Get on the Journey David Smith, 2015-08-04 What is Get On The Journey Several years ago I felt led to start writing mens devotions They were primarily written for JourneyMen men on a journey and walking with Christ I soon found out that my devotions were not only being read by JourneyMen but also by women on the journey Daily and manly activities end up being themes for devotion Gods Word can be applied to my life and in turn to your life through these devotions Devotion life topics include fishing washing the car cleaning the pool watching television Peyton Manning being released working sleeping winning losing granite shopping etc Each devotional also contains probing questions that can be used for self examination or for small group study Get On The Journey contains fifty two devotions that recap a year of my life and writing but can be read and explored on your journey at your own pace David Smith Journeymen Why should you get on the journey Through trials and temptations God will strengthen our faith as we journey in the race of life It is here I find Davids devotionals an inspiration for each one of us who gather together in the name of Christ David has a special talent for reflecting lifes circumstances as a tool to help us all join in the race together

Sometimes we laugh and sometimes we cry As you read Davids devotionals meditate on your own life circumstances Consider how God is shaping and molding you to be a JourneyMan a man on a journey in life with Jesus as his Savior Pastor Rod Lindemann Journeyman Friends and Lovers Joel R. Beeke, 2012-02 Marriage aims at the glory of God through intimate companionship God meant husband and wife to walk together talk together work together and sleep together As the Puritans said God did not make the woman out of man's head to control him or out of his feet for him to trample on her but out of his side to be embraced near to his heart Here is a book of practical encouragements for two key aspects of marriage companionship and sex Dr Joel Beeke draws upon the wisdom of the Holy Scriptures and over three decades of pastoral ministry to present a dozen practical principles for fanning into flame the fire of love between husband and wife The Bible has a higher aim than a satisfying marriage namely glorying in God forever Marriage will one day be done made obsolete by the magnificent relationship between Christ and His people Even now marriage is neither the chief purpose nor the highest joy of man But the Scriptures do call wedded people to glorify God here and now through their marriages Dr Beeke's book aims to assist them in this In Part I Friends the book explores the meaning cultivation and threats to friendship in marriage Friendship is that personal bond of shared life that brings people together in delightful harmony It is rooted God's created order of making men and women in His image We broke this harmonious order when our first parents sinned against God simultaneously turning against each other But Christ is the great peacemaker and friendship restorer Cultivating friendship with your spouse is hard work but profoundly rewarding It revolves around sharing life together The book gives guidance in how to share yourself with your spouse through the gifts of time discussing decisions listening to each other's feelings talking about how God is at work in your lives praying together building trust laughing together giving thanks pleasing your spouse and finding shared interests It also walks the reader through the minefields of giving and receiving correction honoring in laws having balanced friendship with others and supporting one another in crises Above all we must remember that our most important friendship is with our Lord Jesus Christ who alone can walk with us through life death and eternity In Part II Lovers Dr Beeke sets forth several ways in which the gospel energizes married Christians to enjoy sex in holy delight The words gospel sex and holy may not seem to go together This book shows that in reality sexual love between husband and wife is both a holy duty pleasing to God and blessed privilege empowered by Christ's grace Rather than splitting our lives into different compartments such as sex and religion God calls us to respond to Christ's mercies by offering our whole existence to Him as a living sacrifice The Bible teaches us doctrines like the image of God in man the creation mandate God laid upon the human race the moral law for marriage forgiveness of sins by faith in Christ sanctification by divine grace Christ's call to take up our cross adoption by God and turning from idols to give thanks to God All these doctrines have massive implications for our sexual relationship with our spouses However these doctrines must do more than sit in our minds they must sink into our hearts In Reformed experiential fashion Dr Beeke leads the reader to know believe feel and act based upon God's Word applied by God's Spirit     The Sexual Organization of the City Edward O. Laumann, Stephen Ellingson, Jenna Mahay, Anthony Paik, 2005-11-21 We think of the city as a place where anything goes Take the sensational fantasies and lurid antics of single women on Sex in the City or young men on Queer as Folk and you might imagine the city as some kind of sexual playground a place where you can have any kind of sex you want with whomever you like anytime or anywhere you choose But in The Sexual Organization of the City Edward Laumann and company argue that this idea is a myth Drawing on extensive surveys and interviews with Chicago adults they show that the city is to the contrary a place where sexual choices and options are constrained From Wicker Park and Boys Town to the South Side and Pilsen they observe that sexual behavior and partnering are significantly limited by such factors as which neighborhood you live in your ethnicity what your sexual preference might be or the circle of friends to which you belong In other words the social and institutional networks that city dwellers occupy potentially limit their sexual options by making different types of sexual activities relationships or meeting places less accessible To explain this idea of sex in the city the editors of this work develop a theory of sexual marketplaces the places where people look for sexual partners They then use this theory to consider a variety of questions about sexuality Why do sexual partnerships rarely cross racial and ethnic lines even in neighborhoods where relatively few same ethnicity partners are available Why do gay men and lesbians have few public meeting spots in some neighborhoods but a wide variety in others Why are African Americans less likely to marry than whites Does having a lot of friends make you less likely to get a sexually transmitted disease And why do public health campaigns promoting safe sex seem to change the behaviors of some but not others Considering vital questions such as these and shedding new light on the city of Chicago this work will profoundly recast our ideas about human sexual behavior     Inseparable Bonds: Tales of Friendship and Camaraderie Pasquale
