a groundbreaking new look into the secret world of stowaways and the vessels that carried them to freedom across the North and into Canada Sprawling through the intricate riverways of the Carolinas to the banks of the Chesapeake Bay to Boston s harbors these tales illuminate the little known stories of freedom seekers who turned their sights to the sea

among them the legendary abolitionist Frederick Douglass and Harriet Tubman one of the Underground Railroad's most famous architects Marcus Rediker one of the leading scholars of maritime history puts his command of archival research on full display in this luminous portrait of the Atlantic waterfront as a place of conspiracy mutiny and liberation Freedom Ship is essential reading for anyone looking to understand the complete story of one of North America's most significant historical moments
